Houses By Twenty Architects:

Twenty Houses By Twenty Architects Mercedes Daguerre, 2003-11-01 Twenty houses designed by the most celebrated architects of the moment The 20 houses in this book represent a cross section of the most innovative residential design completed worldwide since the 1990s by some of the most talked about architects working today Included are celebrated architects such as Rem Koolhaas Steven Holl and Richard Meier as well as emerging talents such as fABRica de Arquitectura in Mexico and Graham Phillips in England Houses are located in widely diverse areas from the heart of Manhattan to the seaside in Greece and from the Spanish countryside to the suburbs of London Beginning where Modernism left off these architects are using the private house as a laboratory to explore new issues in domestic living The book begins with an introduction that discusses the profound changes that are now taking place in the institution of the family in its makeup in the rhythms of its daily life and in the forms of its leisure and work Each house is showcased on 12 pages that open with a brief project description biographical profile of the architect and project data The following spreads present plans elevations and sections and full colour photographs

Country Houses and Seaside Cottages of the Victorian Era William T. Comstock, 2012-08-09 This fascinating book presents a series of 44 designs for vacation homes of varying styles and sizes created over a century ago by a select group of New York and New Jersey architects Many of them are two story and most were intended to be built on low to medium budgets All of them reflect the ideals of comfort and charm and state of the art technology of the Victorian period The original publishers compiled a splendid variety of designs presented them as seaside and country houses and included designs for a Victorian club house pavilion school house and a small seaside chapel A total of 200 illustrations including perspective views front and side elevations and first and second story floor plans depict these appealing designs Occasionally the architects have specified construction materials and finishing details such as paint color and trim and in all cases they have included the overall anticipated costs which range from about 500 to about 9 000 The Victorians of course loved architectural embellishments of every kind and it is no small part of the charm of this book to study the profusion of gables porches portholes dormers porticoes chimneys pinnacles and more lavished on even the most modest designs Above all the houses and cottages appear to be both comfortable and reassuring appealing reminders of a gracious age long gone Those studying and working in the fields of architecture history and sociology will find in this wonderful book exuberant examples of a rich and charming architectural style Those who wish to join the growing number of home builders and restorers re creating Victorian homes will find inspiration in each of these thoughtful designs 20/20

John Pardey, 2020 Ordered chronologically and global in scope this book provides an account of modern architecture through the lens of twenty of the most influential houses built over the past century By telling the stories of these houses the book is a fascinating biography of some of the greatest modern architects John Pardey examines the groundbreaking ideas and sensitivity to detailing and materials in houses designed by the likes of Gerrit Rietveld Le Corbusier Adolf Loos Mies van der

The Architect's House Stephen Crafti, 2025-09-18 An architect generally works to a client's brief when designing a new home or renovating an existing dwelling However the opportunity for an architect or a designer to create their own home without the constraints of a client must certainly be at the top of their wish list Featuring twenty architects from around the world The Architect's House will truly inspire those contemplating building a new home or renovating an older style of residence to take on the adventurous spirit At a time when people are being cautious both in terms of finances and ideas they will find inspiration to go beyond the prosaic or not simply to chase the idea of a home with only resale value in mind The properties featured here are diverse from apartments through to large detached homes surrounded by hectares of native forest However what stitches them together is the architects determination to create homes that perfectly suit the way they choose to live both in the present and in the future And because the projects don't follow trends but beautifully capture the voice of the owners they remain timeless
