Aids In Asia The Challenge Ahead:

AIDS in Asia Jai P. Narain, 2004-01-01 AIDS in Asia Jai P Narain, 2004-11-16 This volume discusses the many advances in HIV research new initiatives and their promise for application in the Asian region It highlights the critical need for national commitment and adequate resources and for addressing the underlying HIV risk related behaviours and vulnerabilities The contributors also examine the concept of comprehensive care from home and from the community to the institutional level as well as providing up to date information on HIV drug and vaccine development HIV/AIDS in the Post-HAART Era John C. Hall, Brian John Hall, Clay J. Cockerell, 2011 The science of the virus and its effects and the clinical approaches to its treatment and transmission prevention are placed in the context of the history and epidemiology of the HIV AIDS pandemic Each organ system of the body is explored as to manifestations of the disease treatment now and in the future as well as what the disease has taught us about the immune response The science of epidemiology which is so important in allowing for tracking of the disease and potential limitation of transmission is another aspect of AIDS explored in detail The pandemic manifests differently in different parts of the world and the relevance of the volume is enhanced by its international group of contributors No other text provides the historical and epidemiological context of this disease along with an update of diagnosis and treatment The underlying science and epidemiology of AIDS are not neglected so the student or clinician who is treating patients with AIDS can gain a full understanding of HIV AIDS in individual patients and in their communities Ex-post impact assessment review of the Regional Network on AIDS, Livelihoods, and Food Security (RENEWAL) Frankenberger, Tim, Nelson, Suzanne, 2012-02-16 The Regional Network on AIDS Livelihoods and Food Security RENEWAL was officially launched in 2001 as a joint project of the International Food Policy Research Institute IFPRI and the International Service for National Agricultural Research ISNAR and was operational in Malawi Uganda Kenya Zambia and South Africa through most of 2011 RENEWAL is a network of networks comprised of national networks of food and nutrition relevant organizations along with partners in AIDS and public health practitioners Its overarching goal is to provide evidence based research on the linkages between HIV food security and nutrition in Sub Saharan Africa that would inform responses to prevent or mitigate the impact and consequences of AIDS RENEWAL s three main objectives are 1 to reduce critical gaps in understanding how livelihoods particularly those deriving from agriculture both contribute to the spread of HIV and are affected by HIV and AIDS 2 to generate new policy relevant knowledge on how households and communities may strengthen both their resistance to HIV transmission and their resilience to the impacts of AIDS and 3 to enable relevant institutions particularly governments to generate and act upon realistic priorities for responding to the interaction of the AIDS epidemic with food and nutrition insecurity RENEWAL s strategic approach to achieving these goals involved the three core pillars of capacity strengthening policy communications and action research and the synergies resulting from their interactions This report assesses the impact of RENEWAL activities from 2000 to 2010 and is based on a review of products resulting from RENEWAL activities such as books policy briefs workshop summaries reports and discussion papers stakeholder perceptions of RENEWAL products and activities and national policy or programming changes resulting from RENEWAL supported action research capacity strengthening efforts and policy communications
