1985 György Dalos,1983 1985 György Dalos,1983 Transcribes events that took place a year after George Orwell's Nineteen eighty four Contemporary Jewish Writing in Europe Vivian Liska,Thomas Nolden,2007-12-05 With contributions from a dozen American and European scholars this volume presents an overview of Jewish writing in post World War II Europe Striking a balance between close readings of individual texts and general surveys of larger movements and underlying themes the essays portray Jewish authors across Europe as writers and intellectuals of multiple affiliations and hybrid identities Aimed at a general readership and guided by the idea of constructing bridges across national cultures this book maps for English speaking readers the productivity and diversity of Jewish writers and writing that has marked a revitalization of Jewish culture in France Germany Austria Italy Great Britain the Netherlands Hungary Poland and Russia

Worlds Apart? A Postcolonial Reading of post-1945 East-Central European Culture Cristina Sandru,2013-01-16 This study explores the relation of the Eastern European problematic to postcolonial critical practice interrogating the extent to which postcolonialism can help illuminate instances of imperial domination in non Third World contexts It argues that colonisation is to be understood principally as a condition of ideological domination that has engendered similar forms of literary and cultural resistance consequently it offers a comparative framework which enables a reading in differential contexts of texts that ostensibly have little in common but which on close examination reveal a shared imaginative space rhetoric and narrative agency The book consists of two interrelated parts Part one is a critical discussion of the ideologies cultural imaginaries and representational practices articulated in a diverse range of representative postcolonial and post 1945 East Central European texts these are shown to share despite dissimilar conditions of production uncannily related narrative modes and thematic emphases Part two is a comparative literature case study which discusses two authors whose work is both highly representative of the cultural formations discussed in the first part Milan Kundera and Salman Rushdie and at the same time highly controversial The chapters dedicated to Kundera's and Rushdie's work examine the cultural geography of their novels particularly in the writers use of memory and story telling to reconfigure history and personal identity in conditions of literal and metaphorical displacement While their novels thrive on ironic subversion and ambiguity they simultaneously gesture towards a redemptive space of the imagination transcending the constraints of both locality and history The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1968 Imaginary Communities Phillip E. Wegner,2002-06-04 Imaginary Communities is a beautiful treatment of utopian narratives as the quintessential genre for figuring social space in the modern nation state Wegner demonstrates a wide ranging yet lighthearted philosophical learnedness an urgent political conscience and a deeply historical sense that narrative utopias are like specters that haunt particular moments of upheaval crisis and contradiction within modernity whether the threshold between the vestiges of feudal agrarian society and early modern English capitalism conflicts between the new oligarchy of industrializing late 19th c

United States and the increasing militancy of the labor movement the uneven successes and failures of the Russian Revolution of 1905 or the mid century Cold War struggles Lisa Lowe author of Immigrant Acts On Asian American Cultural Politics In this important book Wegner argues that the historical work done by utopian narratives should be reconsidered interrogated challenged and continued Insightful and provocative Imaginary Communities will prove a valuable contribution to our thinking about the politics of imagination Daniel Cottom author of Cannibals and Philosophers Bodies of Enlightenment Phillip Wegner's Imaginary Communities represents a major intervention in our understanding not merely of utopian literature but the very ways in which we view our world His concept of utopian narrative as both vision and practice as participating in real worlds a force for change rooted in the social world as it is and as it is becoming and is imagined succeeds wonderfully well his notion of the imperative of failure as a resource of hope is deeply humane He provides a body of work worth thinking through and thinking with As a historian I find the historicity of his approach the literary arch spanning from the origins of the European nation state to our global present and future compelling in its ambition and execution Wegner moves well beyond the more tired moves of new historicist literary criticism this is historicist scholarship in a new key James Epstein author of Radical Expression Political Language Ritual and Symbol in England 1790 1850
