Creating Theatre The Professionals Approach To New Plays:

Scriptwork David Kahn, Donna Breed, 1995 Directors can use this unique guidebook for new play development from the beginning to the end of the process Kahn and Breed explore ways of choosing new projects talk about where to find new scripts and explore the legal aspects of script development They present a detailed system for theatrical analysis of the new script and show how to continue exploration and development of the script within the laboratory of the theatre Most importantly they delineate the parameters of the relationship between the director and the playwright offering proven methods to help the playwright and to facilitate the healthy development of the script Kahn and Breed offer suggestions on casting incorporating rewrites and script handling plus how and when to use audience response and how to decide what step to take next They also include extended interviews with developmental directors dramaturgs and playwrights who give credence to the new script development process

The Plays of Beth Henley Gene A. Plunka, 2014-11-18 Beth Henley's twelve complete plays three of which have been turned into films have achieved worldwide production At age 29 she produced her first full length drama Crimes of the Heart which won a Pulitzer Prize and garnered three Academy Award nominations as a film Her Mississippi upbringing and her penchant for the eccentricities of southern culture however have caused critics to categorize her writing as a kind of southern gothic folklore inspired by feminist ideology This book the first critical study of Henley's complete plays attempts to dispel the common stereotypes that associate Henley's work with regional drama and sociological treatises It argues instead that Henley can best be perceived as a dramatist who delineates an existential despair manifested in various forms of what Freud calls the modern neurosis The book maintains that Henley's plays must be understood as universal statements about the angst of modern civilization and Henley's characters are assessed in light of Freud's proposition that cultural restrictions create neurotic individuals The introduction provides a brief account of Henley's childhood and career Early chapters summarize the theory of the modern angoisse espoused in Freud's Civilization and Its Discontents while later chapters relate this theory to thematic and stylistic elements of Henley's most popular play Crimes of the Heart as well as Am I Blue The Wake of Jamie Foster The Miss Firecracker Contest The Debutante Ball The Lucky Spot Abundance Signature Control Freaks Revelers L Play and Impossible Marriage

The issues discussed include gender, authority, female autonomy and unruliness, courtship and marriage, language and speech and performance and theatricality. Dictionary of the Theatre Patrice Pavis, 1998-01-01 An encyclopedic dictionary of technical and theoretical terms the book covers all aspects of a semiotic approach to the theatre with cross referenced alphabetical entries ranging from absurd to word scenery

Creating Australian Television Drama Susan Lever, 2020-11-13 Television drama has been the dominant form of popular storytelling for more than sixty years shaping the imaginations of millions of people. This book surveys the careers of the central creators of those stories for Australian television: the writers who learnt how to work in a new medium adapting to its constraints and exploring its creative possibilities. Informed by interviews with many writers, it describes the establishment of Australian television drama production, observing the way writers grasped the creative and business opportunities that television presented. It examines the development of Australian versions of the major television genres: the sitcom, the police drama, the historical series, docudrama and social drama, presenting a canon of significant Australian television drama productions that deserve to be remembered. It offers an account of the emergence of work by Indigenous writers for television and it argues for the consideration of television drama alongside histories of Australian film and stage drama. For years Susan Lever has been talking to Australia's best television writers about their work, their craft and their industry. Now it's all here in this book, a toast to a vital part of Australian culture. Geoffrey Atherden. This is a wonderful book. Meticulously researched and engagingly written, it tells in fascinating detail from the writers' points of view the story of Australian scripted television from its beginnings in the 1950s to the present. Better yet, Susan Lever has allowed the writers themselves to speak about the work, about their visions and processes, their joys and frustrations. I am delighted to see television drama, docudrama and comedy acknowledged so generously for their role in Australian culture. Sue Smith. Brilliantly researched, lucid, comprehensive, the big picture on writers for the small screen in Australia. Ian David. MasterClass in Drama

Education Michael Anderson, 2011-12-01 A comprehensive guide to drama education ensuring a solid foundation for supporting effective learning and teaching. Federal Register, 1976 King Richard II Margaret Shewring, 1998 Considers the theatrical fortunes of Richard II from its politically controversial beginnings on the Elizabethan and Restoration stage to its various later interpretations responding to 19th and 20th century tastes and attitudes. A wide range of performances is documented and discussed. These illustrate the ways in which different theatres and companies have staged the play by cutting, restructuring or adding to Shakespeare's script to highlight spectacle, the personality of the King the nature of authority and the place of Richard in the overall sweep of English history Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1987 Passing Performances Robert A. Schanke, Kimberley Bell Marra, 2023-06-20 Passing Performances gathers a range of critical and biographical essays on notable personalities whose major contributions to the stage occurred before 1969 the year of the Stonewall riots that kicked off the gay rights movement in the United States How these theater practitioners variously passed i e managed unconventional sexual inclinations both on and offstage significantly determined the course of their personal and professional lives and thus the course of U S theater history The actors directors producers and agents examined here include Edwin Forrest Charlotte Cushman and Adah Isaacs Menken whose personal lives and careers traded on the same sex erotics of true love in the antebellum period Elisabeth Marbury Elsie de Wolfe Elsie Janis Nance O Neil and Alla Nazimova whose intimate female liaisons were variously interpreted around the turn of the century the lavender marriages of Alfred Lunt to Lynne Fontanne and Guthrie McClintic to Katharine Cornell the lesbian collaborations of Margaret Webster and Cheryl Crawford the comic antics of Monty Woolley which negotiated codified constructions of homosexual perversion in the post Freudian interwar years and the on and offstage performances of Mary Martin and Joe Cino which resisted the paranoid enforcements of heterosexual normality in the McCarthy era Central to these investigations are the complex connections of performances of sexuality and gender and their different implications for men and women practitioners working under pervasive sexism and homophobia The volume also includes striking archival photographs of the performers and their performances and an index to facilitate the cross referencing of subjects intersecting careers Passing Performances will engage both general and academic readers interested in theater gay and lesbian history American studies and biography Robert A Schanke is Professor of Theatre and Chair of the Division of Fine Arts Central College Iowa Kim Marra is Associate Professor of Theatre Arts University of Iowa
