Agenda Mafalda 2002-2003 Quino, 2002-07-16 Livres de France ,2002 The Kurdish Quasi-State Denise Natali, 2010-08-06 Despite ongoing instability and underdevelopment in post Saddam Iraq some parts of the country have realized relative security and growth The Kurdish north once an isolated outpost for the Iraqi army and local militia has become an internationally recognized autonomous region In The Kurdish Quasi State Natali explains the nature of this transformation and how it has influenced the relationship between the Kurdistan region and Iraq's central government This much needed scholarship focuses on foreign aid as helping to create and sustain the Kurdish quasi state It argues that the generous nature of external assistance to the Kurdistan region over time has given it new forms of legitimacy and leverage in the country Since 2003 the Kurdistan region has gained representation in the central government and developed commercial investment and political ties with regional states and foreign governments Drawing on extensive field research Natali explores how this transition has had positive and unintended consequences on Kurdish state relations Greater complexity in the regional political economy has demanded new forms of compromise with the central government The Kurdistan region may have become a distinct political entity that challenges Baghdad however the benefits of aid and logic of quasi statehood ensure that it will remain part of Iraq Acutely familiar with the nuances of Kurdish politics society and culture Natali has produced a timely and immensely important book for policy makers scholars and practitioners interested in the region

Livres hebdo ,2002 French books in print, anglais Electre, 2002 Proceedings of the 20th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Mafalda Patuleia, 2024 The European Union as a Global Cultural Power Mafalda Dâmaso, 2025-05-19 Although culture is increasingly recognised as a relevant focus of scholarly analysis the European Union EU has not yet been examined as a global cultural power Addressing this gap this book offers a comprehensive overview of the multiple arenas through which the EU has emerged as a major cultural actor beyond its borders Focusing on Culture in Foreign Policy and Development as well as Media and Trade the book gathers an international team of experts to provide a comprehensive analysis of the EU's multifaceted cultural action across various policy fields and regions The book draws together discussions in cultural studies cultural policy international relations media studies and law to ask the following questions What characterises EU cultural and media policies and programmes beyond its borders What are the assumptions and the goals that underlie such policies and programmes Suggesting that the EU is beginning to emerge as an enabling power that supports cultural diversity around the world the volume also reflects on the global role of the EU and contribute to debates regarding the liberal international order by taking a new angle

Managing, Marketing, and Maintaining Maritime and Coastal Tourism Morais de Brito, Mónica, Dias, Alvaro, Patuleia, Mafalda, 2019-11-29 The extraordinary beauty cultural wealth and diversity of EU's coastal areas have designated them as one of the preferred destinations for many holiday goers The numerous businesses that operate in these heavily traveled areas have to struggle with other similarly minded companies and with providing sustainable practices for the people and surrounding area Managing Marketing and Maintaining Maritime and Coastal Tourism is a pivotal reference source that provides vital material on the application of multidisciplinary and interdisciplinarity logic surrounding sea tourism While highlighting topics such as destination marketing event management and global business this publication explores the dynamic capabilities and the methods of overall management of hospitality by the sea This book is ideally designed for marketers advertisers tour directors cruise directors travel agents port managers coastal cities managers event coordinators academics students researchers policymakers public managers and tourism entrepreneurs
