Creating The Couple Love Marriage And Hollywood Performance:

Creating the Couple Virginia Wright Wexman,1993-06-21 This examination of the changing relationships between men and women in modern culture argues that Hollywood film has often been a powerful mirror of American romance and sexuality The author notes also how changing acting styles have led to new types of relationships being depicted on screen

Screen Couple Chemistry Martha P. Nochimson,2010-07-05 Astaire and Rogers Tracy and Hepburn Just the mention of their names evokes the powerful chemistry between these screen couples which utterly transcended the often formulaic films in which they appeared together Indeed watching the synergistic flow of energy between charismatic screen partners is one of the great pleasures of cinema and television as well as an important vehicle for thinking through issues of intimacy and gender relations In this book Martha P Nochimson engages in a groundbreaking study of screen couple chemistry She begins by classifying various types of couples to define what sets the synergistic couple apart from other onscreen pairings Then she moves into extended discussions of four enduring screen couples Maureen O Sullivan Johnny Weissmuller Myrna Loy William Powell Fred Astaire Ginger Rogers and Katharine Hepburn Spencer Tracy Using theories of neuroscience she demonstrates that their onscreen chemistry is a very real phenomenon powerful enough to subvert conventional formulations of male female relations Material she has uncovered in the infamous Production Code Administration files illuminates the historical context of her contentions Finally Nochimson traces the screen couple to its present day incarnation in such pairs as Woody Allen Diane Keaton Scully Mulder of The X Files and Cliff Claire Huxtable of The Cosby Show

Glamour in a Golden Age Adrienne L. McLean,2011 Shirley Temple Clark Gable Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers Bette Davis Joan Crawford and Norma Shearer Marlene Dietrich and Greta Garbo William Powell and Myrna Loy Jean Harlow and Gary Cooper Glamour in a Golden Age presents original essays from eminent film scholars that analyze movie stars of the 1930s against the background of contemporary American cultural history Stardom is approached as an effect of and influence on the particular historical and industrial contexts that enabled these actors and actresses to be discovered featured in films publicized and to become recognized and admired sometimes even notorious parts of the cultural landscape Using archival and popular material including fan and mass market magazines other promotional and publicity material and of course films themselves contributors also discuss other artists who were incredibly popular at the time among them Ann Harding Ruth Chatterton Nancy Carroll Kay Francis and Constance Bennett

Playing to the Camera Bert Cardullo,1998-01-01 Offers articles and interviews with movie actors from the silents to the present that discuss the art of film acting including the difference between stage and screen and British Soviet and Western European as well as American techniques

Authorizing Shakespeare on Film and Television L. Monique Pittman,2011 Authorizing Shakespeare on Film and Television examines recent film and television transformations of William Shakespeare s drama by focusing on the ways in which modern directors acknowledge and respond to the perceived authority of Shakespeare as author text cultural icon theatrical tradition and academic institution This study explores two central questions First what efforts do directors make to justify their adaptations and assert an interpretive authority of their own Second how do those self authorizing gestures impact upon the construction of gender class and ethnic identity within the filmed adaptations of Shakespeare s plays The chosen films and television series considered take a wide range of approaches to the adaptative process some faithfully preserve the words of Shakespeare others jettison the Early Modern language in favor of contemporary idiom some recreate the geographic and historical specificity of the original plays and others transplant the plot to fresh settings The wealth of extra textual material now available with film and television distribution and the numerous website tie ins and interviews offer the critic a mine of material for accessing the ways in which directors perceive the looming Shakespearean shadow and justify their projects Authorizing Shakespeare on Film and Television places these directorial claims alongside the film and television plotting and aesthetic to investigate how such authorizing gestures shape the presentation of gender class and ethnicity

Production Culture John Thornton Caldwell,2008-03-25 In Production Culture John Thornton Caldwell investigates the cultural practices and belief systems of Los Angeles based film and video production workers not only those in prestigious positions such as producers and directors but also many below the line laborers including gaffers editors and camera operators Caldwell analyzes the narratives and rituals through which workers make sense of their labor and critique the film and TV industry as well as the culture writ large As a self reflexive industry Hollywood constantly exposes itself and its production processes to the public workers ideas about the industry are embedded in their daily practices and the media they create Caldwell suggests ways that scholars might learn from the industry s habitual self scrutiny Drawing on interviews observations of sets and workplaces and analyses of TV shows industry documents economic data and promotional materials Caldwell shows how film and video workers function in a transformed post network industry He chronicles how workers have responded to changes including media convergence labor outsourcing increasingly unstable labor and business relations new production technologies corporate conglomeration and the proliferation of user generated content He explores new struggles over authorship within collective creative endeavors the way that branding and syndication have become central business strategies for networks and the viral use of industrial self reflexivity to motivate consumers through DVD bonus tracks behind the scenes documentaries and making ofs A significant on the ground analysis of an industry in flux Production Culture offers new ways of thinking about media production as a cultural activity

Return of the Western Sue Matheson,2025 Transmitting the crisis that Frederick Jackson Turner and Theodore Roosevelt feared when the frontier closed the Western has returned to reveal a cultural watershed at work in twenty first century America revitalized with horror terror and the peccant Darkened and dystopic contemporary Westerns point to a national bankruptcy upending the notion that regenerative civilizing impulses direct nation building Exploring films like Open Range 2003 Yah i Bat 2010 The Keeping Room 2015 Little Woods 2018 and First Cow 2019 as well as television series like Justified 2010 1015 Longmire

2012 2017 Westworld 2016 2022 and Yellowstone 2020 this thought provoking collection examines re constituted masculinities feminine re fashioning and new directions in Western filmmaking Covering a wide range of aesthetic and thematic concerns Return of the Western Refracting Genre Representing Gender in the Twenty First Century reminds us how deeply this versatile genre is grounded in the American psyche Damsels and Divas Agata Frymus, 2020-04-17 2020 Best Early Career Research Monograph Monash University Malaysia Damsels and Divas investigates the meanings of Europeanness in Hollywood during the 1920s by charting professional trajectories of three movie stars Pola Negri Vilma B nky and Jetta Goudal It combines the investigation of American fan magazines with the analysis of studio documents and the examination of the narratives of their films to develop a thorough understanding of the ways in which Negri B nky and Goudal were understood within the realm of their contemporary American culture This discussion places their star personae in the context of whiteness femininity and Americanization Every age has its heroines and they reveal a lot about prevailing attitudes towards women in their respective eras In the United States where the stories of rags to riches were especially potent stars could offer models of successful cultural integration Refiguring American Film Genres Nick Browne, 1998-04-22 This collection of essays by leading American film scholars charts a whole new territory in genre film criticism Rather than assuming that genres are self evident categories the contributors offer innovative ways to think about types of films and patterns within films in a historical context Challenging familiar attitudes the essays offer new conceptual frameworks and a fresh look at how popular culture functions in American society The range of essays is exceptional from David J Russell s insights into the horror genre to Carol J Clover s provocative take on trial films to Leo Braudy s argument for the subject of nature as a genre Also included are essays on melodrama race film noir and the industrial context of genre production The contributors confront the poststructuralist critique of genre head on together they are certain to shape future debates concerning the viability and vitality of genre in studying American cinema The Action and Adventure Cinema Yvonne Tasker, 2004-08-19 Addressing areas such as genre film history and style action and spectacle stars and bodies action auteurs and the film industry the reader covers both Hollywood and also European and Asian action cinema Beautiful TV Greg M. Smith, 2009-03-06 During its five year run from 1997 to 2002 the popular TV show Ally McBeal engaged viewers in debates over what it means to be a woman or a man in the modern workplace how romance factors into the therapeutic understanding of relationships what value eccentricity has and how much oddity society should tolerate and what utility fantasy has in the pragmatic world In addition to these social concerns however Ally McBeal stood out for being well constructed narratively complex and stylistically rich in short beautiful TV Starting from the premise that much of television today is drop dead gorgeous and that TV should be studied for its formal qualities as well as its social impact Greg M Smith analyzes Ally McBeal in terms of its aesthetic principles and narrative construction He explores how Ally s innovative use of music special effects fantasy sequences voiceovers and flashbacks structures a distinctive fictional universe while it also opens up new possibilities for televisual expression Smith also discusses the complex narrative strategies that Ally's creator David E Kelley used to develop a long running storyline and shows how these serial narrative practices can help us understand a wide range of prime time TV serials By taking seriously the art and argument of Ally McBeal Beautiful TV conclusively demonstrates that aesthetic and narrative analysis is an indispensable key for unlocking the richness of contemporary television

Teaching Film Lucy Fischer, Patrice Petro, 2012-07-27 Film studies has been a part of higher education curricula in the United States almost since the development of the medium Although the study of film is dispersed across a range of academic departments programs and scholarly organizations film studies has come to be recognized as a field in its own right In an era when teaching and scholarship are increasingly interdisciplinary film studies continues to expand and thrive attracting new scholars and fresh ideas direction and research Given the dynamism of the field experienced and beginning instructors alike need resources for bringing the study of film into the classroom This volume will help instructors conceptualize contemporary film studies in pedagogical terms The first part of the volume features essays on theory and on representation including gender race and sexuality Contributors then examine the geographies of cinema and offer practical suggestions for structuring courses on national regional and transnational film Several essays focus on interdisciplinary approaches while others describe courses designed around genre film noir the musical mode animation documentary avant garde film or the formal elements of film such as sound music and mise en scene The volume closes with a section on film and media in the digital age in which contributors discuss the opportunities and challenges presented by access to resources media convergence and technological developments in the field

The Scorsese Connection Lesley Stern, 1995 This account of Martin Scorsese's films explores 2 main avenues the way Scorsese remakes other movies Raging Bull replays The Red Shoes and Taxi Driver as a resurgence of The Searchers and the way viewers absorb and relate to films

Dietrich Icon Gerd Gemünden, Mary R. Desjardins, 2007-04-12 Collection of essays on film icon Marlene Dietrich

The Road Movie Book Steven Cohan, Ina Rae Hark, 2002-01-04 The Road Movie Book is the first comprehensive study of an enduring but ever changing Hollywood genre its place in American culture and its legacy to world cinema The road and the cinema both flourished in the twentieth century as technological advances brought motion pictures to a mass audience and the mass produced automobile opened up the road to the ordinary American When Jean Baudrillard equated modern American culture with space speed cinema technology he could just as easily have added that the road movie is its supreme emblem The contributors explore how the road movie has confronted and represented issues of nationhood sexuality gender class and race They map the generic terrain of the road movie trace its evolution on American television as well as on the big screen from the 1930s through the 1980s and finally consider road movies that go off the road departing from the US landscape or travelling on the margins of contemporary American culture Movies discussed include Road classics such as It Happened One Night The Grapes of Wrath The Wizard of Oz and the Bob Hope Bing Crosby Road to films 1960's reworkings of the road movie in Easy Rider and Bonnie and Clyde Russ Meyer's road movies from Motorpsycho to Faster Pussycat Kill Kill Contemporary hits such as Paris Texas Rain Man Natural Born Killers and Thelma and Louise The road movie Australian style from Mad Max to the Adventures of Priscilla Queen of the Desert

Coming Attractions Lisa Kernan, 2009-07-21 Movie trailers those previews of coming attractions before the start of a feature film are routinely praised and reviled by moviegoers and film critics alike They give away too much of the movie They're better than the films They only show the spectacular parts They lie They're the best part of going to the movies But whether you love them or hate them trailers always serve their purpose of offering free samples of a film to influence moviegoing decision making Indeed with their inclusion on videotapes DVDs and on the Internet trailers are more widely seen and influential now than at any time in their history Starting from the premise that movie trailers can be considered a film genre this pioneering book explores the genre's conventions and offers a primer for reading the rhetoric of movie trailers Lisa Kernan identifies three principal rhetorical strategies that structure trailers appeals to audience interest in film genres stories and/or stars She also analyzes the trailers for twenty-seven popular Hollywood films from the classical transitional and contemporary eras exploring what the rhetorical appeals within these trailers reveal about Hollywood's changing conceptions of the moviegoing audience Kernan argues that movie trailers constitute a long-standing hybrid of advertising and cinema and as such are precursors to today's heavily commercialized cultural forms in which art and marketing become increasingly indistinguishable
