The Confessions of Edward Isham Edward Isham,1998 In 1859 the Georgian Edward Isham convicted in North Carolina of murdering a Piedmont farmer dictated his life to his defence attorney This autobiography provides a perspective on the poor whites and is accompanied by a selection of essays A Separate Civil War Jonathan Dean Sarris,2012-10-05 Most Americans think of the Civil War as a series of dramatic clashes between massive armies led by romantic seeming leaders But in the Appalachian communities of North Georgia things were very different Focusing on Fannin and Lumpkin counties in the Blue Ridge Mountains along Georgia s northern border A Separate Civil War Communities in Conflict in the Mountain South argues for a more localized idiosyncratic understanding of this momentous period in our nation s history The book reveals that for many participants this war was fought less for abstract ideological causes than for reasons tied to home family friends and community Making use of a large trove of letters diaries interviews government documents and sociological data Jonathan Dean Sarris brings to life a previously obscured version of our nation s most divisive and destructive war From the outset the prospect of secession and war divided Georgia s mountain communities along the lines of race and religion and war itself only heightened these tensions As the Confederate government began to draft men into the army and seize supplies from farmers many mountaineers became more disaffected still They banded together in armed squads fighting off Confederate soldiers state militia and their own pro Confederate neighbors A local civil war ensued with each side seeing the other as a threat to law order and community itself In this very personal conflict both factions came to dehumanize their enemies and use methods that shocked even seasoned soldiers with their savagery But when the war was over in 1865 each faction sought to sanitize the past and integrate its stories into the national myths later popularized about the Civil War By arguing that the reason for choosing sides had more to do with local concerns than with competing ideologies or social or political visions Sarris adds a much needed complication to the question of why men fought in the Civil War Federal Population and Mortality Census Schedules, 1790-1890, in the National Archives and the States ,1971 Subject Catalog, 1979 Library of Congress,1979 Monographic Series Library of Congress, Amos Wheeler and His Descendants ,1998 Census Reports Tenth Census: The newspaper and periodical press United States. Census Office,1884 Blount County, Alabama Confederate Soldiers, Volume 3: Miscellaneous Robin

Sterling,2013-08-15 Mary Gordon Duffee wrote When the drums beat and the bugles called for men to march to the front I tell you old Blount responded nobly and sent hundreds of her gallant sons to march fight suffer and die for the flag that now lies furled forever This series of books attempts to identify all the Confederate soldiers who enlisted in organizations from the Blount County area along with those who moved to Blount County after the Civil War Whole company rosters are captured and entire service records pension applications birth dates spouses and marriage dates newspaper clippings and obituaries and dozens of pictures are contained in these volumes This is the first time ever all this information has been available in a single reference book Volume 3 contains information on soldiers who enlisted in other Alabama organizations and those who moved to Blount County after the Civil War These books are vital to any serious student of Blount County Alabama genealogy and history Maryland and Virginia Colonials Sharon J.
