Dundee at War 1939-45 Craig Armstrong, 2021-12-30 During the Second World War a number of industries in Dundee were of importance to the war effort The jute industry which had previously dominated the local economy had suffered badly during the 1930s However the war gave a temporary boost to the industry with as the material was in high demand for use in sandbags The shipbuilding industry was also important with the Caledon Yards being busy throughout the war The yard refitted two Polish submarines at the beginning of the war and constructed a number of Castle and Loch Class frigates as well as a number of merchant vessels With its strategic importance it was believed that Dundee would be an obvious target for the Luftwaffe Fortunately however Dundee escaped relatively unscathed and the city itself was only bombed on twenty four occasions Dundee also played a significant role in the war at sea the city being home to a major Royal Navy submarine base HMS Ambrose Consequently sailors came to be an important part of the wartime scene in Dundee and came not only from Britain and its Empire but also from France and Norway A great many Dundee men and women served in the armed forces during the war and the city suffered many casualties but many also received decorations as a result of their bravery Amongst them was Wing Commander Gordon Hugh Malcolm who received the first RAF VC awarded for action in North Africa

The Fear in the Sky Pat Cunningham, 2012-09-19 A vivid account of the experiences of 10 men who volunteered to risk their lives on air operations during World War II Pennant Magazine A profound respect for the RAF aircrews of the Second World War led aviation historian Pat Cunningham DFM to record the experiences of ten men who volunteered to risk their lives on air operations for some time Britain's only effective method of striking back These young men came from disparate backgrounds but having qualified in their specialist categories were skillfully merged as interdependent crew members A staggering 8 305 of the 55 573 men killed in RAF Bomber Command alone died in accidents showing that enemy action was only one of the hazards aircrews faced Others included technical malfunctions notwithstanding that each had implicit faith in their supporting ground personnel The constant pressure to get aircrews operational saw many completing the required thirty bombing sorties with less than 500 hours experience Even so they were required to navigate over hostile blacked out terrain in uncertain weather and with few radio aids in machines packed with highly volatile substances Hardly surprising then that fear was a concomitant of the job I was scared throughout every single operation says one and if any operational aircrew member says different I'd say they were either liars or that age has mellowed their memories Bomber Command experiences over Central Europe feature largely but also included are maritime operations to furnish the all important meteorological reports two crew airborne interception radar sorties virtual suicide attacks by outmoded torpedo bombers against enemy capital ships operations in support of the Chindits Long Range Penetration Force in Burma and German POW incarceration that culminated with a three month death march ahead of the advancing Soviets The crew is the essential element throughout yet as the narratives show not all gelled seamlessly Surprisingly however individual traits actually strengthened the bond and gave every aircrew its special quality Praise for The Fear in the Sky An assembly of ten autobiographical accounts by Bomber Command aircrew retelling of their experiences and very hairy many of them are There are many personal touches drawn from their first forays in uniform right up to the end of their tour of duty sometimes in a German POW camp The stories make a lively read The Bulletin Amidst

Cheers, They Marched to War Hannah Spencer, 2018-06-12 Warfare has redefined our world over the past century Even the smallest communities have cheered their men as they marched away and laid wreaths for those who didn't return The villages which formed the Alscot Estate in Warwickshire are no different Their men lie in graves in France India Iraq Burma South Africa and many other places besides Some are remembered in perpetuity Others are not None of those touched by war returned home the same Physically and emotionally their lives were changed forever for better or for worse The cost to them their families and their communities was great The Second World War in particular redefined life for those on the home front As conflict brings out the worst in people it also brings out the best This book tells stories of incredible feats of bravery Humour amidst intolerable hardships Dedication sacrifice camaraderie lasting decades Men women and children striving to do their best for their country People simply getting on with things because they had to be done This is their tribute

Flying Magazine , 1940-05 Observers and Navigators C.G. Jefford, 2014-05-19 This title first appeared in 2001 to universal acclaim quickly went out of print and has remained so since The author meantime has continued his research and the result is this updated edition over half as long as the first with stacks of new photographs Absolutely essential reference for all those interested in military aviation Ireland's Aviator Heroes of World War II John C. Hewitt, 2016-04-08 Ireland's Aviator Heroes of World War II celebrates Irish aviators who served in the Royal Air Force during the dark days of the Second World War Individual stories have been painstakingly and extensively researched through interviews with the surviving subjects and their families and using the original log books and service records of the men Many of the stories contain details of the individuals participation in important wartime campaigns although others are limited to war service records due to a lack of surviving information Above all this book celebrates the great courage and sacrifice demonstrated by these Irishmen during their contribution to the Allied war effort against Nazi Germany her western allies and Japan Many of the men included paid the ultimate price for their participation The book is also well illustrated with many photographs some taken by the subjects themselves I Am Still Standing Constantin Zotis, 2001 About Say It Like It Is Over the course of the past fifty years Political Correctness has morphed from a social nicety to a national enforcement of stupidity Due to political correctness common sense has become less important in our society than the need to be hypersensitive to each and every group of minorities within our borders Liberals have worked slowly but steadily to promote and further the asinine concept of political correctness and have been successful in implementing it We are so sensitive these days that the mere mention of a nationality or a particular behavior has people gasping and whispering words like bigot hateful and intolerant As a society we've forgotten how to speak to one another in a truthful and direct manner As a result we have countless Interpretational breakdowns or Misunderstandings on a personal professional and political basis every day These Misunderstandings as Liberals call them are the result of our inability to actually convey our thoughts and intentions in a direct and non politically correct manner Sensitivity to the most mundane and insignificant aspects of life has turned

Americans into a weak and litigious people who are neither respected nor respectable Few people in our country actually have the inner fortitude to ignore the Liberals rules regarding speech and Appropriate topics and actually Say it like it is I hope to point out how accustomed we ve become to political correctness and how completely asinine the whole thing really is Political correctness is the best example of what happens when Liberals work to gradually normalize and institute a concept that has had nothing but detrimental affects on our country Where has political correctness led us It s no longer acceptable to call the Chinese Chinese We can t refer to a Black man as a Black man The word criminal should no longer be used to describe an individual who breaks the law Pride in America is far less PC than an animosity toward it No blame can be put on those who choose to act in an unacceptable manner We ve been trained to think of wealthy people as bad individuals and poor people as victims Armed conflict is no longer seen as the protection of our way of life as much as it is seen as an attempt on the part of our evil leaders to conquer and occupy foreign lands Political correctness teaches us Tolerance and Diversity and we can see where that has led us The teaching of manners a

RAF Bomber Command at War, 1939-1945 Craig Armstrong, 2021-04-28 The Royal Air Force had placed a great deal of faith in its force of bombers Bomber Command in the event of a future war The belief in the ability of formations of bombers flying in daylight and unescorted protecting themselves from enemy fighter attack informed early tactics but led to bloody losses Hampered by government restrictions on targets by late 1941 Bomber Command was in crisis As a result and coupled the growing dire war situation a new and forceful commander Sir Arthur Harris was appointed and new strategies allowed Bomber Command to broaden its attacks despite some opposition The result was the area bombing strategy which focussed attacks upon enemy held towns and cities This Main Offensive period lasted throughout 1943 1944 and saw both victories and defeats It was also the period that saw a limited number of precision attacks on Augsburg Peenemunde and most famously the Ruhr dams Bomber Command also aided in tactical and strategic support for the invasion of Europe and the subsequent fight to push inland New technological developments allowed Bomber Command to hit V Weapons sites and to focus more on precision bombing but Harris remained determined to hit German towns and cities whenever possible while the Command s growing power allowed it to rain devastation upon its targets culminating at Dresden Much has been written about Bomber Command but this book focusses largely on those who took part in the raids and on public attitudes towards the campaign in Britain Using accounts from national and local archives newspapers and existing historiography the book seeks to shed light on untold stories from Bomber Command s war

From Hitler's U-Boats to Khrushchev's Spyflights Chris Clarke, 2013-09-09 This book tells the tale of the illustrious Royal Air Force career of Tom Clark a World War Two gunner and post war signaller in action during some of the most pivotal events of the twentieth century Lovingly penned by his son it provides an authentic insight into this dynamic period of world history From work as an air gunner involved in the daunting task of taking on the might of Hitler s U boat fleet to post war involvement in an Intelligence capacity during the dramatic events surrounding Khrushchev and the atomic threat of the late 1950s Clark's career was dramatic and varied to say the least Having joined the RAF as an aircraft man just before the Second World War Clark was destined to take part in a whole range of wartime operational engagements His career featured involvement in the famous 1941 hunt for the elusive Bismarck the dangers of life as part of an Air Sea Rescue squadron in conflicted waters and the experience of training as a gunnery leader later an instructor training air gunners for the famed Desert Air Force His career also took in a fraught period behind enemy lines when his crew of four were shot down in enemy territory in Northern Italy Seven weeks in a safe house in Florence are relayed in engaging and dramatic style as are a raft of other personal and professional achievements set within the context of the wider conflict Here is a career that deserves to be recorded and celebrated and there is perhaps no one better placed than the subject's son to act as custodian to his thrilling story
