1999 Canadian Global Almanac:

The Canadian Global Almanac ,1994 Modern Legal Systems Cyclopedia ,1984 Globalization Unplugged
Peter Urmetzer,2005-01-01 The debate over economic globalization has reached a fever pitch in the past decade and a half with Western governments and multinational corporations trumpeting its virtues and a multitude of activists and developing world citizens vociferously denouncing it Both sides would agree that globalization is a recent development that is changing the way people and nations do business but in Globalization Unplugged Peter Urmetzer questions whether national economies are losing their sovereignty and whether the topic of globalization merits as much discussion as it receives Urmetzer s focus is specifically on Canada and he demonstrates that current levels of trade are not unprecedented and further that as the economy becomes more service oriented it will also become less trade dependent He points out that only a relatively small percentage of Canada s wealth is owned by foreign investors and likewise only a small portion of the country s wealth is located outside of its borders Disputing claims that the nation state is weakening or disappearing altogether Urmetzer shows how the welfare state side of government spending conveniently ignored in the anti globalization literature yet arguably the most significant development in the political economy of the nation state in the twentieth century remains remarkable stable Written with precision and skill Globalization Unplugged will spark controversy on both sides of the globalization debate and help deflate the rhetoric of both advocates and detractors Who's Who of Canadian Women, 1999-2000 Gillian Holmes,1999-06-01 Who s Who of Canadian Women is a guide to the most powerful and innovative women in Canada Celebrating the talents and achievement of over 3 700 women Who s Who of Canadian Women includes women from all over Canada in all fields including agriculture academia law business politics journalism religion sports and entertainment Each biography includes such information as personal data education career history current employment affiliations interests and honours A special comment section reveals personal thoughts goals and achievements of the profiled individual Entries are indexed by employment of affiliation for easy reference Published every two years Who s Who of Canadian Women selects its biographees on merit alone This collection is an essential resource for all those interested in the achievements of Canadian women Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 Living & Working in Canada Benjamin A. Kranc,Karina Roman,2002 This volume on living and working in Canada examines everything from deciding to go and getting visas to understanding health and security taxation driving and how schooling and the job market work Breaking the Ice Cecil Harris,2007 Black hockey players from Grant Fuhr to Jarome Iginla speak candidly for the first time about their experiences in the NHL Since 1958 thirty seven black men have played in the National Hockey League Out of the 600 players active today fourteen are black Breaking the Ice The Black Experience in Professional Hockey is the first book to tell the unique stories of black hockey players how they overcame or succumbed to racial and cultural prejudices to play Canada s favourite pastime Sports journalist Cecil Harris outlines in detail the personal and professional battles as well as the victor. The Rhetoric of Canadian Writing, 2021-11-22 The sixteen articles in The Rhetoric of Canadian Writing are a welcome contribution to the growing interest in Canadian culture indicating its variety. Aboriginal, Anglo-Canadian and French-Canadian culture and their interrelationships are all represented. In classical oratory the term rhetoric signifies the art of influencing the thought and conduct of readers and listeners and this concept is used as an underlying current of debate in this volume. Contributors address the theme of identity and post-colonial disputation in their explorations of eighteenth and nineteenth century writing by Elizabeth Simcoe, Catharine Parr Traill and Lucy Montgomery as well as contemporary works by Margaret Atwood, Nancy Huston, Wayne Johnston, Susan Swan, Jacques Poulin and Rudy Wiebe. Quebecoise writer Louis Dupré contributes a compelling reflection on women's writing in Quebec.

Research and Global Perspectives in Learning Disabilities Daniel P. Hallahan, Barbara K. Keogh, 2001-03 The executive committee of the International Academy for Research in Learning Disabilities planned this volume on the occasion of its 25th anniversary to honor the founder of the Academy, William M. Cruickshank.

Canadian Society in the Twenty-first Century Trevor W. Harrison, John W. Friesen, 2004 Appropriate for Canadian Society and Canadian Studies courses. This text examines the growth and development of Canadian society within a socio-historical framework. Following the progress of our society into the 21st century, Harrison investigates historical, economic, political, cultural and ideological perspectives through 3 key relationships: Quebec and Canada, Canada and the United States, and Canada and the Aboriginal Nations. An introductory chapter presents central sociological theories of structural functionalism, symbolic interactionism, conflict and feminism as it pertains to the text's central themes of nation, state and society.

Weaving Connections David Selby, Tara Goldstein, 2000 Education plays a vitally important role in building foundations for social progress. This remarkable collection describes educational models based on the principles of tolerance, equity and justice developed over the past three decades by teachers, parents, activists and students. In a time of crippling cutbacks and educational reforms designed to promote business over education, this book is critical reading. Contributors from across Canada discuss the initiatives behind their approaches, how they developed curricula and the future of their educational work. Weaving Connections is a call to action by progressive educators inviting us to cherish educational models that teach us how to live in harmony, respect and balance with one another.

Unnatural Law David R. Boyd, 2011-11-01 While governments assert that Canada is a world leader in sustainability, Unnatural Law provides extensive evidence to refute this claim. A comprehensive assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of Canadian environmental law, the book provides a balanced critical examination of Canada's record, focusing on laws and policies intended to protect water, air, land and biodiversity. Three decades of environmental laws have produced progress in a number of important areas such as ozone depletion, protected areas and some kinds of air and water pollution. However, Canada's overall record remains poor. In this vital and timely study, David Boyd explores the reasons why some laws and policies foster progress while others fail. He ultimately concludes that the root cause of environmental degradation in industrialized nations is excessive consumption of resources Unnatural Law outlines the innovative changes in laws and policies that Canada must implement in order to respond to the ecological imperative of living within the Earth's limits The struggle for a sustainable future is one of the most daunting challenges facing humanity in the 21st century Everyone academics lawyers students policy makers and concerned citizens interested in the health of the Canadian and global environments will find Unnatural Law an invaluable source of information and insight For more information on Unnatural Law visit David Boyd's site www.unnaturallaw.com Quill & Quire, 1999 Families, Labour and Love Maureen Baker, 2020-07-29 We think of our family life as very personal but in fact it is shaped by influences well beyond our control Families Labour and Love identifies the ways in which family and personal life in three settler societies Australia New Zealand and Canada has been shaped by colonisation immigration globalisation demographic changes law and policy Baker shows that these three countries each a former colony developed similar family trends and similar family policies Strongly gendered patterns of paid and unpaid work played a major role in family life The family practices of indigenous people were largely overlooked as were those of recent immigrant groups However local conditions also produced significant differences in family experiences among the three countries Richly illustrated with examples comparative data and textual sources Families Labour and Love provides a broad ranging analysis of the family which will appeal to students researchers and policy makers Maureen Baker outlines with great clarity the diversity of families and the way in which they are shaped by historical and cultural forces The focus on Australia New Zealand and Canada is not only refreshing but throws into sharp relief the impact on contemporary families of the colonial experience industrialisation large scale immigration and globalisation David de Vaus La Trobe University Canada's Democratic Deficit: Is Proportional Representation The Answer?
