how we interact with our older loved ones Now used around the world this proven method has brought light and joy to the lives of elders and those who care for them Here for the first time everyone can learn these methods Early in her career Basting noticed a problem today s elderly especially those experiencing dementia and Alzheimer s are often isolated in nursing homes or segregated in elder care settings making the final years of life feel lonely and devoid of meaning To alleviate their sense of aloneness Basting developed a radical approach that combines methods from the world of theater and improvisation with evidence based therapies that connect people using their own creativity and imagination Rooted in twenty five years of research these new techniques draw on core creative exercises such as Yes and and Beautiful Questions This approach fosters storytelling and active listening allowing elders to freely share ideas and stories without worrying about getting the details correct Basting s research has shown that these practices stimulate the brain and awaken the imagination to add wonder and awe to patients daily lives and provide them a means of connection both with the world and with those caring for them Creative Care promises to bring light and hope to a community that needs it most Creative Forecasting,2002 A Creative Toolkit for Communication in Dementia Care Karrie Marshall,2015-12-21 Overflowing with creative activities this accessible toolkit is an invaluable resource for carers and relatives who hope to support and communicate effectively with people with dementia Portraits parlour games puppets and more can be used to build relationships with people who may no longer be able to rely upon words and memories Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 The Dramaturgy of Performing Science Jules Odendahl-James,2024-09-02 This is a concise survey of new play projects that bring together the worlds of science and performance and the benefits that dramaturgical praxis can bring to both disciplines Three approaches common to both performance and science collaboration experimentation and interpretation are reflected in a series of case studies that demonstrate the ways in which dramaturgical tools can inform the wider public about scientific knowledge and practice provide a truly reciprocal model of co operation in collaboration that happens early on in the research process and inspire the creation of new dramatic forms that enact rather than translate the dynamics of scientific research Part of the Routledge Focus on Dramaturgy series this is a vital account of collaborative work for scholars and practitioners of theatre and performance as well as readers across the sciences Creativity and Communication in Persons with Dementia Claire Craig,Mr John Killick,2011-09-15 This book describes how to develop a creative approach to the day to day care of people with dementia and provides rich and varied ideas for creative activities for use with individuals or groups The authors explain what creativity has to offer people with dementia and how a creative approach can help to address the difficulties they face Learning To Speak Alzheimers Joanne Koenig Coste,2012-03-31 Few conditions upon first diagnosis strike such terror into victims and relatives as Alzheimer s disease The dementia that is its best known symptom can provoke feelings of helplessness and despair coupled with fear that the patient will inevitably suffer loss of dignity and self respect There is hope however and Joanne Koenig Coste is well qualified to say so For over thirty years she has advocated and practised a communication based form of care Now she has distilled her experience into this encouraging and supportive book showing how by following a few straightforward and simple ideas the quality of life of sufferers can be dramatically improved and their dignity and self respect renewed Habilitation capitalizes on the remaining emotions and skills of the patient and offers chances to feel successful by reaching past the recognized losses ignoring the failures and rejoicing in whatever still defines the essential humanity of the sufferer Perhaps as importantly it also suggests ways that the carers can care for themselves too Learning to Speak Alzheimer s is a practical guide to coping with a cruel disease It offers a wealth of information understanding and advice but above all it offers a message of hope based on respect common sense and quiet dignity

The Loss of Small White Clouds Morgan Batch,2023-08-09 This volume seeks to instigate a discussion about dementia in theatre The discussions in this book borrow from the literature on dementia s representation in other artforms while reflecting on theatre s unique capacity to incorporate multiple artforms in a live context hypermediacy The author examines constructions of diegesis and the use of various performance tools including physical theatre puppetry and postdramatic performance She discusses stage representations of interior experiences of dementia selfhood in dementia the demarcation of those with dementia from those without endings erasure and the pursuit of catharsis placelessness and disruptions of traditional dramatic constructions of time and ultimately performances creatively led by people with dementia The book traces patterns of narrativisation on the stage including common dramaturgical forms settings and character relationships as well as examples that transcend mainstream representation This book is important reading for theatre and performance students scholars and practitioners as well as cultural studies writers engaged in research about narratives of dementia A Critical History of Dementia Studies James Rupert Fletcher,Andrea Capstick,2023-09-26 This book offers the first ever critical history of dementia studies Focusing on the emergence of dementia studies as a discrete area of academic interest in the late 20th and early 21st centuries it draws on critical theory to interrogate the very notion of dementia studies as an entity shedding light on the affinities and contradictions that characterise the field Drawing together a collection of internationally renowned experts in a variety of fields including people with dementia this volume includes perspectives from education the arts human rights and much more This critical history sets out the shared intellectual space of dementia studies from which non medical dementia research can progress The book is intended for researchers academics and students of dementia studies social gerontology disability chronic illness health and social care It will also appeal to activists and practitioners engaged in social work and caregiving involved in dementia research Dementia Lab 2021: Supporting Ability Through Design Rens Brankaert,Caylee Raber,Maarten Houben,Paulina Malcolm,Jon Hannan,2021-05-28 This book gathers revised and selected contributions to the 5th Dementia Lab Conference D Lab 2021 organized online on January 18 28 2021 from the Emily Carr University of Art Design Vancouver Canada It describes original strategies in which design or creative methods have been shown to uncover support and enhance the abilities of people living with dementia Papers report on new ideas and findings relating to three main themes engagement empowerment and identity They cover ethics of inclusion and solutions for shifting the culture of care to be focused on both personal independence and reconnecting with the community new ways of designing with people living with dementia strategies for breaking negative stereotypes and preconceived opinions and approaches to retaining personhood and dignity Offering a timely source of information on new design and creative methods to a broad community of industrial communication interactive and inclusive designers this book is also meant to address and inspire various stakeholders and organizations in dementia care Home Care Nursing Practice Robyn Rice,2006-01-01 This text covers conceptual information leadership skills and current issues and trends It provides clear and concise information about the best practices and quality improvement for the most common clinical conditions seen in home care Cover Creative Approaches in Dementia Care Hilary Lee,Trevor Adams,2017-09-16 A practical introduction to the use of the arts in dementia care Based on experience the book provides clear guidance on how to employ a variety of innovative techniques including art music and dance therapies to promote the physical psychological emotional social and spiritual well being of people with dementia The Routledge Companion to Ethics and Research in Ethnomusicology Jonathan P. J. Stock,Beverley Diamond,2022-11-30 The Routledge Companion to Ethics and Research in Ethnomusicology is an in depth survey of the moral challenges and imperatives of conducting research on people making music It focuses on fundamental and compelling ethical questions that have challenged and shaped both the history of this discipline and its current practices In 26 representative cases from across a broad spectrum of geographical societal and musical environments authors collectively reflect on the impacts of ethnomusicological research exploring the ways our work may instantiate privilege or risk bringing harm as well as the means that are available to provide recognition benefit and reciprocity to the musicians and others who contribute to our studies In a world where differing ethical values are often in conflict and where music itself is meanwhile a powerful tool in projecting moral claims we aim to uncover the conditions and consequences of the ethical choices we face as ethnomusicologists thereby contributing to building a more engaged restructured discipline and a more globally responsible music studies The volume comprises four parts 1 sound practices and philosophies of ethics 2 fieldwork encounters 3 environment trauma collaboration and 4 research in public domains Doing Relationship-Centred Dementia Care David I. J. Reid, 2021-02-18 Relationship centred approaches to dementia care are imperative for enhancing wellbeing Theory case examples and tips for practice ensure that dementia care services can establish and draw on positive relationships between people with dementia families staff care homes communities and the wider health and social care system Creative Care Anne Davis Basting, 2020 MacArthur Genius recipient Anne Basting lays out her pioneering discoveries in applying creativity to treating and interacting with those suffering from dementia bringing to this otherwise dark world both light and joy
