Aghora III Robert E. Svoboda,1999 Aghora III Robert Svoboda,1998 Vol copublished by Sadhana Publications Floresville Tx Aghor Medicine Ronald L. Barrett,2008-03-04 For centuries the Aghori have been known as the most radical ascetics in India living naked on the cremation grounds meditating on corpses engaging in cannibalism and coprophagy and consuming intoxicants out of human skulls In recent years however they have shifted their practices from the embrace of ritually polluted substances to the healing of stigmatized diseases In the process they have become a large socially mainstream and politically powerful organization Based on extensive fieldwork this lucidly written book explores the dynamics of pollution death and healing in Aghor medicine Ron Barrett examines a range of Aghor therapies from ritual bathing to modified Ayurveda and biomedicines and clarifies many misconceptions about this little studied group and its highly unorthodox powerful ideas about illness and healing Cremation, Corpses and Cannibalism Anders Kaliff, Terje Oestigaard,2017-05-11 Death matters and the matters of death are initially and to a large extent the decaying flesh of the corpse Cremation as a ritual practice is the fastest and most optimal way of dissolving the corpse s flesh either by annihilation or purification or a combination Still cremation was not the final rite and the archaeological record testifies that the dead represented a means to other ends the flesh and not the least the bones have been incorporated in a wide range of other ritual contexts While human sacrifices and cannibalism as ritual phenomena are much discussed in anthropology archaeology has an advantage since the actual bone material leaves traces of ritual practices that are unseen and unheard of in the contemporary world As such this book fleshes out a broader and more coherent understanding of prehistoric religions and funeral practices in Scandinavia by focusing on cremation corpses and cannibalism Halfway Up The Mountain Mariana Caplan,2014-03-04 Caplan TO TOUCH IS TO LIVE asserts that the reality of the present condition of contemporary spirituality in the West is one of grave distortion confusion fraud and a fundamental lack of education She claims that as positive as the tremendous rise in spirituality is there is not any context for determining whether any particular teaching or teacher is truly enlightening Caplan compiles interviews with such noted spiritual masters as Joan Halifax Llewellyn Vaughan Lee and Rabbi Zalman Schachter Shalomi on the nature of enlightenment In the first section Caplan examines the motivations people have for seeking enlightenment and contends that very often they seek this state as a means of gratifying the ego This presumption of enlightenment she says often afflicts teachers masquerading as spiritual leaders These teachers sometimes look down on their students and gloat over how far they have come and how far the students have to go A second section focuses on The Dangers of Mystical Experience in which Caplan claims that many seekers mistake the mystical experience itself for enlightenment she and the teachers she interviews all assert that enlightenment always involves gaining some knowledge about self and others The third section Corruption and Consequence focuses on the nature of power and corruption the fourth section Navigating the Mine Field Preventing Dangers on the Path provides a survey of the ways in which practitioners can avoid the pitfalls of false enlightenment A final section Disillusionment Humility and the Beginning of Spiritual Life concludes that the Real spiritual life is the life of total annihilation and the return to just what is Caplan s illuminating book calls into question the motives of the spiritual snake handlers of the modern age and urges seekers to pay the price of traveling the hard road to true enlightenment Secrets of Ayurvedic Massage Atreya,2000-06-27 A practical manual for the Western massage therapist Tantra & Erotic Trance John Ryan Haule,2012 In Volume One of this study Outer Work we described managing our orgasmic response so as to cultivate erotic trance the altered state of consciousness that is the foundation of all Tantric activity and we used it to climb the diamond ladder of mystical ascent to a rung characterized by the management of overwhelming emotions Now in Volume Two Inner Work we turn our attention away from outer goals having to do with our physiology and our relation to society at large and its prescriptions to the much more subtle interior changes occurring in our consciousness Continuing our climb up the rungs of the diamond ladder we are introduced to the landscape of mysticism a topography whose several regions are each characterized by the mastery of a different psychological capacity Yoga gives us an interior ladder in the form of the subtle body that is comprised of the chakras each of which opens onto a distinctly different emotional realm In this work our feeling function becomes highly differentiated Tibetan mandala meditation disciplines our imaginative capacity as we bring the heavenly palace of copulating gods and goddesses into being By cultivating emptiness we pare away our attachments to the memories that have been holding us back and the aspirations that narrow our future so that we can dwell in the present moment without the props of doctrine and method Passing beyond our personal self we are introduced to the divine oneness of the cosmos pulsing between accomplished union and the vision of that with which we are united We return from such ecstasy to live our temporal lives on two planes simultaneously as spiritual wayfarers Indo-European Fire Rituals Anders Kaliff,Terje Oestigaard,2022-12-30 Indo European Fire Rituals is a comparative study of Indo European fire rituals from modern folklore and ethnography in Scandinavia and archaeological material in Europe from the Bronze Age onwards to the Vedic origins of cosmos in India and today s cremations on open pyres in Hinduism Exploring Indo European fire rituals and sacrifices throughout history and fire in its fundamental role in rites and religious practices this book analyses fire rituals as the unifying structure in time and space in Indo European cultures from the Bronze Age onwards It asks the question how and why was fire the ultimate power in culture and cosmology Fire as an agent and divinity was fundamental in all major sacrifices In Europe ritual fires in relation to agriculture and fertility may also explain the enigma of cremation Cremated remains were ground and used in fertility rituals and ancestral fires played an essential role in metallurgy and the creation of cosmos Thus the role of fire rituals in culture and cosmology enables a unique understanding of historic developmental processes For students and academics studying Indo European culture history from the Bronze Age onwards this book has a broad interdisciplinary audience including archaeology ethnography folklore religious and Indo European studies The Open

Since 1994, the sound of his voice singing traditional Indian chants with a Western flavor has brought the spiritual experience of chanting to audiences all over the world. He has previously shared some of his spiritual journey through talks and workshops, but now he offers a unique book with audio download combination that explores his fascinating path and creates an opportunity for just about anyone to experience chanting in a unique and special way. Homegrown Gurus Ann Gleig, Lola Williamson, 2013-11-01 Exploring homegrown movements and figures proclaims American Hinduism as a distinct religious tradition. Today, a new stage in the development of Hinduism in America is taking shape. After a century of experimentation during which Americans welcomed Indian gurus who adjusted their teachings to accommodate the New World context, American Hinduism can now rightly be called its own tradition rather than an imported religion. Accordingly, this spiritual path is now headed by leaders born in North America. Homegrown Gurus explores this phenomenon in essays about these figures and their networks. A variety of teachers and movements are considered, including Ram Dass, Siddha Yoga, and Amrit Desai and Kripalu Yoga, among others. Two contradictory trends quickly become apparent: an increasing Westernization of Hindu practices and values alongside a renewed interest in traditional forms of Hinduism.

These opposed sensibilities innovation and preservation radicalism and recovery are characteristic of postmodernity and denote a new chapter in the American assimilation of Hinduism *Die violette Flamme und der 7.
