Adams, 2022-08-24 Across America in the wake of World War I college football entered a time of prominence often referred to as a Golden Era This same period saw the origins of many beloved traditions of Texas A the Aggie War Hymn penned by J V Pinky Wilson 21 was officially adopted maroon and white emerged as the sanctioned college colors And in 1922 a lanky Dallas athlete named E King Gill stepped up and agreed to be the 12th Man at a football game that may have been the greatest ever played Today the 12th Man tradition is one of the most cherished parts of A M heritage The 1922 Dixie Classic precursor to today s Cotton Bowl featured a contest between two championship coaches with strong ties to Texas A M D X Bible who led the Aggies from 1916 to 1928 and Centre College s Uncle Charlie Moran who coached at A M from 1909 to 1914 Historian John A Adams Jr 73 uncovers enthralling details the pregame conversation between Bible and E King Gill that helped place Gill in uniform on the sidelines the wedding celebration involving the Centre College team at the historic Adolphus Hotel the morning before the game the diagram of the play the Aggies used to score the game winning touchdown and so much more Sports fans and historians especially those interested in the early days of American football will savor the

The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1974 The Fightin' Texas Aggie Defenders of Bataan and Corregidor John A.
Adams, 2016-04-15 By any measure the battles of Bataan and Corregidor were among the most intensely fought and devastating episodes in the World War II Pacific theater Beginning in early 1942 the Japanese Imperial Army invaded the Philippines in an attempt to control the Pacific region and expand its sphere of influence The defense and last stand of Filipino and American allied forces marked the largest surrender in their respective military histories Their efforts slowed the Japanese advance but only at great cost John A Adams Jr provides a new and compelling exploration of these pivotal events by recounting the history of Bataan and Corregidor through the eyes of 89 soldiers and officers who were former students and citizen soldiers from the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas All were products of the Corps of Cadets and indeed no other institution could boast of such a large deployment in the opening of the war While many words have been written on Bataan and Corregidor none have taken the approach of collective biography as The Fightin Texas Aggie Defenders of Bataan and Corregidor does here As a result this book is not only a new contribution to the history of World War II but also stands to be a landmark publication on the history of Texas A M University *Catalogue of Title-entries of
