The Potter's Studio Handbook Kristin Müller,2007 Teaching STEAM Through Hands-On Crafts Christine G. Schnittka,Amanda Haynes,2024-10-01 Help your students connect historic technologies with today s STEAM concepts through the lens of crafting This book written by a science education professor and a middle school STEM teacher provides guidance for turning classic crafts into transdisciplinary STEAM lessons for grades 3 8 Ready to use lessons outline the history science mathematics and engineering embedded within ten hands on crafts from around the world Each chapter outlines the history of a craft its social impact and the mathematics engineering and scientific concepts and skills embedded in the craft Content standards from art history English language arts technology mathematics and science are embedded within each unit Lessons are supplemented with ready to photocopy handouts guiding questions and logistical support such as shopping lists and safety procedures Activities have all been classroom tested to ensure appropriate leveling and applicability across STEAM disciplines Ideal for any STEM or STEAM classroom across upper elementary and middle schools this book helps make STEM concepts meaningful and tangible for your students Rather than just reading about science technology mathematics or engineering students will become makers and engage in STEAM directly just as original crafters have done for centuries Additional instructional materials are available at <https://steamcrafts.weebly.com> Choosing Craft Vicki Halper,Diane Douglas,2009-05-15 Choosing Craft explores the history and practice of American craft through the words of influential artists whose lives work and ideas have shaped the field Editors Vicki Halper and Diane Douglas construct an anecdotal narrative that examines the post World War II development of modern craft which came of age alongside modernist painting and sculpture and was greatly influenced by them as well as by traditional and industrial practices The anthology is organized according to four activities that ground a professional life in craft inspiration training economics and philosophy Halper and Douglas mined a wide variety of sources for their material including artists published writings letters journal entries exhibition statements lecture notes and oral histories The detailed record they amassed reveals craft s

dynamic relationships with painting sculpture design industry folk and ethnic traditions hobby craft and political and social movements Collectively these reflections form a social history of craft Choosing Craft ultimately offers artists writings and recollections as vital and vivid data that deserve widespread study as a primary resource for those interested in the American art form

A Theory of Craft Howard Risatti, 2009-09-15 What is craft How is it different from fine art or design In A Theory of Craft Howard Risatti examines these issues by comparing handmade ceramics glass metalwork weaving and furniture to painting sculpture photography and machine made design from Bauhaus to the Memphis Group He describes craft as uniquely blending function with a deeper expression of human values that transcend culture time and space Craft must articulate a role for itself in contemporary society says Risatti otherwise it will be absorbed by fine art or design and its singular approach to understanding the world will be lost
