Congress. House. Committee on Education,1958 Scholarship and Loan Program.85-2 United States. Congress. House Education and Labor,1958 Making a Mass Institution Kyle P. Steele,2020-07-17 Making a Mass Institution describes how Indianapolis Indiana created a divided and unjust system of high schools over the course of the twentieth century one that effectively sorted students geographically economically and racially Like most U S cities Indianapolis began its secondary system with a singular decidedly academic high school but ended the 1960s with multiple high schools with numerous paths to graduation Some of the schools were academic others vocational and others still for what was eventually called life adjustment This system mirrored the multiple forces of mass society that surrounded it as it became more bureaucratic more focused on identifying and organizing students based on perceived abilities and more anxious about teaching conformity to middle class values By highlighting the experiences of the students themselves and the formation of a distinct school centered youth culture Kyle P Steele argues that high school as it evolved into a mass institution was never fully the domain of policy elites school boards and administrators or students but a complicated and ever changing contested meeting place of all three Scholarship and Loan Program United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor,1958 Scholarship and Loan Program United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor.
