Air War Hanoi:

Air War Hanoi Robert F. Dorr, 1988 Om Vietnamkrigen som den forløb i luftmilitær henseende set fra amerikansk side Der fortæller om de vigtigste fly og om personer der deltog i kampene samt om de væben der udvikledes under krigen Air War Over South Vietnam, 1968-1975 Bernard C. Nalty, 2000 Gradual failure : the air war over North Vietnam 1965-1966 Jacob Van Staaveren, 2002 Of the many facets of the American war in Southeast Asia debated by U S authorities in Washington by the military services and the public none has proved more controversial than the air war against North Vietnam The air war's inauguration with the nickname Rolling Thunder followed an eleven year American effort to induce communist North Vietnam to sign a peace treaty without openly attacking its territory Thus Rolling Thunder was a new military program in what had been a relatively low key attempt by the United States to win the war within South Vietnam against insurgent communist Viet Cong forces aided and abetted by the north The present volume covers the first phase of the Rolling Thunder campaign from March 1965 to late 1966 It begins with a description of the planning and execution of two initial limited air strikes nicknamed Flaming Dart I and II The Flaming Dart strikes were carried out against North Vietnam in February 1965 as the precursors to a regular albeit limited Rolling Thunder air program launched the following month Before proceeding with an account of Rolling Thunder its roots are traced in the events that compelled the United States to adopt an anti communist containment policy in Southeast Asia after the defeat of French forces by the communist Vietnamese in May 1954

Air War Vietnam. Plans and Operations 1961 - 1968 Jacob van Staaveren, Stuart Slade, 2012-10-19 During the middle and late 1970s the United States Air Force Historical Research Center Maxwell Air Force Base Alabama produced a series of 17 monographs that detailed the history of the Vietnam War These studies were classified as being Top Secret for many years and were only recently released to the public The core of these monographs is the series that deal with the political operational and technical development of the Air Force participation in the Vietnam War These remarkable documents contain a wealth of historical data that explain the background and reasoning behind many controversial decisions This compilation has taken these monographs and assembled them into a single narrative The documents have been painstakingly remastered and reset to the printed page but their editorial integrity has been scrupulously preserved Air War Hanoi Robert F. Dorr, 1988 Air Power And The Ground War In Vietnam, Ideas And Actions Dr Donald J. Mrozek, 2015-11-06 Ultimately this study is about a smaller Vietnam War than that which is commonly recalled It focuses on expectations concerning the impact of air power on the ground war and on some of its actual effects but it avoids major treatment of some of the most dramatic air actions of the war such as the bombing of Hanoi To many who fought the war and believe it ought to have been conducted on a still larger scale or with fewer restraints this study may seem almost perverse emphasizing as it does the utility of air power in conducting the conflict as a ground war and without total exploitation of our most awe inspiring technology Although the chapters in this study are intended to form a coherent and unified argument each also offers discrete messages The chapters are not meant to be definitive They do not exhaust available documentary material and they often rely heavily on published accounts Nor do they provide a complete chronological picture of the uses of air power even with respect to the ground war Nor is coverage of areas in which air power was employed South Vietnam Laos Cambodia and North Vietnam evenly distributed nor necessarily proportionate to the effort expended in each place during the war Lastly some may find one or another form of air power either slightly or insufficiently treated Such criticisms are beside the point for the objectives of this study are to explore a comparatively neglected theme the impact of air power on the ground and to encourage further utilization of lessons drawn from the Vietnam experience The Vietnam War Jayne Susan Werner, Luu Doan Huynh, 1993-03-31 In addition to Jayne Werner and Luu Doan Huynh the contributors are Mark Bradley William Duiker David Elliott Kristin Pelzer George Vickers James Harrison George Herring Ronald Spector Paul Joseph Jeffrey Clarke Ngo Vinh Long Benedict Kiernan Marilyn Young David Hung Keith Taylor and Tran Van Tra

Combat in the Sky Dong Sy Hung, 2023-10-15 Fought in the skies over North Vietnam the air war between Vietnamese People's Air Force VNPFAF and U S airpower lasted nearly eight years with hundreds of thousands of combat missions carried out and nearly four hundred dogfights Combat in the Sky Airpower and the Defense of North Vietnam 1965 1973 is the English edition of the definitive North Vietnamese work on Vietnam War airpower In this book ng S H ng depicts the relevant events in chronological order from the first air battles such as the one at Dragon's Jaw Bridge April 1965 to the Linebacker II Campaign or as it was known by the North Vietnamese the i n Bi n Ph in the Air Campaign December 1972 Dong then writes about the signing of the Paris Peace Accords January 1973 and the VNPFAF's attacks on T n S n Nh t Airfield April 1975 The air war in Vietnam was the first modern conflict in which the two opposing sides used jet combat aircraft equipped with air to air missiles In addition to his analysis of the strategic calculations especially by the North Vietnamese and the operations carried out the author also details the technical characteristics of the weaponry used as well as the changes in tactics applied in each phase of the war In doing so Dong provides the most unique perspective of this aspect of the conflict available in the English language Gradual Failure: The Air War Over North Vietnam, 1965-1966 Jacob Van Staaveren, 2011-07-18 The air war against North Vietnam was launched with the nickname Rolling Thunder This book covers the first phase from March 1965 to late 1966 It begins with the planning and execution of two initial limited air strikes nicknamed Flaming Dart I and II As the air campaign gradually expanded and the permissible targeting area moved northward many in Washington believed air power could never win the war in the north The United States Air Force reached its nadir during the opening two years of the Rolling Thunder air campaign in North Vietnam Never had the Air Force operated with so many restraints and to so little effect These pages are painful but necessary reading for all who care about the nation's military power The author served as a historian for over twenty years with the Air Force history program Originally published by the Air Force History and Museums Program Vietnam George Donelson Moss, 2016-07-01 This book provides a comprehensive narrative history of

U S involvement in Southeast Asia from 1942 to 1975 with a concluding section that traces U S Vietnam relations from the end of the war in 1975 to the present Unlike most general histories of U S involvement in Vietnam which are either conventional diplomatic or military histories this volume synthesizes the perspectives to explore both dimensions of the struggle in greater depth elucidating more of the complexities of the U S Vietnam entanglement It explains why Americans tried so hard for so long to stop the spread of Communism into Indochina and why they failed Key topics The Fall of Saigon The End as Prelude Vietnam A Place and A People The Elephant and the Tiger An Experiment in Nation Building Raising the Stakes Going to War The Chain of Thunders The Year of the Monkey A War to End a War The End of the Tunnel Market For anyone curious to know about the long American involvement in Southeast Asia 1942 1975 Air War, Southeast Asia, 1961-1973 Myron J. Vietnamese and American Perspectives Jayne Werner, Luu Doan Huynh, 2015-02-18 This volume derives from an unprecedented seminar held at Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs in November 1990. At the seminar, leading Western diplomatic and military historians and Vietnam scholars met with prominent Vietnamese Communists to reflect on the Vietnam War. The book contains four parts: The Vietnamese Revolution and Political Military strategy; the war from the American side; the war in the South and Cambodia; and retrospective and postwar issues. In addition to Jane Werner and Luu Doan Huynh, the contributors are Mark Bradley, William Duiker, David Elliott, Christine White, George Vickers, James Harrison, George Herring, Ronald Spector, Paul Joseph, Jeffrey Clarke, Ngo Vinh Long, Benedict Kiernan, Marilyn Young, Keith Taylor, and Tran Van Tra. General Tra was Commander of the People's Liberation Armed Forces of South Vietnam from 1963 to 1975. His eye-opening analysis of the Tet Offensive has never before been available in English. Air Power and the Ground War in Vietnam Donald J. Mrozek, 1988 Dr Mrozek focuses on expectations concerning the impact of airpower on the ground war. He describes some of the actual effects but avoids treatment of some of the most dramatic air actions of the war, such as the bombing of Hanoi. He observes that the application of airpower is influenced by factors far beyond the battlefield. International Encyclopedia of Military History James C. Bradford, 2004-12-01 With its impressive breadth of coverage both geographically and chronologically, the International Encyclopedia of Military History is the most up-to-date and inclusive A-Z resource on military history. From uniforms and military insignia worn by combatants to the brilliant military leaders and tacticians who commanded them, the campaigns and wars, to the weapons and equipment used in them, this international and multi-cultural two-volume set is an accessible resource combining the latest scholarship in the field with a world perspective on military history.
