Against the Corporate Media Michael Walsh, 2024-09-10 The citizens of Western democracies have been relentlessly propagandized lied to and fed a steady diet of distortions and untruths by their media for decades Editor Michael Walsh brings together a stellar collection of critical thinkers and writers to explain how and why this is happening its negative effects on our democracies and what we can do to reverse it An informed electorate is a prerequisite for free and fair elections But rather than striving for accuracy and objectivity today s journalists openly celebrate the death of objectivity arguing that they have a higher duty to reject the conservatism police speech and suppress news that contradicts the liberal narrative Now on the heels of his magisterial volume Against the Great Reset editor Michael Walsh presents Against the Corporate Media a collection of more than forty essays on the decline and fall of the American and international news media The book s list of distinguished contributors includes Lance Morrow Andrew Klavan John O Sullivan Elizabeth Nickson Monica Crowley Charlie Kirk Glenn Reynolds Steven F Hayward John Fund Armond White Michael Ramirez Walsh and others Readers around the world deserve to know how badly their media has been corrupted how eagerly they have embraced the role of official propagandists and what a threat to democracy they have become This book marks an important strike against the corporate media and its unholy alliance with the enemies of freedom everywhere

Writing for Visual Media Anthony Friedmann, 2012-11-12 Writing for Visual Media looks at the fundamental problems a writer faces in learning to create content for media that is to be seen rather than read It takes you from basic concepts to practice through a seven step method that helps you identify a communications problem think it through and find a resolution before beginning to write Through successive exercises Writing for Visual Media helps you acquire the basic skills and confidence you need to write effective films corporate and training videos documentaries web sites PSAs TV shows nonlinear media and other types of visual narratives You ll explore your visual imagination and try out your powers of invention The companion web site enriches the content of the printed book with video audio and sample scripts It includes scripts and the video produced from them visual demonstrations of concepts and an interactive illustrated glossary of terms and concepts Please visit www.focalpress.com/cw/friedmann/9780240812359 click on the Interactive Content tab and follow the registration instructions

Journalism as Practice Sandra Borden, 2013-10-28 Technological innovation and conglomeration in communication industries has been accelerating the commodification of the news into just another product The emphasis on the bottom line has resulted in newsroom budget cuts and other business strategies that seriously endanger good journalism Meanwhile the growing influence of the Internet and partisan commentary has led even journalists themselves to question their role In Journalism as Practice Sandra L Borden shows that applying philosopher Alasdair MacIntyre s ideas of a practice to journalism can help us to understand what is at stake for society and for those in the newsrooms who have made journalism their vocation She argues that developing and promoting the kind of robust group identity implied by the idea of a practice can help journalism better withstand the moral challenges posed by commodification Throughout the book examines key U S journalism ethics cases since 2000 Some of these cases such as Dan Rather s Memogate scandal are explored in detail in Practically Speaking sections that discuss relevant cases at length This book is essential reading for students and practicing journalists interested in preserving the ethical role of journalism in promoting the public good
