the People of the Book using the Qur'an as a benchmark and standard of comparison. It explores the parallels, differences, and elements absent in both scriptures. The book reveals that not all content within the Torah is invalid; though a significant portion has undergone alteration and distortion (tahrif and tabdil). Such an intertextual study does not serve as a gateway to legitimizing religious pluralism; on the contrary, it reaffirms the concept of wihdah ad din (the unity of religion) as indicated in the Qur'an and the Sunnah.

Prof. Dr. H. Muhammad Galib Mattola, MA, lecturer at UIN Alauddin Makassar and a member of the Indonesian Ulema Council (MUI) South Sulawesi, discusses the importance of understanding the Torah through the lens of the Qur'an and the Hadith of the Prophet, aiming to achieve a correct understanding of the previous scriptures. Islam views religion as one of the guidances of Allah to humanity through His messengers, with Muhammad as the seal of the prophets. Therefore, understanding the previous scriptures is crucial in the context of Islam to comprehend the continuity of divine revelation and to affirm the truth of faith.

Jewish Theology and World Religions, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Eugene Korn, 2012-04-05. The contributors to this volume represent a range of disciplines and denominations within Judaism and share the conviction that articulating contemporary Jewish views of other world religions is an urgent objective for Judaism. Their essays show why a Jewish theology of world religions is a priority for Jewish thinkers and educators concerned with reinvigorating Judaism's contribution to the contemporary world and maintaining Jewish identity and continuity.

The Five-Minute Philosopher: 80 Unquestionably Good Answers to 80 Unanswerable Big Questions, Gerald Benedict, Author, 2013-01-01. Spend five minutes on any of the 80 questions and answers here and you will gain enormously in wisdom and insight. Gerald Benedict, a philosopher trained in issues of knowledge and faith, offers us a wealth of ideas that prompt us to think more seriously and systematically about those universal questions with the help of quotations from great thinkers and writers through the ages. As we read and engage with a stimulating text, our minds are opened to new ideas and our lives enriched. The Five Minute Philosopher provides nimble, wise, and perceptive responses to questions that have no absolute answers; instead, it aims to stimulate thought and discussion that will lead to deeper understanding and further exploration. The same question will prompt different answers for different people. Dr. Benedict's masterly discussions, which are informal and not at all academic, draw on sacred texts, humanist writings, and poetry from all over the world all through the centuries to illuminate the issues, leaving readers free to come to their own conclusions. Armed with this book, you are equipped not only to reach your own informed conclusions about the big questions of life but also to engage knowledgeably in the to and fro of debate with family and friends

The Origin and the Overcoming of Evil and Suffering in the World Religions P. Koslowski, 2013-03-14 All religions face the challenge of explaining in view of God's goodness the existence of evil and suffering in the world They must develop theories of the origin and the overcoming of evil and suffering The explanations in Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam and Judaism of evil and suffering and their origin as well as these world religions theories of how to overcome evil and suffering differ from one another but are also similar in many respects The human person is always considered to be the origin of evil and also to be the focus of aspirations to be able to overcome it The conviction that evil and suffering are not original and can be overcome is characteristic of and common to the religions The explanations of the origin of evil are closely related to the explanations of the continuation and propagation of evil in human persons in nature and in our technology and culture that have been developed in the religions in Christianity for example as the doctrine of original sin Finally the world religions are concerned with how to cope with suffering and offer guidance for overcoming evil and suffering Leading scholars of five world religions Buddhism Islam Christianity Judaism and Hinduism have created with this volume a first hand source of information which enables the reader to gain a better understanding of these religions central teachings about the origin and the overcoming of evil and suffering
