Aging In Mass Society Myths And Realities:

Aging in Mass Society Jon Hendricks, C. Davis Hendricks, 1981-01-01 Aging in Mass Society Jon Hendricks, C. Davis Hendricks, Cynthia A. Leedham, 1986 Serving the Elderly Paul Kim, 2017-07-12 Broadly speaking there are two kinds of professional practice skills relevant to the burgeoning field of gerontological human service clinical modalities and macro strategies This book identifies seven essential approaches to clinical gerontology including five of the most important macro skills that all professionals in the field will need to acquire and it presents each of them in a single collection intended to serve as a basic text and reference work for academic and in service training Each contributor to this volume speaks with recognized expertise on his/her preferred subject while mindful of the larger purpose of the collection as a whole In a concluding chapter Dr Kim draws on his own long and successful experience in obtaining financial support for his programs and provides a wealth of useful information on the preparation of grant proposals and the conduct of other fundraising activities Serving the Elderly is adaptable to the uses of a wide variety of geriatric health care providers from students and trainees in social work clinical psychology and other care giving professions to already established practitioners who are branching out in gerontology The Older Adult as Learner D. Barry Lumsden, 1985 Older Workers Denie Denniston, 1983 The Obsolete Self Joseph Esposito, 2021-01-08 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1987 Health planning reports subject index United States. Health Resources Administration, 1979 Routledge Library Editions: Adult Education Various Authors, 2021-07-14 Against a background of profound worldwide social and economic change the concept of lifelong learning has come increasingly into the public eye As educators and policy makers rethink the meaning of education the purpose of schooling and the place of learning in our everyday lives educational institutions are opening up to those traditionally deprived of the opportunity The books in this set originally published between 1979 and 1992 including global case studies reflect upon major issues confronting adult educators worldwide and discuss the role of adult education in social and community action examine the relationship between class and adult education look at the concept of culture and the transmission of cultural values in relations to adult education evaluate the role of adult education in reducing unemployment Biblical Perspectives on Aging J. Gordon Harris, 2013-04-03 As the population of older Americans grows meaningful perspectives on aging are needed by both the young and the old Biblical Perspectives on Aging God and the Elderly takes a detailed look at the views of aging presented in the Old and New Testaments This wide ranging and insightful survey encompasses not only the entire Bible but also interpretations of sacred Middle Eastern and Judaic documents This new expanded edition of the original classic text adds thorough discussions of the wisdom of the Bible and Jewish literature

with ways to interpret these readings and what they teach about spirituality and growing older Approaches to aging issues have changed in recent years With the average American lifespan increasing the view of old age as a solitary time of waiting has been pushed aside So too has the assumption that the elderly simply want to remember the good old days This updated edition of Biblical Perspectives on Aging God and the Elderly has expanded its scope to incorporate and address the effects of these changing views This sweeping study of the Bible's positive treatment of aging and elderly figures sheds new light on contemporary society's negative view of the elderly and what can be done about it Clear examples from both Scripture and literature provide a wealth of understanding comfort and wisdom to everyone interested in aging and the Bible In addition this new edition explores the changing relationships that exist among aging hermeneutics mentoring and spirituality The new insights revealed here reinvigorate the challenge against ageism and traditional pictures of old age as a time of withdrawal and living in the past Among the issues explored in Biblical Perspectives on Aging God and the Elderly are aging experiences and the Bible biblical theology and its role in social support for the elderly hermeneutics and old age spirituality and its relationship to aging cross generational relationships and mentoring and a detailed index of Old and New Testament Scripture references Accessible and concise with compelling arguments and numerous examples Biblical Perspectives on Aging God and the Elderly is an ideal resource for pastors seminary students professionals and leaders of programs for the elderly It shows both young and old that while aging may not be easy Biblical theology can ease some of its mystery

Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1980 Includes subject section name section and 1968 1970 technical reports Ageing and Social Policy in Australia Allan Borowski,Sol Encel,Elizabeth Ozanne,1997-11-17 Industrialised countries worldwide have for years been confronting the prospect of a steadily ageing population This book first published in 1997 reflects the breadth of research into gerontology and analyses the major themes and issues in the area of ageing and social policy in both an Australian context and from an international comparative perspective Topics discussed include unemployment education and housing for the aged Added to this is the contemporary influence of multiculturalism and the challenge it poses to policies and programs that must cater for a growing diversity in the ageing population A special focus is given to the situation of women and Aboriginal Australians and the specific structural disadvantages they face This book is essential reading for students and policy makers in sociology social and public policy gerontology and public health

Behavioral Case Formulation Ira D. Turkat,2013-12-14 One of the most frequent requests I receive from graduate students is for references on how to formulate a complex clinical case Typically after reading the recommended materials the student returns to request more detailed accounts of how clinicians think about particular cases The general lack of such materials in the behavior therapy literature led to the formation of the present volume Throughout much of the behavior therapy literature one gets the impression that most cases seen present circumscribed and straight forward psychological problems In my experience such cases are rare Accordingly the present volume was designed to cover more complex problems such as sociopathy and paranoid personality. These disorders are rarely discussed in the behavior therapy literature but nonetheless seem to appear regularly in clinical settings. The cases presented in this book are descriptions of patients seen clinically by the editor or by the contributors. Work on this text began while I was a faculty member at Vanderbilt University and took several years to complete. As the contributors would attest, the task I set out for them was atypical and often difficult. The complexities involved in articulating how one conceptualizes a case are numerous and may help to explain why there are so few sources available on case formulation. The fact that our current state of knowledge in psychopathology is rather limited further exacerbates the problem.

Later Life Harold Cox, 2015-11-17 An interdisciplinary introduction to the aging process which uses symbolic interactionism as the main theoretical perspective. Accessible interdisciplinary coverage with chapters covering a variety of subject matter areas from biology to psychology from economics to sociology from political science to religion. Utilizes symbolic interaction perspective to explain behavior problems and an individual's adaptations associated with the process of aging.

Aging and Male Sexuality Raul C. Schiavi, 1999-06-17 Awareness of the importance of sexuality and its disorders in the aging population is increasing as the proportion of older people increases. Based in part on the author's clinical experience and research at Mount Sinai Medical Center in New York, this book presents an up-to-date overview of the sexuality of aging men in health and illness within a multidimensional conceptual framework. It takes into account physiological, psychological, interpersonal, and social influences. The book also discusses the impact of medical illness, psychopathology, and drugs with a review of coping strategies in shaping individual sexual responses to aging and disease. The author incorporates many case studies and vignettes and devotes a chapter to the sexuality of older gay men. A balanced account of medical and psychosocial evaluation and treatment concludes the book, which will be of broad interest to clinicians and students interested in sexuality and aging.

Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly Harold G. Koenig, Junietta B. McCall, 2014-06-03 Through firsthand accounts and research, Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly focuses on the education, training, and support of individuals who care for the elderly. This book provides caregivers with methods to cope with grief and loss and will help educators design programs that meet the needs of their consumers, the elderly, and their families, friends, and service providers. From Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly, you will learn how to cope with the stress and emotions of caregiving and improve the quality of services to your patients. With an emphasis on caregivers of the institutionalized elderly and the special services provided by clergy, chaplains, and pastoral counselors, Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly offers the caregiver or educator several model workshops focusing on grief, loss, and bereavement care. Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly contains proven methods and strategies that will sharpen and enhance your caregiving skills, including focusing on the emotional responses and phases of dying, including denial, anger, and acceptance, to help patients deal with death, considering physical and administrative atmosphere, and your elderly population when setting goals and designing workshops to provide optimal patient resident care, discussing the themes of grief and loss.

stress management handling change and promoting self care for caregivers in workshops and through self evaluations developing workshops that open with grief history surveys and attitude checklists discuss normative development and issues of old age and have themes based on the biological psychosocial and spiritual needs of the elderly person providing caregivers with an opportunity to practice what they have learned through case studies simulated role play open discussions and care plan designing thinking about your own mortality and learning about your feelings and ideas of growing old Utilized at a psychiatric nursing home facility of New Hampshire Hospital the workshop exercises in Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly have allowed caregivers to express personal feelings talk about beliefs and experiences learn about biological psychosocial and spiritual processes of grief and phases of bereavement and apply these understandings and insights into typical caregiving situations Grief Education for the Caregivers of the Elderly gives you the framework for such a program using vignettes composite case material poetry and a holistic approach to health care to emphasize the importance of your emotional health and enhanced care of the elderly

National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Rehabilitation of the Older Person Amanda J. Squires, Margaret B. Hastings, 2002 Readers will be able to gain knowledge of how to manage older people with difficult conditions and in different environments Much of the work of the professionals in this area has changed as a result of NHS reforms new practices and patient demands

The Social Economics of Health Care John B Davis, 2001-05-10 For too long now the issue of health care reform has been dominated by the techniques of mainstream economics and the constant application of the tools of cost benefit analysis to an area that does not suit it Issues such as privacy genetic testing and the allocation of organ transplants require a more sensitive approach to the setting of budgets and so a more socially responsible attitude towards health care economics is emerging John Davis has gathered together an impressive range of contributors to explore these phenomena

Countertransference and Older Clients Bonnie Genevay, Renee S. Katz, 1990-10 When working with older clients or clients who have become instantly old due to disability can a professional's personal feelings affect the helping process Countertransference and Older Clients explores this issue and focuses on the use of countertransference the powerful linkage between a helper's personal feelings and his/her professional work This practical volume shows helping professionals how to confront and examine their own denial fear of growing old being helpless and dying anger related to death and loss and their need for control Contributors address such issues as how practitioners overhelp and underhelp some clients because of their feelings and experiences how personal and family biases contribute to inappropriate diagnosis referral and treatment why service is prolonged with some clients and terminated too soon with others and how fear of AIDS death and suicide hinder effective support and treatment In addition actual case studies are woven throughout to illustrate how practitioners can effectively put their feelings and behaviors to use during the helping process Written for practitioners in the field of aging mental health social work nursing psychology and psychiatry Countertransference and Older Clients is an important therapeutic tool for all helping professionals Throughout this clear concise interesting little book the authors communicate a warmth and sensitivity to the needs and feelings of both helpers and older clients One interesting feature is the inclusion of a chapter written by an older worker an often neglected perspective in gerontological literature Journal of Psychology and Theology Bonnie Genevay and Renee Katz have made an enormous contribution to gerontological practice by focusing on the conscious and unconscious attitudes and feelings of practitioners toward their older clients which enhance or diminish their helpfulness to older people In this very useful volume they and other experts cover a wide range of problematic situations including disability dementia and dying with empathy Teachers and supervisors as well as those working in direct practice will find this book highly instructive Barbara Silverstone Executive Director The Lighthouse The New York Association for the Blind This unique text approaches many aspects of aging and countertransference of caregivers not elsewhere seen in the vast array of gerontological publications It provides a sensitive and compassionate presentation of the various issues and problems of countertransference experienced by individuals providing care to elders in a variety of difficult situations I highly recommend this text for its unique content warmth of presentation and insights into relationships with the old I have come away enriched and enlightened Priscilla Ebersoll Ph D San Francisco State University This book is a must for anyone who works with older clients It contains dozens of case examples of how our own desires and fears about aging and conditions associated with it interfere with our capacity to function as professionals should It is full of suggestions for dealing constructively with our emotional reactions that occur in the conduct of our professional lives It deals with important topics such as terminal illness and death suicidal elders disability and AIDS It is clear concise and very useful Robert C Atchley Miami University Oxford Ohio A profound respect and caring for both older clients and service providers permeate each chapter The book is exceptionally strong in its comprehensive and sensitive review of issues that many of us do not like to face how our own fears and attitudes about aging may interfere with our professional effectiveness Included are topics that have not been adequately dealt with elsewhere By clearly and sensitively highlighting the importance of self awareness to professional effectiveness the authors have made a significant contribution to the practice literature and ultimately to practice with older adults Generations This book makes a major contribution to the field by supplying numerous sensitive and revealing examples of personal emotional reactions to working with older adults It should be read by everyone who counsels older adults and by students aspiring to careers in serving the elderly Bob G Knight Merle H Bensinger Associate Professor Gerontology and Psychology University of Southern California The book s strength an important one lies in its conciseness of writing and clarity It is an easy read Yet it offers valuable insights and practical suggestions The topics too while diverse are pulled into a homogeneous frame so as to make the book extremely cohesive not easy in an edited work The offering of case histories makes the book come alive as the reader becomes enmeshed in the dialogue scenario going on between client and worker The book should make a genuine impact on the field of aging promoting growth in workers and clients alike Clinical Gerontologist Countertransference and Older Clients offers a well written collection of articles by several authors dealing with aging loss disability and death It explores feelings that emerge between professional caregivers and their elderly clients in various settings Other topics include suicidal elders AIDS and HIV illness dementia substance abuse sexuality and nursing home placement Good case examples are provided A valuable addition to the body of knowledge for professionals working with older adults NASW California News
