David J. Spielman, Rajul Pandya-Lorch

Agricultural Development In Bangladesh:

Agricultural Development In Bangladesh E. Boyd Wennergren, 2019-03-13 The performance of the agricultural sector and other related areas of the economy of Bangladesh are assessed in this book which includes descriptions and analyses of Bangladesh's natural and human resource bases trends in agricultural input use and production of major crops the agricultural marketing system public sector interventions organization and financing donor programs and the agricultural research extension and educational systems The authors identify positive factors contributing to sectoral growth and development as well as specific constraints to progress and conclude by offering an overall development strategy for achieving increased agricultural productivity complete with specific policy and programming recommendations

Environmental Aspects of Agricultural Development in Bangladesh Saleemul Huq, A. A. Rahman, Gordon R. Conway, 1990 Proven Successes in Agricultural Development David J. Spielman, Rajul Pandya-Lorch, 2010-01-01 The world has made enormous progress in the past 50 years toward eliminating hunger and malnutrition While in 1960 roughly 30 percent of the world's population suffered from hunger and malnutrition today less than 20 percent do some five billion people now have enough food to live healthy productive lives Agricultural development has contributed significantly to these gains by increasing food supplies reducing food prices and creating new income and employment opportunities for some of the world's poorest people This book examines where why and how past interventions in agricultural development have succeeded It carefully reviews the policies programs and investments in agricultural development that have reduced hunger and poverty across Africa Asia and Latin America over the past half century The 19 successes included here are described in in depth case studies that synthesize the evidence on the intervention's impact on agricultural productivity and food security evaluate the rigor with which the evidence was collected and assess the tradeoffs inherent in each success Together these chapters provide evidence of what works in agricultural development

Agricultural Development in Bangladesh W.M.H. Jaim, 1995 Agriculture in Bangladesh Mosharaff Hossain, 1991 Bangladesh's Agriculture, Natural Resources, and Rural Development Sector Assessment and Strategy Asian Development Bank, 2023-03-01 This country sector assessment shows how rapid economic growth and climate change are impacting Bangladesh's agriculture natural resources and rural development sector and outlines ways the Asian Development Bank ADB is helping foster greater food security With agriculture generating over 40% of jobs it analyzes changing demand patterns shows how the pandemic and food price rises have hit the sector and explores how increasing production and adding value can help reduce rural poverty It outlines how ADB is focusing on deepening value chains and agricultural commercialization plus improving rural connectivity and natural resource management to help improve livelihoods and bolster resilient rural development

Agricultural Development Possibilities in Bangladesh H. Brammer, 1997 Process of Agricultural Development in Bangladesh M. Aminul Islam Akanda, 2008 Agricultural development: New perspectives in a changing world Otsuka, Keijiro, ed., Fan, Shenggen, ed., 2021-01-14 Agricultural Development New Perspectives in a Changing World is the first comprehensive exploration of key emerging issues facing developing country agriculture today from rapid urbanization to rural transformation to climate change. In this four part volume top experts offer the latest research in the field of agricultural development. Using new lenses to examine today's biggest challenges contributors address topics such as nutrition and health gender and household decision making agrifood value chains natural resource management and political economy. The book also covers most developing regions providing a critical global perspective at a time when many pressing challenges extend beyond national borders. Tying all this together Agricultural Development explores policy options and strategies for developing sustainable agriculture and reducing food insecurity and malnutrition. The changing global landscape combined with new and better data technologies and understanding means that agriculture can and must contribute to a wider range of development outcomes than ever before including reducing poverty ensuring adequate nutrition creating strong food value chains improving environmental sustainability and promoting gender equity and equality. Agricultural Development New Perspectives in a Changing World with its unprecedented breadth and scope will be an indispensable resource for the next generation of policymakers researchers and students dedicated to improving agriculture for global wellbeing.

Agricultural Development in the World Periphery Vicente Pinilla, Henry Willebald, 2018-02-06

This book brings together analysis on the conditions of agricultural sectors in countries and regions of the world's peripheries from a wide variety of international contributors. The contributors to this volume proffer an understanding of the processes of agricultural transformations and their interaction with the overall economies of Africa Asia and Latin America. Looking at the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the onset of modern economic growth the book studies the relationship between agriculture and other economic sectors exploring the use of resources land labour capital and the influence of institutional and technological factors in the long run performance of agricultural activities. Pinilla and Willebald challenge the notion that agriculture played a negligible role in promoting economic development in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries when the impulse towards industrialization in the developing world was more impactful.

Agricultural Development Policy Roger D. Norton, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2004-01-01 Agricultural Development Policy Concepts and Experiences prepared under the aegis of the Policy Assistance Division of FAO presents a fresh and comprehensive look at agricultural development policy. It provides a clear systematic review of important classes of policy issues in developing countries and discusses the emerging international consensus on viable approaches to the issues. Topics covered include agriculture's role in economic development objectives and instruments of agricultural policy linkages between macroeconomic and agricultural policies sectoral policies related to agricultural prices the role of government in the sector gender issues in agriculture policies for the rural poor land tenure policies water management agricultural finance policies and agricultural technology development and dissemination. This book is suitable for use in university courses in agricultural and economic development international development natural resource management and specialized topics in agriculture and it serves as a valuable reference tool for policy makers and other professionals and researchers in the field of international agricultural development A co publication with John Wiley Sons Ltd UK 100 Years of Agricultural Development in Bangladesh, 2021 Bangladesh's Economic and Social Progress Munim Kumar Barai, 2020-03-31 This book evaluates Bangladesh's impressive economic and social progress more often referred to as a development surprise In doing so the book examines the gap in existing explanations of Bangladesh's development and then offers an empirically informed analysis of a range of distinctive factors policies and actions that have individually and collectively contributed to the progress of Bangladesh In an inclusive way the book covers the developmental role relation and impact of poverty reduction access to finance progress in education and social empowerment reduction in the climatic vulnerability and evolving sectoral growth activities in the agriculture garments and light industries It also takes into account the important role of the government and NGOs in the development process identifies bottlenecks and challenges to Bangladesh's future development path and suggests measures to overcome them By providing an inclusive narrative to theorize Bangladesh's development which is still missing in the public discourse this book posits that Bangladesh per se can offer a development model to other developing countries

International Agricultural Development Carl K. Eicher, John M. Staatz, 1998-11-20 Other topics include market failures food insecurity rural poverty environmental degradation income and asset inequality fiscally sustainable organizations the changing roles of the public and private sector in research input delivery systems marketing and low rates of agricultural growth in much of sub Saharan Africa Plan Strategies for Agricultural Development in Bangladesh Anwar Fazal MD.
