Crazy Dervish And The Pomegranate Tree:

Against Gravity Farnoosh Moshiri, 2005-12-27 More information to be announced soon on this forthcoming title from Penguin USA

Tremors Anita Amirrezvani, Persis Karim, 2013-02-01 This anthology brings together twenty seven authors from a wide range of experiences that offer new perspectives on the Iranian American story Altogether the narratives capture the diversity of the Iranian diaspora and complicate the often narrow view of Iranian culture represented in the media The stories and novel excerpts explore the deeply human experiences of one of the newest immigrant groups to the United States in its attempts to adjust and assimilate in the face of major historical upheavals

The Crazy Dervish and the Pomegranate Tree Farnoosh Moshiri, 2004 Stories that combines social and political insight with the mythology of the authors native Iran The stories are set both in Iran and the United States Several of the stories are concerned with the poverty and loss of status and identity that immigrants often endure Unlike most immigrant stories these stories deal equally with the violence and political repression visited upon those who would emigrate during the fundamentalist revolution in Iran publisher web site

Let Me Tell You Where I've Been Persis M. Karim, 2006-05 Until recently Iranian literature has overwhelmingly been the domain of men But in the twenty seven years since the Iranian revolution women both in Iran and in the diaspora have written and published in unprecedented numbers The new hybrid cultures of Iranian diaspora writers has given way to a uniquely feminine literary voice the Iranian diaspora is an extensive collection of poetry fiction and nonfiction that explores through literature the influences of history revolution war exile and immigration The work in this collection uncovers an emerging multicultural generation of female sensibility and eloquence Unlike the tired familiar images of Iran in the media these women write about the complicated spaces between cultures and capture a unique and still emerging literature They challenge both the patriarchal literary tradition of Iran and the singular portrayals in the West of Iranian women as veiled silent and lacking in agency published before from over fifty contributors including such well known writers as Susan Atefat Peckham Tara Bahrapour Firoozeh Dumas Azadeh Moaveni and Farnoosh Moshiri the collection represents a substantial cross section of this unique multicultural community Organized around six general themes including home and away family and tradition gender politics love and silence Let Me Tell You Where I've Been creates a rich conversation about Iran Iranian culture the Persian and English languages and the dual identities of its authors In a time when Iran is cited daily in the news and political rhetoric is at an all time high this collection offers a complex and humanizing literary representation These writers bring their individual and collective vision and offer a powerful new voice to the international literary scene
