Role of the Holy Spirit in Protestant Systematic Theology Wilson Varkey, 2011-08 This volume is a meticulously researched text on pneumatology that puts the major pneumatological issues together without confining to the traditional way of dealing with the doctrine of the Holy Spirit Although pneumatology has been a neglected field in theological discussions of the past there is a renewal of interest among theologians on pneumatology today This renewal of interest has led to the formation of this work on the role of the Holy Spirit in the Protestant Systematic Theology Through highlighting the role and significance of the Holy Spirit in the whole divine action this volume contends that pneumatology is not a dull theological locus but rather an essential theological disposition relevant for today The detailed arguments found within challenge and inspire the contemporary pneumatological discussions as it relates to all the facets of theological reflection and action Living with Risk and Danger Mikkel Gabriel Christoffersen, 2019-06-17 The contemporary world is marked by a sense of vulnerability not seen since the end of the Cold War Climate change migration and political instability make people feel the inherent vulnerability of human life Concepts of risk and danger are as relevant now as ever before for illuminating contemporary life Yet what changes in human lives if one interprets existence with risk and danger from the perspective of Christian faith Does the Christian symbol system offer orientation for human lives in a time of crisis Exploring the work of leading contemporary thinkers Danish theologian Mikkel Gabriel Christoffersen develops a rich and varied account of Christian doctrine that enables human beings to live with risk and danger in all vulnerability with gratitude courage and care for others Christoffersen develops an interdisciplinary approach that allows him to draw upon sociological and anthropological reflections on life lived whilst facing risks and dangers He brings these findings into conversation with Scandinavian Anglo American and German theologians of risk The result of his endeavor is a Trinitarian theology of risk that explores the extent to which one can consider the cross of Christ a risk of the incarnation rather than its very purpose Focusing on vital existential questions makes Christoffersen's considerations vibrant and relevant to scholars and lay people with an open minded intellectual interest in contemporary Christian theology All Things New Brock Bingaman, 2014-09-11 For both Maximus the Confessor c 580 662 and Jurgen Moltmann b 1926 understanding what it means to be human springs from a contemplative vision of God This comparative study explores surprising parallels between the theological anthropology of the seventh century Byzantine monk and the contemporary German Protestant Bingaman argues that Maximus and Moltmann root their understanding of the human calling in their Trinitarian and christological reflection in contrast to many modern theologies that tend to devise an account of human being first and then try to find ways in which Christ and the Trinity are somehow relevant to this human being In this constructive work Bingaman demonstrates the intrinsic connection between Maximus and Moltmann's views of human being Christ and the Trinity the church and the human calling in creation Illustrating the richness of these ancient and postmodern theologies in conversation All Things New lays out future trajectories in theological anthropology patristic ressourcement ecologically attuned theology and spirituality and Orthodox Protestant dialogue Autonomy and Food Biotechnology in Theological Ethics Cathriona Russell, 2009 What does autonomy mean from a Christian perspective What could a Christian environmental ethics bring to the debate about genetically modified food This book investigates conflicting claims in the public realm about food biotechnology It critically evaluates the contribution such technologies make to sustainable agricultural production and environmental stewardship Challenging the received wisdom in popular environmental theology the book defends the role of the human person as steward of creation and presents a human centred Christian environmental ethics rooted in the Kantian tradition of moral philosophy From this vantage point the author critiques the partiality of many contemporary environmental theologies which argue for a return to the technological simplicity of an idealised past or emphasise virtue while taking little account of the role that institutional issues play in framing and defining policy and good practice In this context the author examines whether or not under current conditions transgenic food can contribute to sustainable agricultural production

The Crisis of Colonial Anglicanism Martyn Percy, 2025-01-16 This book offers a fresh bold and unsettling truth the British Empire and Great Britain are primarily English constructions and the Church of England has presumed to act for and benefit from English enterprise and exploitation serving as the spiritual arm of the imperial project English Anglicanism has developed itself as the lead character within its own serious fiction the main religious player in a drama of Church and Empire Yet in collusion with colonialism it is now a prisoner of its own historical amnesia Martyn Percy examines the English interests concealed in appeals to Britishness and shows how slavery exploitation classism and racism played their part in the elitist and hierarchical worldviews propagated by the English to bolster both Empire and Church Yet by regarding the rest of the world as lesser both institutions have slowly degenerated in global standing Now Britain and the Church of England are no more than minor national players on the world stage Religious social and political imperialism are founded on the deprecation of others Yet those peoples who were once looked down upon have fought for equality and independence Today the worldwide Anglican Communion faces a new era of moral reckoning

The Spirit of Liberation Tae Wha Yoo, 2019-12-30 With this study on Moltmann's pneumatology the author recently obtained the doctor's degree from the Faculty of Theology of the Free University in Amsterdam First of all the book provides us with a thorough evaluation of the role the Holy Spirit plays in the theology of Jürgen Moltmann in its subsequent phases The author's conclusion is that despite all differences there is one constant factor the Spirit is always connected with freedom The Holy Spirit according to Moltmann is a liberating power Because the author is eager to place Moltmann's pneumatology repeatedly in the context of his theology as a whole and of its developments this book offers and that is a second quality an outstanding insight in the whole of Moltmann's theology and its development throughout the years

Systematic Theology Wolfhart Pannenberg, 2004-01-01 God and the Future Christiaan Mostert, 2002-10-15 An introduction to the theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg Pannenberg's extensive works especially his recently published Systematic Theology are increasingly regarded as of major importance Professor Mostert here provides not only a general introduction to Pannenberg's theology and many keys to enable the serious reader of theology to access Pannenberg's individual works but also sets Pannenberg's complex thought in the broadest context of contemporary philosophical and theological thought Evidences for God and His Creations: Nature, the Flood, and the Bible Dr. T. J. Tofflemire, 2011-07-21 This book provides summary apologetics from about 200 references It is unique in that many authors with differing viewpoints are put together in brief key point summaries Some of the books covered are 1100 pages long The original authors' views are briefly integrated and compared The different views of creation are also discussed and compared and given an open minded weighing Are you concerned about the fact that 70% of our youth no longer attend church and do not have a biblical world view The naturalistic or humanistic world view they adopt from schooling favors the following 1 Man evolved from primates and is a biological machine with no purpose 2 There is no source of true morals and thus morals are relative and determined by whatever a given group decides or whatever is most popular 3 Since man is only an animal there is no basis for individual human rights only rights for the masses There are some good arguments provided in the book to counter all of this and provide a biblical world view These arguments are brief and easy to share in witnessing situations

The Ministry of the Missional Church Craig Van Gelder, 2007-08-01 In a time when churches are focusing on finding strategies and techniques to guarantee success a movement toward the missional church is emerging Missional churches are communities created by the Spirit with a unique nature and identity Purpose and strategies of the church are derivative dimensions the activities that flow naturally from the church that is focused on Spirit led ministry The Ministry of the Missional Church leads pastors ministry leaders and laypersons through three simple arguments the church is the church does what it is the church organizes what it does in order to make sense of how missional churches work And by focusing the work of the church as the work of the Triune God this unique book will change the way readers think about the church and the world

Richard Dawkins Gary Keogh, 2014 Theological reactions to the rise of the new atheist movement have largely been critically hostile or defensively deployed apologetics to shore up the faith against attack Gary Keogh contends that focusing on scholarly material that is inherently agreeable to theology will not suffice in the context of modern academia Theology needs to test its boundaries and venture into dialogue with those with antithetical positions Engaging Richard Dawkins as the embodiment of such a position illustrates how such dialogue may offer new perspectives on classical theological problems such as the relationship of science and religion the existence of God creation natural suffering and theodicy Keogh demonstrates how a dialogical paradigm may take shape rather than merely discussing it as a theoretical framework A dialogue between such opposing hermeneutics may provide a new paradigm of theological scholarship one which is up to the task of facing its critics in the public and pluralistic context of modern academia
