War Monuments, Museums and Library Collections of 20th Century Conflicts Steve Rajtar,Frances Elizabeth Franks,2015-07-11 This unique state by state directory covers monuments memorials museums markers statues and library collections that relate to the veterans weapons vehicles airplanes victims or any other aspect of war in which the United States participated While a site may have been created before 1900 such as a fort there must be some operational or historical tie to a twentieth century conflict to be included here General collections such as museums of aviation are included if they house materials related to a twentieth century conflict The coverage is so thorough that statues honoring veterans of the Civil War appear if veterans of later wars are on their rosters of honorees Another example of the comprehensiveness of this compilation is in the inclusion of memorials to victims of war such as the Holocaust Museum in Houston Texas For each site the following information is given street address phone number website and email address if applicable days and hours of operation admission fees other necessary information and a brief description of the site

Military Modernisation in Southeast Asia after the Cold War Shang-Su Wu,2024-04-01 Southeast Asian countries represent a wide range of approaches to military modernisation due to their great diversity in politics economies geography and other factors Bounded by the Pacific and Indian Oceans and located between China and India is the setting for the geostrategic impacts of military modernisation in Southeast Asian countries Differing from previous research focused on military acquisition this book additionally covers retention of assets and carefully examines the ageing issues that affect readiness and capabilities In doing so it provides a comprehensive view of military modernisation This book also compares each country's situation in the region in terms of military strength and security challenges to elaborate on the geostrategic impacts of military modernisation. The ten cases of military modernisation in the post Cold War context provide rich content for readers to explore the evolution of military modernisation in developing countries after 1991. This book sheds light on security studies of Southeast Asia and is a useful resource for academic researchers, policy makers and defence practitioners.
