15 Days of Prayer With Dorothy Day Michael Boover, 2013-12-25 Dorothy Day connected radical faith with doing radical deeds Beginning from her discovery of God in the Word when she was eight years old Michael Boover shares Dorothy's reflections about her pilgrimage to the daily discipline of readiness and openness to God in her life especially to God in her neighbor He shares her words on why and how she prays on her preference for frequent confession on her intentional choice of suffering and poverty and on her desire to imitate the saints and to make sanctity the norm of everyone's life In these 15 days we see how Dorothy's discipline gave her true freedom In particular it allowed her to give priority to Love to take the most direct route to God by loving her neighbor She recognized the paucity of her own best spiritual efforts and took refuge in the fact that God would do for believers what they could not fully do for themselves Boover's practical exercises emulate Day's own temperament They push you to live with more integrity and deeper love and they show a deep compassion for the difficulty of the challenge

The Cult of Saint Catherine of Siena Gerald Parsons, 2008 This book examines the origins development and history of the cult of Saint Catherine of Siena Gerald Parsons argues that the cult of Catherine of Siena constitutes a remarkable example of the cult of a particular saint which across more than six centuries has been the vehicle for an evolving sequence of civil religious rituals and meanings He shows how the cult of this particular saint developed firstly as an expression of Sienese civil religion secondly as a focus for Italian civil religion and finally into an expression of European civil religion Instead of the predominantly devotional and frequently essentially hagiographical approach of much of the literature on Catherine of Siena Parsons examines the significance of her cult from the perspective of civil religion and the social history of religion *The history of st. A Guide to Symbols and Types in the Bible and Tradition Fr. Devin Roza,2015-07-01 The Early Church read the Scriptures with the conviction that in the words of St Augustine The New Testament lies hidden in the Old and the Old Testament is unveiled in the New Drawing inspiration from how both the Apostles and Christ himself read the Old Covenant as referring to the New cf Luke 24 27 1 Peter 3 20 21 1 Corinthians 10 1 5 the Church found the Old Testament to be rich with figures or types that foreshadowed both the mysteries of the life of Christ and the mysteries or sacraments of the New Covenant And yet in modern times the study of types or typology has been largely abandoned by scholars due to the dangers of subjectivity and exaggeration How can typology be studied in a way that is objective and that avoids the excesses present in the past Fr Devin Roza seeks to offer a solution to these difficulties by asking the question According to the Scriptures and the living Tradition of the Church what are the types and symbols of the sacraments and what do they mean As authorized representatives of the living Tradition the Liturgy including the readings from the Church Fathers and the Catechism together with the Scriptures offer both the scholar and pastor the opportunity to study typology as the Catholic Church herself understands and prays it today in those texts the Church considers her own Fulfilled in Christ thus offers a comprehensive and readable summary of references to types and symbols of the sacraments in the Scriptures and the living Tradition of the Church as represented by the Liturgy and the Catechism The result is a highly objective scholarly and at the same time pastoral study of how the Church understands and lives the types and symbols of the sacraments today
