Making Standards Work Douglas B. Reeves,2002 Rationale and step by step instructions for creating classroom assessments that accurately measure what students know and are able to do Character Education Connections for School, Home, and Community Diane Stirling,Georgia Archibald,Linda McKay,Shelley Berg,2000 This book is a clear concise holistic resource for classroom teachers with a thoughtful collection of approaches to integrating character education into daily learning and school life 20-Minute Learning Connection Douglas B. Reeves,2001 A practical guide for parents who want to help their children succeed in school Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002-02 Reason to Write Douglas Reeves,2002-09-10 While many children dislike writing it is the most significant skill they will need for success in school and on standardized tests This easy to follow handbook will help them develop these critical skills Books In Print

2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Classroom Connections Philip C. Abrami,1995 Thinking in Childhood and Adolescence Paris S. Strom,Robert D. Strom,2013-09-01 Until recently educators were expected to provide all the knowledge students would need to ensure their future However the Internet has altered conditions of learning in ways that motivate students to be more self directed and less dependent on direct instruction Neuroscience discoveries about brain functioning also urge schools to adopt thinking as an aspect of core curriculum Students who acquire thinking skills needed to locate information process and organize data generate creative and practical ideas communicate with all age groups and collaborate can adapt to technology change and social evolution Encouraging adolescents to choose some goals

they pursue respects their need for autonomy Recognizing the need to amend certain goals is important so a person knows when change in personal direction is warranted Exploring careers in a low risk setting motivates realistic aspirations and helps students to shape their future Employer expectations for teamwork require attention Performing well in groups including peer and self evaluation yields productive thinking and is conducive to mental health The intended audience for this book is college students preparing to become teachers in preschool elementary or secondary education The book describes ways schools and families can support higher order thinking during childhood and adolescence Learning that occurs outside school is ignored by tests that reflect only classroom lessons New instruments that measure thinking are needed to enable transformation of school goals and evaluation of student progress Shifting to a dual emphasis on thinking and learning is a challenge for teachers of all grade levels Teaching Teachers ,2002 Preservice and novice teachers feeling jittery will find this book full of workable strategies for helping students experience the wonders of science Classroom veterans will discover new ideas and science educators will learn how colleagues pass on the art of good teaching Teaching Teachers thirteen articles culled from the Teaching Teachers section of NSTA s award winning journal Science and Education were written within the spirit of the National Science Education Standards by leading college educators
