Horne, 2015-10-05 Since the turn of the twenty first century there has been a trend for urban mega events to be awarded to cities and nations in the East and Global South Such events have been viewed as economic stimulant as well as opportunities to promote national identity gain greater international recognition and exercise a form of soft power However there has also been on going controversy about the value impact and legacy of global mega events in these cities and nations This book provides a critical examination of the ambition for spectacle that has emerged across the East and Global South The chapters explore the theoretical and conceptual issues associated with mega events and new forms of globalization from the critical political economy of mega events in a changing world order to the contested social and economic legacies of mega events and the widespread opposition that increasingly accompanies these events The book also explores questions of urban original theoretical contributions and global case studies from leading international scholars from the social sciences and humanities It offers a fresh and unique interdisciplinary perspective that synthesizes cutting edge research on mega events and urban spectacles while simultaneously contributing to a broader understanding of the dynamics of global capitalism and several additional intersecting themes including sustainability nature humour aesthetics cultural survival and social change
