The Australian Journal, 1886 A Lousy Start Jacobaris, 2010-11 Prior to the stock market crash in 1929 Holland was a prosperous country where its people enjoyed secure futures or so they thought After the world's economic collapse millions were forced into a poverty stricken existence where every day was a struggle to survive A Lousy Start shares one family's vivid impressions of living in Holland during the Great Depression and the lasting impact those experiences had on their lives

At the beginning of the twentieth century Arie Demerwe worked hard and was paid very little but still managed to put food on his table Sent to fight in the war of 1918 Arie finally returned to his hometown where he began working again only to see everything change again after the end of World War I As the people of Holland enjoyed wealth they assumed would last forever dark changes loomed ahead When the sun rose on October 23 1929 no one had a clue that tragedy would strike by day s end For the next ten years a hostile world would transform even the most religious people into thieves and liars As one family fought to stay alive in a bleak existence each of them learned valuable life lessons they would carry with them forever

The Ladies' Repository ,1852 The idea of this women s magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey s Lady s Book and Snowden s Lady s Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900 The Welcome Guest ,1858 Welcome to the Greenhouse Gordon Van Gelder,2011 Welcome to the Greenhouse an all original science fiction anthology imagines the possibilities that climate change poses for our future from the grim to the hopeful the absurd to the all too real Welcome Niqynu Greg J. Delle,2015-11-30 The author Greg J Delle has not yet completed his lifetime study of natural humanity and manipulated governed humanity He and his childhood giraffe friend Niqynu travel back through time to when Delle was one year old to the present and to the future Delle depicts how our great inventors writers and a host of gifted legends became successful Despite a system of scarce schooling and academics they still prevailed Delle compares this with current academic standards and how academics can affect a child s creativity He asks what good are competition and the disease of believing you have to be number one The twelve hours a day of study and homework a child has does it teach each and every child to be better than one another Instead it would be better to have schools that teach parenting and help people respect and be polite to one another Delle and Niqynu study the history of religion and how it has affected and continues to affect modern civilization Of course God is energy shared by everyone Delle and Niqynu studied the laws of the Bible modern school bureaucracy and the government system its laws rules regulations fines penalties and restrictions This arduous squeezing system comes down on parents and poor people to force their children to fit the modern moral mold Delle and Niqynu question the behavior of adolescents and adults The rule of sexual societal behavior needs to be set free Delle and Niqynu never stop asking questions because it is their destiny to help prevent child abuse Just look at all of the mental and physically abused children His questions are still unanswered Come and join them on their quest
