exhaust the capacity of any meaningful monograph. Instead the authors of this book engage six discrete topics that reflect the broader currents and conflicts in South African education debates: a school choice b school fees c the right to an adequate basic education d single medium public schools e school governing bodies and f independent schools. The book has two further aims. First To move beyond the debates taking place separately in the education policy community and the legal academy and to demonstrate how these disciplines working in concert with each other can advance our understanding of law and education in South Africa. Second To show that the ANC's complex education agenda must mirror the egalitarian utilitarian democratic and communitarian commitments found within the Constitution. How these competing political claims reflected in our basic law play themselves out in the enabling education legislation the case law and government education policy frames each topic assayed in this work. About the editor: Stu Woolman is the Academic Director at the South Africa Institute for Advanced Constitutional Public Human Rights and International Law. Brahm Fleisch is Associate Professor in the Division of Education Leadership and Policy Studies in Wits School of Education.

action to prevent HIV spread is inadequate Over 16 000 new infections occur every day Yet we are not helpless in the face of disaster as shown by the rich prevention experience analyzed in this valuable new compendium Best practice exists a set of tried and tested ways of slowing the spread of HIV of persuading and enabling people to protect themselves and others from the virus Individually features of best practice can be found almost everywhere The tragedy on a world scale is that prevention is spotty not comprehensive the measures are not being applied on anywhere near the scale needed or with the right focus or synergy The national response may concentrate solely on sex workers for example Elsewhere efforts may go into school education for the young but ignore the risks and vulnerability of men who have sex with men Action may be patchy geographically AIDS prevention may not benefit from adequate commitment from all parts and sectors of society compromising the sustainability of the response In some countries matters are still worse there is still hardly any action at all against AIDS and scarcely any effort to make HIV visible It is no wonder that the epidemic is still emerging and in some places is altogether out of control Exploring Key Issues in Education Derek Kassem, Dean Garratt, 2009-07-15 A key textbook for Education Studies providing an insight into some of the issues and dilemmas faced by education in the UK and internationally AIDS Bibliography ,1994
