Aging And Its Transformations Moving Toward Death In Pacific Societies:

Aging and Its Transformations Dorothy Ayers Counts, David R. Counts, 1985 AGEING SOCIETIES Sarah Harper, 2014-05-01 Demographic ageing is a reality within 25 years half the population of Western Europe will be over 50 one quarter over 65 and the Less Developed Countries will contain one billion elderly people Ageing Societies examines the myths challenges and opportunities behind these figures Ageing Societies explores three areas the growing necessity for extending economic activity into later life and the implications of societal ageing for the intergenerational contract and the provision of social security the changes in modern families and the implications the changes have for the provision of support and care for the ageing population the biggest demographic challenge of all ageing in the Less Developed Countries where there is little or no infrastructure to provide long term care or social security Combining bio demography sociology economics and development studies Ageing Societies highlights the opportunities of an ageing population for a mature society Age integrated and flexible workforces increased labour mobility intergenerational integration age equality and politically stable age integrated societies are the potential benefits of a demography which will be with us for the majority of this century Conflict and Resource Development in the Southern Highlands of Papua New Guinea Nicole Haley, Ron May, 2007-11-01 The Southern Highlands is one of Papua New Guinea's most resource rich provinces but for a number of years the province has been riven by conflict Longstanding inter group rivalries briefly set aside during the colonial period have been compounded by competition for the benefits provided by the modern state and by fighting over the distribution of returns from the several big mining and petroleum projects located within the province or impinging upon it Deaths from the various conflicts over the past decade number in the hundreds As a result of inter group fighting criminal activity and vandalism a number of businesses have withdrawn from the province Roadblocks and ambushes have made travel dangerous in many parts and expatriate missionaries and aid workers have left Many public servants have abandoned their posts with the result that state services are not provided Corruption is rife Police are often reluctant to act because they are outnumbered and outgunned This volume brings together a number of authors with deep experience of the Southern Highlands to examine the underlying dynamics of resource development and conflict in the province Its primary purpose is to provide some background to recent events but the authors also explore possible approaches to limiting the human and economic costs of the ongoing conflict and breakdown of governance Taming Oblivion John W. Traphagan, 2000-02-17 Examines the cultural construction of senility in Japan and the moral implications of dependent behavior for older Japanese To Have and to Hit Dorothy Ayers Counts, Judith K. Brown, Jacquelyn Campbell, 1999 This vitally important volume places the problem of wife beating in a broad cultural context in a search for strategies to reform societies including our own that are prone to this pernicious form of violence Based on first hand ethnographic data on more than a dozen societies including a number in Oceania this collection explores the social and cultural factors that work either to inhibit or to promote domestic violence against women The volume also includes a study of abuse among nonhuman primates and a cross cultural analysis of the legal aspects of wife beating By presenting counterexamples from other cultures contributors challenge Western assumptions about the factors leading to wife beating Through a close examination of societies where wife beating is infrequent or absent To Have and To Hit identifies the factors economic social political and cultural that must be explored and transformed in order to combat this violence and eventually eliminate it Dealing with Death Oliver Nahm, 2017 Any sentence that begins All societies have is either baseless or banal Oliver Nahm sets out to disprove this statement made by the renowned anthropologist Clifford Geertz Analyzing the beliefs myths and legends of different religious groups surrounding death and dying author Nahm shows that behind the facade of diversity there lie the same needs which are in turn met by similar solutions With an interdisciplinary approach Nahm uncovers important commonalities between diverse societies and demonstrates that such findings are neither baseless nor banal Dissertation Series Studies in interdisciplinary Thanatology Studien zur interdisziplinären Thanatologie Vol 14 Subject Cultural Studies Sociology Death Studies Religious Studies The Encyclopedia of Aging Richard Schulz, 2006 Print CourseSmart Cultural Identity and Ethnicity in the Pacific Jocelyn Linnekin, Lin Poyer, 1990-01-01 Death, Society, and Human Experience Robert Kastenbaum, Christopher M. Moreman, 2024-03-28 The 13th edition of Death Society and Human Experience provides a panoramic overview of the ways that we are touched by death and dying both as individuals and as members of society A landmark text in the field the authors draw on contributions from the social and behavioral sciences as well as the humanities including perspectives offered through history philosophy religion literature and the arts to provide thorough coverage and understanding of topics associated with the end of life and death and dying By approaching the subject from multiple angles the authors explain the various ways that individual cultural and societal attitudes influence both how and when we die and how we live and deal with the knowledge of death and loss Originally written by Robert Kastenbaum a renowned scholar who developed one of the world's first death education courses Christopher M Moreman who has worked in the field of death studies for two decades has updated this edition In addition to infusing his close areas of focus both in afterlife beliefs and experiences and how these might affect how people live their lives he's weaved in new coverage of current affairs including The impact of COVID 19 on experiences of death bereavement mourning and more Expanded legalization of physician assisted dying in the United States and several countries Changes in bereavement rituals and traditions stemming from technology use and social media With additional content and classroom extensions available online Death Society and Human Experience remains a thoughtful exploratory and impressively comprehensive overview for undergraduate and graduate courses in death dying and bereavement Death, Dying, and Bereavement Around the World Frank E. Eyetsemitan, 2021-01-19 This book evaluates existing theories concepts and models with the practices of death dying and bereavement from different societies around the world The differences in various belief systems and how these influence death dying and bereavement practices are highlighted including Hinduism Christianity Islam Ancestor worship Afro Brazilian religions the belief systems of Native Indians the Maoris of New Zealand and others These belief systems will contribute to a better understanding of the existing models of death dying and bereavement that are examined An overview of countries in different continents is also provided This helps to refresh the reader's mind of the country's geographical location and bring attention to the prevailing causes of death and life expectancy of nations in different parts of the world At the end of each chapter review questions are provided to aid in the reader's comprehension and allow for self reflection At the end of each chapter an Additional Readings section has been included so the reader can find additional information to further an interest developed from reading the chapter material A glossary of terms is included to aid with explaining certain terms and add to the reader's vocabulary Given its overview of existing theories models as well as a focus on issues of cross cultural relevance on death dying and bereavement the book will be of interest to bereavement counselors healthcare practitioners and others

Witches, Westerners, and HIV Alexander Rödlach, 2016-09-17 A witch's curse an imperialist conspiracy a racist plot HIV AIDS is a catastrophic health crisis with complex cultural dimensions From small villages to the international system explanations of where it comes from who gets it and who dies are tied to political agendas religious beliefs and the psychology of devastating grief Frequently these explanations conflict with science and clash with prevention and treatment programs In Witches Westerners and HIV Alexander Rödlach draws on a decade of research and work in Zimbabwe to compare beliefs about witchcraft and conspiracy theories surrounding HIV AIDS in Africa He shows how both types of beliefs are part of a process of blaming others for AIDS a process that occurs around the globe but takes on local culturally specific forms He also demonstrates the impact of these beliefs on public health and advocacy programs arguing that cultural misunderstandings contribute to the failure of many well intentioned efforts This insightful book provides a cultural perspective essential for everyone interested in AIDS and cross cultural health issues

Final Days Susan Orpett Long, 2005-07-31 In postindustrial societies people must consciously define their individuality through the choices they make Recently death has become yet another realm of personal choice making a good death one in which we die in our own way Does culture matter in these decisions Final Days represents a new perspective on end of life decision making arguing that culture does make a difference but not as a checklist of customs or as the source of a moral code Grounded in rich ethnographic data the book offers a superb examination of how policy and meaning frame the choices Japanese make about how to die As an essay in descriptive bioethics it engages an extensive literature in the social sciences and bioethics to examine some of the answers people have constructed to end of life issues Like their counterparts in other postindustrial societies Japanese find no simple way of handling situations such as disclosure of diagnosis discontinuing or withholding treatment organ donation euthanasia and hospice Through interviews and case studies in hospitals and homes Susan Orpett Long offers a window on the ways in which ordinary people respond to serious illness and the process of dying Moving beyond stereotypes of stylized samurai violence and Buddhist meditation as Japanese cultural models of dying Long offers fresh insights into how experiential and social factors mediate between formal cultural rules and what people do Given the existence of various culturally legitimate scripts on how to die well and the complex nature of human relationships she makes a convincing and original argument that ambivalence need not be viewed as anomalous Indeed ambiguity and a diversity of views are not obstacles to the moral life of a society but rather are the raw material in postindustrial societies from which people construct meaningful deaths and thus meaningful lives

The Encyclopedia of Aging Linda S. Noelker, PhD, Kenneth Rockwood, MD, FRCPC, Richard L. Sprott, Ph.D., 2006-03-17 A COMPREHENSIVE RESOURCE ON GERONTOLOGY AND GERIATRICS Since its inception in 1987 The Encyclopedia of Aging has proven to be the definitive resource for scholars and students across the burgeoning and increasingly interdisciplinary fields of gerontology and geriatrics Like its three esteemed predecessors the fourth edition contains concise readable explorations of hundreds of terms concepts and issues related to the lives of older adults as well as timely coverage of the many new programs and services for the elderly Updated under the distinguished stewardship of editor in chief Richard Schulz to reflect the infusion of new information across the scientific disciplines this new edition brings readers up to the moment significant advances in biology physiology genetics medicine psychology nursing social services sociology economics technology and political science While retaining the format and standard of excellence that marked the first three editions the fourth edition encompasses a wealth of new information from the social and health sciences It contains the most current bibliography of an expanding literature an exhaustive index and extensive cross references This much anticipated update of the field s most authoritative resource will take its place as an indispensable reference for specialists and non specialists across a broad range of disciplines that now comprise the field of aging

SPRINGER SERVING THE HEALTHCARE AND HELPING PROFESSIONS FOR MORE THAN 55 YEARS

Other Cultures, Elder Years Ellen Rhoads Holmes, Lowell D. Holmes, 1995-05-24 Holmes and Holmes have revised their 1983 book and it remains a good supplement for an undergraduate gerontology course or anthropology course It is written at a readable level each chapter has a clear summary It provides an excellent summary of secondary sources avoiding extensive review of primary research complicated theory and methodological issues Clinical Gerontologist Hailed as extremely well organized balanced and impartial in its first edition by The Gerontologist Other Cultures Elder Years is once again available in a fully revamped second edition This new edition provides a comprehensive comparative viewpoint on our knowledge about worldwide patterns of aging It addresses everything from demographic patterns to family relations from perceptions of the life cycle to the impact of modernization on the aged Replete with summaries of crucial studies from various parts of the world Other Cultures Elder Years also offers three extended case descriptions of Inuit Samoan and white American aged as well as an examination of aging patterns among major American ethnic groups Among the other subjects the text addresses are cultural perspectives in health care the future of aging in America and creativity and the life cycle Other Cultures Elder

Years is the key text available for use by anyone teaching courses on aging and culture I found the current book a significant improvement over the first edition It remains to be the only usable text in the anthropology of aging available I see the audiences for the book as instructors for the following courses Anthropology of Aging Sociology of Aging and general social gerontology courses I have used this book in past Anthropology of Aging courses and would do so again Jay Sokolovsky University of Maryland Baltimore County This book does a truly artful job of organizing and presenting the complex diversity of human experience related to aging and cultural influence This book offers an implicit biocultural laboratory to the reader the biologic universal of human aging is shaped by the prism of cultural influence The reader is guided through the evolutionary history of aging among anthropoid primates to hominids to Homo sapiens sapiens who are then examined from cultural perspectives found around the globe The effect is one of inquiry search synthesis and ultimately a confrontation with our inner selves as we negotiate the inexorable march toward our ultimate destiny J Neil Henderson Suncoast Gerontology Center University of South Florida

The Routledge Handbook of the Body Bryan Turner, 2012-07-24 In the last three decades the human body has gained increasing prominence in contemporary political debates and it has become a central topic of modern social sciences and humanities This collection of thirty original essays by leading figures in the field explores these issues across a number of theoretical and disciplinary perspectives with a wide range of case studies Marshall Islands Ethnography Lin Poyer, 1997

Encyclopedia of Sex and Gender Carol R. Ember, Melvin Ember, 2003-12-31 The central aim of this encyclopedia is to give the reader a comparative perspective on issues involving conceptions of gender gender differences gender roles relationships between the genders and sexuality The encyclopedia is divided into two volumes Topics and Cultures The combination of topical overviews and varying cultural portraits is what makes this encyclopedia a unique reference work for students researchers and teachers interested in gender studies and cross cultural variation in sex and gender It deserves a place in the library of every university and every social science and health department Contents Glossary Cultural Conceptions of Gender Gender Roles Status and Institutions Sexuality and Male Female Interaction Sex and Gender in the World's Cultures Culture Name Index Subject Index

Respectable Lives Elvin Hatch, 1992 Trees of the California Landscape combines in a single volume just about everything landscape design professionals or home gardeners need to know about California trees This excellent reference book field guide will be particularly welcomed by landscape architects as it pulls together a range of information about trees currently scattered throughout a number of older reference works The heart of the book is a compendium of trees and includes essential information about individual species The supporting sections on taxonomy climate range of native forest types applications and special use lists contain a wealth of useful information Heath Schenker Professor and Chair Department of Landscape Architecture UC Davis

The Handbook of Discourse Analysis Deborah Schiffrin, Deborah Tannen, Heidi E. Hamilton, 2008-04-15 The Handbook of Discourse Analysis makes significant contributions to current research and serves as a comprehensive and authoritative guide to the central issues in contemporary discourse analysis Features comprehensive coverage of contemporary discourse analysis Offers an overview of how different disciplines approach the analysis of discourse Provides analysis of a wide range of data including political speeches everyday conversation and literary texts Includes a varied range of theoretical models such as relevance theory and systemic functional linguistics and methodology including interpretive statistical and formal methods Features comprehensive coverage of contemporary discourse analysis

Faces of Aging Yoshiko Matsumoto, 2011-03-17 The indisputable fact of Japan's rapidly aging population has been known for some time But beyond statistics and implications for the future we do not know much about the actual aging process Senior citizens and their varied experiences have for the most part been obscured by stereotypes This fascinating new collection of research on the elderly works to put a human face on aging by considering multiple dimensions of the aging experience in Japan Faces of Aging foregrounds a spectrum of elder centered issues social activity caregiving generational bias suicide sexuality and communication with medical professionals to name a few from the perspective of those who are living them The volume's diverse contributors represent the fields of sociology anthropology medicine nursing gerontology psychology film studies gender studies communication and linguistics offering a diverse selection of qualitative studies of aging to researchers across the social sciences
