Creating Community Anywhere:

Creating community anywhere Carolyn Shaffer, Kristin Anundsen, 1993-09-01 Describes the community movement discusses new ways of living together and offers practical advice on improving one's own community Creating Community Anywhere Carolyn Shaffer, 2005-06 This text provides groups with guidelines for creating effective communication conducting productive meetings making joint decisions and working through conflicts as well as the practical skills needed to set up activities such as celebrations and retreats Creating Community Anywhere Carolyn Shaffer, Kristin Anundsen, 1993 Describes the community movement discusses new ways of living together and offers practical advice on improving one's own community On Creating a Community William Polowniak, 1994 Humiliated That's how Anastasia Krupnik feels whenever she tries to climb the ropes in gym class How come everyone else can climb up those hateful ropes Since Anastasia has decided to become a journalist it should be easy to answer most questions Then why can't she understand about Daphne Bellingham's parents' divorce And why can't she please Ms Willoughby in gym class Finally Anastasia thinks she has the answers When a team of foreign educators comes to visit her school she plans a big surprise that will amaze her classmates Ms Willoughby and the visitors What will she do when her big moment arrives Building Online Learning Communities Rena M. Palloff, Keith Pratt, 2009-12-30 Building Online Learning Communities further explores the development of virtual classroom environments that foster a sense of community and empower students to take charge of their learning to successfully achieve learning outcomes This is the second edition of the groundbreaking book by Rena Palloff and Keith Pratt and has been completely updated and expanded to include the most current information on effective online course development and delivery A practical hands-on guide this resource is filled with illustrative case studies vignettes and examples from a wide variety of successful online courses The authors offer proven strategies for handling challenges that include Engaging students in the formation of an online learning community Establishing a sense of presence online Maximizing participation Developing effective courses that include collaboration and reflection Assessing student performance Written for faculty in any distance learning environment this revised edition is based on the authors' many years of work in faculty development for online teaching as well as their extensive personal experience as faculty in online distance education Rena M Palloff and Keith Pratt share insights designed to guide readers through the steps of online course design and delivery Making a Living While Making a Difference Melissa Everett, 2007-11-01 Making a Living While Making a Difference is a timely and highly informative guide to a working life built on principled choices and an entrepreneurial attitude It's about greener enterprises and technologies socially responsible business innovative nonprofit work and reinventing government It's really about putting the pieces together with creativity and hope Working people everywhere are realizing that personal success is interconnected with healthy communities and the environment We are all looking for our unique creative edge with work that allows us to make an impact close to home and in the world The substantially revised third edition of Making a Living While Making a Difference acknowledges that while the path to finding a life's work that is satisfying, sustainable, and financially feasible is not easy, there are simple steps to follow. An empowering ten-step program includes: Paying attention to what you most care about; Stabilizing your life with regard to time, money, and relationships; Assessing your core aptitudes and attitudes; Cultivating the entrepreneurial skills to create the workplace you want, whether or not you are in business for yourself. With dozens of rich personal stories and a thorough look at the options, this is the comprehensive life and work guide for people who care about their communities and the planet. Melissa Everett is a career counselor, group facilitator, and educator in the field of sustainable development and is the executive director of Sustainable Hudson Valley.

The Alchemy of Illness Kat Duff, 1993. Illness is a universal experience. There is no privilege that can make us immune to its touch. We are taught to assume health, illnesses being just temporary breakdowns in the well-oiled machinery of the body. But illness has its own geography, its own laws and commandments. At a time when the attention of the whole nation is focused on health care, Kat Duff inquires into the nature and function of illness itself. Duff, a counselor in private practice in Taos, New Mexico, wrote this book out of her experience with chronic fatigue syndrome, but what she has to say is applicable to every illness and every one of us. For those who are sick, this book offers solace and recognition. For those who care for them, either physically or emotionally, it offers inspiration and compassion. Finally, this fresh perspective on healing reveals how every illness is a crucible that tries our mettle, tests our limits, and provides us with an unparalleled opportunity to integrate its lessons into our lives.

Community Organizing and Community Building for Health Meredith Minkler, 1997. An important contribution to expanding the community organizing knowledge and skills base of students and practitioners in public health, health education, social work, and related disciplines. Dr. Nicholas Freudenberg, Professor of Community Health Education, Hunter College, CUNY.

Creating Sanctuary Sandra L. Bloom, 1997. In Creating Sanctuary, Dr. Sandra Bloom argues that our society is sick; we are emotionally numb, addicted to violence, alienated from ourselves and each other, and trapped in a vicious cycle of destructive behavior. By applying the successes from her treatment programs with severely traumatized individuals to larger group and social organizations, Dr. Bloom offers insights into how we can create safe environments that promote well-being.
