Protest Beyond Borders Hara Kouki, Eduardo Romanos, 2011-03-01 The protest movements that followed the Second World War have recently become the object of study for various disciplines however the exchange of ideas between research fields and comparative research in general is lacking An international and interdisciplinary dialogue is vital to not only describe the similarities and differences between the single national movements but also to evaluate how they contributed to the formation and evolution of a transnational civil society in Europe This volume undertakes this challenge as well as questions some major assumptions of post 1945 protest and social mobilization both in Western and Eastern Europe Historians political scientists sociologists and media studies scholars come together and offer insights into social movement research beyond conventional repertoires of protest and strictly defined periods borders and paradigms offering new perspectives on past and present processes of social change of the contemporary world The Third World in the Global 1960s Samantha Christiansen, Zachary A. Scarlett, 2013 Decades after the massive student protest movements that consumed much of the world the 1960s remain a significant subject of scholarly inquiry While important work has been done regarding radical activism in the United States and Western Europe events in what is today known as the Global South Asia Africa and Latin America have yet to receive the attention they deserve This volume inserts the Third World into the study of the 1960s by examining the local and international articulations of youth protest in various geographical social and cultural arenas Rejecting the notion that the Third World existed on the periphery it situates the events of the 1960s in a more inclusive context building a richer more nuanced understanding of the era that better reflects the dynamism of the period The Hard Work of Hope Michael Ansara, 2025-07-15 The Hard Work of Hope takes you into the heady days of 1960s and 1970s activism chronicling the hopes and strategies of the young people who created the movements that rocked the country Michael Ansara was on the front lines In this fascinating memoir he traces an arc of discovery from the hope and moral clarity of the Civil Rights Movement to the ten year struggle to end the war in Vietnam with its sit ins marches confrontations and antiwar riots Ansara takes the reader into the minds of the activists detailing their successes as well as their mistakes The Hard Work of Hope shows how he learned to become a more effective organizer and build the Massachusetts Fair Share organization The book explores issues that remain urgent How does a movement build support when large parts of the country are opposed to its goals How do you connect with people who disagree with you How do you build organizations that unite across racial lines How can we make progress on the unfinished business of the hard work of hope Age of

Revolutions Fareed Zakaria, 2024-03-26 A New York Times Bestseller A Wall Street Journal Best Book of 2024 The CNN host and best selling author explores the revolutions past and present that define the polarized and unstable age in which we live Populist rage ideological fracture economic and technological shocks war and an international system studded with catastrophic risk the early decades of the twenty first century may be the most revolutionary period in modern history But it is not the first Humans have lived and thrived through more than one great realignment What are these revolutions and how can they help us to understand our fraught world In this major work Fareed Zakaria masterfully investigates the eras and movements that have shaken norms while shaping the modern world Three such periods hold profound lessons for today First in the seventeenth century Netherlands a fascinating series of transformations made that tiny land the richest in the world and created politics as we know it today Next the French Revolution an explosive era that devoured its ideological children and left a bloody legacy that haunts us today Finally the mother of all revolutions the Industrial Revolution which catapulted Great Britain and the US to global dominance and created the modern world Alongside these paradigm shifting historical events Zakaria probes four present day revolutions globalization technology identity and geopolitics For all their benefits the globalization and technology revolutions have produced profound disruptions and pervasive anxiety and our identity And increasingly identity is the battlefield on which the twenty first century's polarized politics are fought All this is set against a geopolitical revolution as great as the one that catapulted the United States to world power in the late nineteenth century Now we are entering a world in which the US is no longer the dominant power As we find ourselves at the nexus of four seismic revolutions we can easily imagine a dark future But Zakaria proves that pessimism is premature If we act wisely the liberal international order can be revived and populism relegated to the ash heap of history As few public intellectuals can Zakaria combines intellectual range deep historical insight and uncanny prescience to once again reframe and illuminate our turbulent present His bold compelling arguments make this book essential reading in our age of revolutions

Journal of a Dissenter Chris Wright, 2025-01-20 This is a lengthy intellectual journal by a political radical that ranges over a variety of subjects such as Marxism capitalism history many schools of modern philosophy psychology economics and contemporary American politics It also includes quite a few personal passages but I've kept those only because they express common experiences and youthful psychological tendencies Its most useful content for students might be its many summaries of good historical and scientific scholarship especially in the journal's second half Ultimately the document is a fairly comprehensive expression of a particular society as refracted through an inquisitive and critical mind from the ages of 15 to 44

Peace in the Mountains Tom Weyant, 2023-08-18 Peace in the Mountains analyzes student activism at the University of Pittsburgh Ohio University and West Virginia University during the Vietnam War era Drawing from a wide variety of sources including memoirs periodicals archival manuscript collections and college newspapers such as The Pitt News author Thomas Weyant tracks the dynamics of a student led campus response to the war in real time and outside the purview of the national media Along the way he musters evidence for an emerging social and political conscience among the student bodies of northern Appalachia citing politics on campus visions of patriotism and dissent campus citizenship antiwar activism and draft resistance campus issues and civil rights as major sites of contention and exploration Through this regional chronicle of student activism during the Vietnam War era Weyant holds to one reoccurring and unifying theme citizenship His account shows that political activism and civic engagement were by no means reserved to students at elite colleges on the contrary Appalachian youth were giving voice to the most vexing questions of local and national responsibility student and citizen identity and the role of the university in civil society Rich in primary source material from student op eds to administrative documents Peace in the Mountains draws a new map of student activism in the 1960s and early 1970s Weyant's study is a thoughtful and engaging addition to both Appalachian studies and the historiography of the Vietnam War era and is sure to appeal not only to specialists Appalachian scholars political historians political scientists and sociologists but to college students and general readers as well

Heritage from Below Iain J.M. Robertson, 2016-04-22 Research into the ways in which the past is constructed and consumed in the present is now reaching a mature stage This maturity derives from the general acceptance that heritage as a social and cultural construct is closely connected to the making and maintaining of identity at all spatial scales This unique book contributes to the developing discourse by focusing on heritage from below in a field where the literature on the relationship between heritage and identity has rightly been focused on national identity Never before have the contemporary manifestations and the theoretical structuring framework of the idea of heritage from below been discussed in the depth offered by this book The authors first establish the concept and then engage with the actual practice and practitioners of heritage from below in the UK Europe Australia and North America

Ethics in Archaeological Practice Sarah Kielt Costello, Sarah Lepinski, 2024-12-31 Ethics in Archaeological Practice explores urgent topics and issues in archaeology as currently practiced in the classroom the field the museum and the public sphere While addressed primarily to archaeologists working in western Asia the eastern Mediterranean and North Africa the volume raises contemporary ethical questions around race gender disability climate change and cultural heritage that are pressing and relevant to archaeology students and professionals worldwide The fifteen contributors offer fundamental case studies and practical guidance for best practices and models of high standards of ethical practice in professional conduct Together they offer new approaches to advocacy and the responsible stewardship of heritage sites collections and the environment These compelling and generative discussions make the case for a 21st century archaeology that is proactive and engaged with discourses addressing equity social justice anti colonialism and climate change

Resister Bruce Dancis, 2014-02-06 Bruce Dancis arrived at Cornell University in 1965 as a youth who was no stranger to political action He grew up in a radical household and took part in the 1963 March on Washington as a fifteen year old He became the first student at Cornell to defy the draft by tearing up his draft card and soon became a leader of the draft resistance movement He also turned down a student deferment and refused induction into the armed services He was the principal organizer of the first mass draft card burning during the Vietnam War an activist in the Resistance a nationwide organization against the draft and a cofounder and president of the Cornell chapter of Students for a Democratic Society Dancis spent nineteen months in federal prison in Ashland Kentucky for his actions against the draft In Resister Dancis not only gives readers an insider's account of the antiwar and student protest movements of the sixties but also provides a rare look at the prison experiences of Vietnam era draft resisters Intertwining memory reflection and history Dancis offers an engaging firsthand account of some of the era's most iconic events including the 1963 March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom the Abbie Hoffman led hippie invasion of the New York Stock Exchange the antiwar confrontation at the Pentagon in 1967 and the dangerous controversy that erupted at Cornell in 1969 involving African American students their SDS allies and the administration and faculty Along the way Dancis also explores the relationship between the topical folk and rock music of the era and the political and cultural rebels who sought to change American society The Wool Situation ,1966

Stumbling toward Utopia Timothy Goeglein,2024-01-31 In Stumbling toward Utopia author Tim Goeglein looks at the philosophies and policies that led to the societal earthquake of the 1960s and how those philosophies and policies have led to the cataclysm America faces today He offers a blueprint for how we can reject those philosophies and policies by returning to the core values upon which America was built personal responsibility respect for life sexual restraint and patriotism The Spectator ,2004 ERS. United States.
