Cravings Of A City Dweller:

Cravings of a City Dweller, 2004      The Selling and Self-Regulation of Contemporary Poetry J.T. Welsch, 2020-03-31 The Selling and Self Regulation of Contemporary Poetry is the first book length study of the contemporary poetry industry By documenting radical changes over the past decade in the way poems are published sold and consumed it connects the seemingly small world of poetry with the other wider creative industries In reassessing an art form that has been traditionally seen as free from or even resistant to material concerns the book confronts the real pressures and real opportunities faced by poets and publishers in the wake of economic and cultural shifts since 2008 The changing role of anthologies prizes and publishers are considered alongside new technologies new arts policy and re conceptions of poetic labour Ultimately it argues that poetry s continued growth and diversification also leaves individuals with more responsibility than ever for sustaining its communities      Craving Connection (in)courage, 2017-01-10 Craving Connection 30 Challenges for Real Life Engagement is a journey with in courage writers sharing real life stories practical Scripture application and connection challenges to deepen the reader s understanding of Scripture in order to invest in the people and community around them      The City, Second Edition James A. Clapp, 2014-02-10 The City is the best funniest saddest and most thought provoking compilation ever assembled on the urban scene James A Clapp has arranged more than three thousand quotations epigrams epithets verses proverbs scriptural references witticisms lyrics literary references and historical observations on urban life from antiquity until the present These quotes are drawn from the written and spoken words of more than one thousand writers throughout history This volume with contributions from speakers poets song writers politicians philosophers scientists religious leaders historians social scientists humorists architects journalists and travelers from and to many lands is designed to be used by writers speechmakers students and scholars on cities and urban life Clapp s text is striking for its sharp contrasts of urban and rural life and the urbanization process in different historical times and geographical areas This second edition includes four hundred new entries updated birth dates and occupations of quoted authors and an expanded and updated introduction and preface Clapp also added new introduction pages for each section containing pictures and unique quotations The indexes have also been expanded to include more subjects and cities The scope of this book is international including entries on most major and many minor cities of the world It is noteworthy for its pleasures and as well as its insights      Germany in the Loud Twentieth Century Florence Feiereisen, Alexandra Merley Hill, 2012 This book introduces German Sound Studies using a transdisciplinary approach It invites readers to auralize space by describing characteristically German soundscapes in the long twentieth century including the noisy city of the early 1900s the sounds of East and West Germany and hip hop soundscapes of the millennium      Manifesting Paradise Matali, 2013 A Divinely Guided Manual for Personal Global and Planetary Healing Paradise was and still is The Divine plan Manifesting Paradise the book of The Manifesting Paradise Teachings is one of the most important books ever written Everybody needs to read this book The scope of The Manifesting Paradise Teachings is all encompassing A divinely guided A Z of personal and planetary healing The Manifesting Paradise Teachings were divinely channeled and written down by Matali The Manifesting Paradise Teachings are the urgently required divine guidance that humanity needs in order to avert devastating social and environmental catharsis Globally humanity is now facing cathartic social and environmental collapse Humanity is rapidly creating dystopia the opposite to utopia or paradise The human population is expected to double within twenty five years while climate instability and population pressures are expected to cause severe water and food shortages Manifesting Paradise identifies the underlying causes that have brought humanity to this point and offers the simple solutions that can empower us to easily manifest personal global and planetary paradise The Sociable City Jamin Creed Rowan,2017-07-03 The Sociable City chronicles how as the city s physical and social landscapes evolved over the course of the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries urban intellectuals developed new vocabularies narratives and representational forms to explore and advocate for the social configurations made possible by urban living Pioneer Urbanites Douglas Henry Daniels,2023-11-15 The black migration to San Francisco and the Bay Area differed from the mass movement of Southern rural blacks and their families into the eastern industrial cities Those who traveled West or arrived by ship were often independent sophisticated single men Many were associated with the transportation boom following the Gold Rush others traveled as employees of wealthy individuals Douglas Daniels argues for the importance of going beyond the written record and urban statistics in examining the life of a minority community He has studied photographs from family albums and interviewed members of old black San Francisco families in his effort to provide the first nuanced picture of the lives of black San Franciscans from the 1860s to the 1940s The black migration to San Francisco and the Bay Area differed from the mass movement of Southern rural blacks and their families into the eastern industrial cities Those who traveled West or arrived by ship were often independent sophisticated singl The Urban Condition: Literary Trajectories through Canada's Postmetropolis Eva Darias-Beautell,2019-06-04 Examining the centrality of the city in Canadian literary production post 1960 this collection of critical essays presents an interdisciplinary representation of the urban from a variety of backgrounds and perspectives By analysing contemporary Canadian literature in English the contributors intend to produce not only an alternative picture of the national literary traditions but also fresh articulations of the relationship between Canadian identity citizenship and nation Since the 1960s metropolitan regions across the world have experienced radical transformation For critical urban studies scholars this phenomenon has been described as a restructuring This study argues that in Canada this restructuring has been accompanied by a literary rearrangement of its canon consisting of a gradual shift of focus from the wild or rural to the urban Alluding to the changes within contemporary Canadian cities the term postmetropolis locates the contributors shared theoretical framework within a critical postmodern paradigm Centered on a particular selection of poetic or fictional texts each essay pushes the theoretical framework further suggesting the need for new tools of interpretation and analysis This book presents an urban literary portrait of Canada that is both thematically and conceptually coherent Using a range of interdisciplinary methodologies it adeptly navigates a range of urban issues such as surveillance asylum diaspora mobility the queer and the post political This book will be of interest to those studying or working on Canadian literature both in Canada and internationally as well as to those scholars engaged in investigations that intersect literature and urban studies

Urban Masses and Moral Order in America, 1820-1920 Paul S. BOYER,Paul S Boyer,2009-06-30 For over a century dark visions of moral collapse and social disintegration in American cities spurred an anxious middle class to search for ways to restore order In this important book Paul Boyer explores the links between the urban reforms of the Progressive era and the long efforts of prior generations to tame the cities He integrates the ideologies of urban crusades with an examination of the careers and the mentalities of a group of vigorous activists including Lyman Beecher the pioneers of the tract societies and Sunday schools Charles Loring Brace of the Children s Aid Society Josephine Shaw Lowell of the Charity Organization movement the father of American playgrounds Joseph Lee and the eloquent city planner Daniel Hudson Burnham Boyer describes the early attempts of Jacksonian evangelicals to recreate in the city the social equivalent of the morally homogeneous village he also discusses later strategies that tried to exert a moral influence on urban immigrant families by voluntarist effort including for instance the Charity Organizations friendly visitors By the 1890s there had developed two sharply divergent trends in thinking about urban planning and social control the bleak assessment that led to coercive strategies and the hopeful evaluation that emphasized the importance of environmental betterment as a means of urban moral control

The Power of Environment Honey Makhija, 2024-09-23 The Power of Environment Transforming Your Life Through Your Surroundings written by Honey Makhija also known as Dr Parth Makhija in the business world delves into the profound impact our surroundings have on our personal and professional lives In this insightful guide Makhija shares his journey of mastering various environments to foster success creativity and well being Through personal anecdotes and practical advice he demonstrates how to transform your home workspace and digital spaces into environments that support growth and happiness This book offers readers actionable strategies for overcoming clutter managing stress and designing spaces that align with their goals

Dickens and Benjamin Gillian Piggott, 2016-04-15 Placing the works of Charles Dickens and Walter Benjamin in conversation with one another Gillian Piggott argues that the two writers display a shared vision of modernity Her analysis of their works shows that both writers demonstrate a decreased confidence in the capacity to experience truth or religious meaning in an increasingly materialist world and that both occupy similar positions towards urban modernity and its effect upon experience Piggott juxtaposes her exploration of Benjamin s ideas on allegory and messianism with an examination of Dickens s The Old Curiosity Shop arguing that both writers proffer a melancholy vision of a world devoid of space and time for religious experience a state of affairs they associate with the onset of industrial capitalism In Benjamin s The Arcades Project and Dickens s Sketches by Boz and Tale of Two Cities among other works the authors converge in their hugely influential treatments of the city as a site of perambulation creativity memory and autobiography At the same time both authors relate to the vertiginous mutable fast paced nature of city life as involving a concomitant change in the structure of experience an alteration that can be understood as a reduction in the capacity to experience fully Piggott s persuasive analyses enable a reading of Dickens as part of a European particularly a German tradition of thinkers and writers of industrialization and modernity For both Dickens and Benjamin truth appears only in moments of revelation in fragments of modernity

The Spectator and the City in Nineteenth Century American Literature Dana Brand, 1991-10-25 Dana Brand traces the origin of the flaneur to seventeenth century English literature and to nineteenth century American literature

Migration and the European City Christoph Cornelißen, Beat Kümin, Massimo Rospocher, 2022-03-07 Looking back over the centuries migration has always formed an important part of human existence Spatial mobility emerges as a key driver of urban evolution characterized by situation specific combinations of opportunities restrictions and fears This collection of essays investigates interactions between European cities and migration between the early modern period and the present Building on conceptual approaches from history sociology and cultural studies twelve contributions focus on policies representations and the impact on local communities more generally Combining case studies and theoretical reflections the volume s contributions engage with a variety of topics and disciplinary perspectives yet also with several common themes One revolves around problems of definition both in terms of demarcating cities from their surroundings and of distinguishing migration in a narrower sense from other forms of short and long distance mobility Further shared concerns include the integration of multiple analytical scales contextual factors and diachronic variables such as urbanization industrialization and the digital revolution

Neo-Victorian Cities ,2015-02-04 This volume explores the complex aesthetic cultural and memory politics of urban representation and reconfiguration in neo Victorian discourse and practice Through adaptations of traditional city tropes such as the palimpsest the labyrinth the femininised enigma and the marketplace of desire writers filmmakers and city planners resurrect preserve and rework nineteenth century metropolises and their material traces while simultaneously Gothicising and fabricating past urban realities to serve present day wants so as to maximise cities potential to generate consumption and profits Within the cultural imaginary of the metropolis this volume contends the nineteenth century provides a prominent focalising lens that mediates our apperception of and engagement with postmodern cityscapes From the site of capitalist romance and traumatic lieux de m moire to theatre of postcolonial resistance and Gothic sensationalism the neo Victorian city proves a veritable Proteus evoking myriad creative responses but also crystallising persistent ethical dilemmas surrounding alienation precarity Othering and social exclusion
