

19th century English language literature

- Major political and social changes at the end of the eighteenth century, particularly the French Revolution, prompted a new breed of writing now known as Romanticism. William Wordsworth and Samuel Taylor Coleridge began the trend for bringing emotionalism and introspection to English literature, with a new concentration on the individual and the common man. The reaction to urbanism and industrialisation prompted poets to explore nature, for example the Lake Poets.

Cataloging Policy and Support Office,2003 Science and Omniscience in Nineteenth Century Literature Jonathan Taylor,2014-07-01 Investigates some of the ways in which Laplacian and indeed Newtonian models of observation and the universe are at once assimilated and complicated by Romantic and Victorian writers such as Carlyle Burke Abbott Poe and Wordsworth This book explains how some of these literary reimaginings look forward to more modern conceptions of science The Artist as Animal in Nineteenth-Century French Literature Claire Nettleton,2019-08-08 The Artist as Animal in Nineteenth Century French Literature traces the evolution of the relationship between artists and animals in fiction from the Second Empire to the fin de si cle This book examines examples of visual literature inspired by the struggles of artists such as Edouard Manet and Vincent van Gogh Edmond and Jules de Goncourt s Manette Salomon 1867 mile Zola s Ther se Raquin 1867 Jules Laforgue s At the Berlin Aquarium 1895 and Impressionism 1883 Octave Mirbeau s In the Sky 1892 1893 and Rachilde s L Animale 1893 depict vanguard painters and performers as being like animals whose unique vision revolted against stifling traditions Juxtaposing these literary works with contemporary animal theory McHugh Deleuze Guattari and Derrida zoo studies Berger Rothfels and Lippit and feminism Donovan Adams and Haraway Claire Nettleton explores the extent to which the nineteenth century dissolution of the human subject contributed to a radical modern aesthetic Utilizing these interdisciplinary methodologies Nettleton argues that while inducing anxiety regarding traditional humanist structures the artist animal an embodiment of artistic liberation within an urban setting is at the same time a paradigmatic trope of modernity MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,1991 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969 Troubling Maternity Emily Jeremiah,2003 The question of maternity is crucial for feminists to whom it represents both challenge and inspiration as it is for many thinkers engaged with the issues of agency corporeality and ethics This examination puts forward the idea of a maternal performativity drawing on the work of Judith Butler and numerous other feminist theorists to offer new ways of looking at 1970s and 1980s literary texts by ten German speaking women writers including Barbara Frischmuth Elfriede Jelinek Irmtraud Morgner and Karin Struck It argues that as yet maternal agency has not adequately been theorized a project which is urgent given the traditional view in Western culture of the mother as passive and suggests that Butler's notion of performativity can assist in this task It proposes a performative conception of both mothering and literature and links both of these to the question of ethics which is understood as involving embodiment and relationality To different extents all of the texts examined depict mothers as marginal object or insane thus demonstrating the operations of exclusion and the need for a maternal agency to be developed and enacted The idea of maternal performativity is refined in five chapters which focus respectively on community corporeality the mother child relationship the family and discursive production The conclusion explores the ethics of literary practice and knowledge production and argues that in the light of the developing fields of new reproductive technologies and genetics it is imperative that we seek new understandings of embodiment community and care a task to which this study aspires to contribute Nineteenth-century Literature, 1991 A Companion to

(1972-1990s) Jan Wilkens, 2025-03-31 In the 1970s queer Jews became excited by the developments of the Gay Liberation Movement in both the US and Europe Until then they were not able to express their queerness in Jewish communities and hoped for new inclusive spaces Yet they quickly realized that the movement was not as welcoming as anticipated Thus they started to organize in February 1972 the world's first queer Jewish group became publicly visible in London with its symposium The Jewish Homosexual in Society The Jewish Gay Group began tackling the exclusion of non heteronormative Jews in British Jewish and queer communities Soon after two more queer Jewish groups formed Beit Haverim House of Friends in Paris and Sjalhomo a neologism of shalom and homosexual in Amsterdam Besides their goal of emancipation these groups brought together their members based on shared experiences as both Jewish and queer opening up much needed spaces for social encounters The groups also established a Europe wide support network that enabled international collaboration for more than a decade This study archives these groups histories and that of their network By doing so it broadens prevalent narratives of Europe's post World War II Jewry and queers the discipline of Jewish History Gender Protest and Same-Sex Desire in Antebellum American Literature David Greven, 2016-04-22 Expanding our understanding of the possibilities and challenges inherent in the expression of same sex desire before the Civil War David Greven identifies a pattern of what he calls gender protest and sexual possibility recurring in antebellum works He suggests that major authors such as Margaret Fuller Edgar Allan Poe Herman Melville and Nathaniel Hawthorne consciously sought to represent same sex desire in their writings Focusing especially on conceptions of the melancholia of gender identification and shame Greven argues that same sex desire was inextricably enmeshed in scenes of gender role strain as exemplified in the extent to which The Narrative of Arthur Gordon Pym depicts masculine identity adrift and in disarray Greven finds similarly compelling representations of gender protest in Fuller s exploration of the crisis of gendered identity in Summer on the Lakes in Melville s representation of Redburn s experience of gender nonconformity and in Hawthorne s complicated delineation of desire in The Scarlet Letter As Greven shows antebellum authors not only took up the taboo subjects of same sex desire and female sexuality but were adept in their use of a variety of rhetorical means for expressing the inexpressible

Writing and Victorianism J.B. Bullen, 2014-06-06 Writing and Victorianism asks the fundamental question what is Victorianism and offers a number of answers taken from methods and approaches which have been developed over the last ten years This collection of essays written by both new and established scholars from Britain and the U S A develops many of the themes of nineteenth century studies which have lately come to the fore touching upon issues such as drugs class power and gender Some essays reflect the interaction of word and image in the nineteenth century and the notion of the city as spectacle others look at Victorian science finding a connection between writing and the growth of psychology and psychiatry on the one hand and with the power of scientific materialism on the other As well as key figures such as Dickens Tennyson and Wilde a host of new names are introduced including working class writers attempting to define themselves and writers in the Periodical press who once anonymous exercised a great influence over Victorian politics taste and social ideals From these observations there emerges a need for self definition in Victorian writing History ancestry and the past all play their part in figuring the present in the nineteenth century and many of these studies foreground the problem of literary social and psychological identity

The Weak Body of a Useless Woman Anne Walthall, 1998-11-15 In 1862 fifty one year old Matsuo Taseko left her old life behind by traveling to Kyoto the old imperial capital Peasant poet and local political activist Taseko had come to Kyoto to support the nativist campaign to restore the Japanese emperor and expel Western barbarians Although she played a minor role in the events that led to the Meiji Restoration of 1868 her actions were nonetheless astonishing for a woman of her day Honored as a hero even before her death Taseko has since been adopted as a patron saint by rightist nationalists In telling Taseko s story Anne Walthall gives us not just the first full biography in English of a peasant woman of the Tokugawa period 1603-1868 but also fresh perspectives on the practices and intellectual concerns of rural entrepreneurs and their role in the Meiji Restoration Writing about Taseko with a depth and complexity that has thus far been accorded only to men of that time Walthall has uncovered a tale that will captivate anyone concerned with women s lives and with Japan s dramatic
