Conscious Living Nancy J. Napier, 2016-06 Now nearly two decades later Napier is ready to share more of her own life story while returning to the subject she was first introduced to by her grandmother As she comes again to the topic that pervades her life story she focuses on several themes including the importance of experiencing a sense of meaning in life the sacred nature of all beings and life itself the belief that everything is an essential part of the full expression of one life both individually and collectively and that we inherently draw from an underlying wholeness the power of what it means to be aware in the present moment and the fact that suffering is part of everyday life and we can learn to move through it Napier explains that once we recognize our place within collective consciousness and focus on compassion and mindfulness we can begin to experience more directly the interdependence and interconnection underlying our place in the universe Become the CEO of You, Inc. Susan Bulkeley Butler, 2012-05-15 How do you turn your dreams into reality How do you make things happen for you rather than let things happen to you Don't be humble about who you are and what you are capable of Stand tall and stand out Be known Be recognized as a leader and most of all know you are a leader is Susan Bulkeley Butler's call to action for her readers to take responsibility for their lives In this updated second edition of the best selling Become the CEO of You Inc Susan has provided strategies for improving your life and new techniques for advancing your career The book is focused around her Make it Happen model which is based on three decades of experience working with Fortune 500 companies The steps include Develop a clear aspiration for You Inc build your board of directors develop your plan to make your aspiration happen and navigate your day to day journey The second edition is completely revised and includes new topics such as The importance of executive coaching developing your image in today's world taking a long term view of your life and career new opportunities for balancing career and family use of social networking techniques the good bad and ugly and preparing for promotion From Pentecost to the Triune God Steven M. Studebaker, 2012-12-19 In From Pentecost to the Triune God Steven Studebaker puts forth a provocative Pentecostal Trinitarian theology arguing that the Holy Spirit completes the fellowship of the triune God and therefore shapes the identities of the Father and the Son The Holy Spirit Studebaker maintains is not simply a passive end product of a procession from the Father and Son but rather a dynamic person who plays an active role in the Trinity and a constitutional consummational role in the history of redemption In the course of his study Studebaker shows the theological yield of the Pentecostal experience of the Holy Spirit and uncovers the biblical narratives of the Spirit from creation to Pentecost A constructive and ecumenical contribution to Trinitarian theology From Pentecost to the Triune God also engages major historical and contemporary figures such as Augustine the Cappadocians Weinandy and Zizioulas as well as representatives from the evangelical and charismatic traditions Finally Studebaker applies his Pentecostal Trinitarian theology to the theology of religions and creation care proposing that Christians embrace an inclusive posture toward people of other religious traditions and have an earth orientation that sees creation care as Christian formation

Cleansing the Cosmos E. Janet Warren, 2012-11-08 Understanding evil spiritual forces is essential for Christian theology yet discussion is almost always phrased in terms of spiritual warfare Warfare language is problematic being dualistic assigning a high degree of ontology to evil and poorly applicable to ministry This unique study proposes a biblically based model as the first alternative to a spiritual warfare framework for dealing with the demonic thus providing insights for preaching counseling and missiology Warren develops this model using metaphor theory and examining four biblical themes Creation Cult Christ and Church Metaphors of cleansing ordering and boundary setting are developed in contrast to battle imagery and relevant theological issues are engaged Boyd's warfare imagery Barth's ideas of evil as nothingness and Eliade's notion of the sacred and the profane The role of the Holy Spirit is emphasized and the ontology of evil minimized This model incorporates concentric circles evil being considered peripheral to divine reality and provides a refreshing alternative to current spiritual warfare models

Death as Transformation Dr Henry L Novello, 2013-06-28 A key tenet of Christian faith is that the crucifixion of Jesus Christ is a unique death by which the powers of death in the world have been conquered so that Christian life in the Spirit is marked by the promise and hope of new life already anticipated in the community of baptized believers Notwithstanding this basic tenet regarding the Christian life as a participation in the redemptive death of Jesus Christ theology in the past as well as much contemporary theology tends to assign no salvific significance to the event of our own death focusing instead on death in negative terms as the wages of sin This work is a significant retort to theological neglect both Catholic and Protestant of the positive and transformative aspect of our death when conceived as a dying into the redemptive death of Jesus Christ The development of Henry L Novello's proposed theology of death takes place in conversation with the pre eminent contemporary contributors to this field of theological inquiry By offering comprehensive critiques of Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Karl Barth Eberhard Jüngel and Jürgen

Moltmann Novello painstakingly pieces together a positive construal of death as salvific and transformative What is especially distinctive about Novello's work is that he develops the idea of death as a sharing in the admirable exchange of natures in the person of Jesus Christ from which emerges his theory of resurrection at death for all The reach of the work is extended by exploring some pastoral and liturgical implications of a theology of death conceived as the privileged moment for the actualization of God's grace in Jesus Christ and thus being created anew in the power of the Spirit
