Rennard, Roberto Rodriguez-Roisin, Gerard Huchon, Nicolas Roche, 2007-11-19 Since the publication of the first edition chronic obstructive pulmonary disease COPD as a public health issue has increased in line with the predictions of the World Health Organization and by the year 2020 will become one of the main killers of human life With several important large scaled trials becoming available and our knowledge of COPD Respiratory Diseases in Women S. Buist, C.E. Mapp, 2003-06-01 Present day insights into the relationship between gender and health emphasise the necessity of taking sex and gender differences into consideration Sex refers to biological characteristics such as chromosomes physiology and anatomy that distinguish females and males Gender refers to the array of socially constructed roles and relationships personality traits attitudes behaviours and values that society ascribes to the two sexes on a differential basis In health related research both sex differences and differences resulting from gender are implied Sex can determine differential propen Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease, 2Ed PMA Calverley, W. Macnee, N. Pride, S. Rennard, 2012-12-11 Chronic obstructive pulmonary disease COPD is one of the most common respiratory diseases of the developed world and interest in the condition is burgeoning both among physicians encountering the disorder and within the pharmaceutical industry International guidelines for diagnosis and management have been formulated and our basic understanding Occupational and Environmental Lung Diseases Frank E. Speizer, 2000 Radiologic Diagnosis of Chest Disease Miriam Sperber, 2012-12-06 Prior to the virtual atomic explosion of medical knowledge at a time when communication was very much slower a medical book to be authoritative and believable had to be written by a very knowledgeable and per force usually quite senior person The choice of texts was limited and tended to be dominated by a few classic a phrase not quite synonymous with dogma Following the information explosion the scenario is quite different Not only is there a geometric progression in the quantity and speed of development of new medical knowledge but also this development is occurring at very different rates in different countries This is particularly true in medical imaging The result is that it is now virtually impossible to produce a single author book that can cover the field or even a subdivision of it This absolute requirement for multiple authors has in turn created the need for a new type of editor author who must be multinational in approach have a uniquely informed appreciation of what is going on in medical imaging research throughout the entire world and possess the depth of personal knowledge and experience to judge correctly what work is the most rigorous and likely to have the greatest impact
