Creating The Welfare State In Urban France 1880 1940:

Creating the Welfare State in France, 1880-1940 Timothy Beresford Smith, 2003 In this work Timothy Smith argues that although post World War II politicians have attempted to take credit for the creation of the welfare state the social reform movement in France actually grew out of World War I Smith shows that French social spending before World War II was well above the European average and demonstrates that the present welfare state is based on a structure that already existed but was expanded and consolidated with great political fanfare during the 1940s Smith shows that France's most important social legislation to date providing medical insurance maternity benefits modest pensions and disability benefits to millions of people was passed in 1928 and amended and put into practice in 1930 This law covered over 50 per cent of the population by 1940 Few other nations could have claimed this sort of social insurance success As well by 1937 the centuries old public assistance residency requirements had been transferred from the local to the departmental regional level France's success in introducing important social reforms may require us to rethink the common view of interwar France as a time of utter political economic and social failure

Healthcare in Private and Public from the Early Modern Period to 2000 Paul Weindling, 2014-12-17 A key volume on a central aspect of the history of medicine and its social relations The History of Healthcare in Public and Private examines how the modernisation of healthcare resulted in a wide variety of changing social arrangements in both public and private spheres This book considers a comprehensive range of topics ranging from children's health mental disorders and the influence of pharmaceutical companies to the systems of twentieth century healthcare in Britain Eastern Europe and South Africa Covering a broad chronological thematic and global scope chapters discuss key themes such as how changing economies have influenced configurations of healthcare how access has varied according to lifecycle ethnicity and wealth and how definitions of public and private have shifted over time Containing illustrations and a general introduction that outlines the key themes discussed in the volume The History of Healthcare in Public and Private is essential reading for any student interested in the history of medicine

Radio and the Politics of Sound in Interwar France, 1921-1939 Rebecca Scales, 2016-02-24 Explores how radio broadcasting and the emerging audio culture transformed the dynamics of French politics during the tumultuous interwar decades

Multiracial Identities in Colonial French Africa Rachel Jean-Baptiste, 2023-06-08 Despite increasingly hardened visions of racial difference in colonial governance in French Africa after World War I interracial sexual relationships persisted resulting in the births of thousands of children These children mostly born to African women and European men sparked significant debate in French society about the status of multiracial people debates historians have termed the métis problem Drawing on extensive archival and oral history research in Gabon Republic of Congo Senegal and France Rachel Jean Baptiste investigates the fluctuating identities of métis Crucially she centres claims by métis themselves to access French social and citizenship rights amidst the refusal by fathers to recognize their lineage and in the context of changing African racial thought and practice In this original history of race making belonging and rights Jean Baptiste demonstrates the diverse ways in which millions of individuals and collectives carved out visions of racial belonging as children and citizens in Africa Europe and internationally Explaining local government J. A. Chandler, 2013-07-19 Explaining local government available at last in paperback uniquely presents a history of local government in Britain from 1800 until the present day The study explains how the institution evolved from a structure that appeared to be relatively free from central government interference to as John Prescott observes one of the most centralised systems of government in the Western world The book is accessible to A level and undergraduate students as an introduction to the development of local government in Britain but also balances values and political practice to provide a unique explanation using primary research of the evolution of the system Paris and the Spirit of 1919 Tyler Edward Stovall, 2012-03-22 This history of Paris in 1919 explores the global implications of French political activism at the end of World War I Poverty, Charity, and Motherhood Christine Adams, 2010-10-01 This far reaching study of maternal societies in post revolutionary France focuses on the philanthropic work of the Society for Maternal Charity the most prominent organization of its kind Administered by middle class and elite women and financed by powerful families and the government the Society offered support to poor mothers helping them to nurse and encouraging them not to abandon their children In Poverty Charity and Motherhood Christine Adams traces the Society's key role in shaping notions of maternity and in shifting the care of poor families from the hands of charitable volunteers with religious tinged social visions to paid welfare workers with secular goals such as population growth and patriotism Adams plumbs the origin and ideology of the Society and its branches showing how elite women in Paris Lyon Bordeaux Rouen Marseille Dijon and Limoges tried to influence the maternal behavior of women and families with lesser financial means and social status A deft analysis of the philosophy and goals of the Society details the members own notions of good mothering family solidarity and legitimate marriages that structured official elite and popular attitudes concerning gender and poverty in France These personal attitudes Adams argues greatly influenced public policy and shaped the country's burgeoning social welfare system Voluntary Organisations, the Red Cross, and the Features of Humanitarian Reconstruction in Western Europe after the World Wars Romain Fathi, Melanie Oppenheimer, Paul-André Rosental, 2025-06-11 This book explores the ways in which non government organisations have contributed to the reconstruction of and care for populations in Western European countries including but not limited to Belgium France Germany Italy and the United Kingdom in the aftermath of the World Wars Historical research on voluntary or non government organisations and their contribution to the reconstruction of states communities and humanitarian assistance to civilian populations following conflicts epidemics and disasters through the twentieth century has generally focused on non Western European countries except for Second World War II The historiography suggests that it is mostly in Eastern Europe the Middle East Asia and Africa that natural or man made disasters have occurred and that these places have been the focus for humanitarian assistance Rather the humanitarian enterprise is viewed through the binary of the Global North Global South those who save and those who are saved The chapters in this volume investigate how the Red Cross movement the League of Red Cross Societies the International Committee of Red Cross and individual national societies and other voluntary organisations such as the Rockefeller Foundation and a range of other international and local non government bodies have contributed to reconstruction in these countries at both national and local levels following times of crises such as wars civilian upheavals and disasters This book will appeal to scholars and students of history humanitarian studies international relations and social sciences The chapters in this book were originally published as special issues in European Review of History Revue europeenne d'histoire Social Rights and the Politics of Obligation in History Steven L. B. Jensen, Charles Walton, 2022-01-06 A pioneering study in the history of social rights filling a significant gap in human rights scholarship and practice Communities Under Fire Alex Dowdall, 2020 Between 1914 and 1918 the Western Front passed through some of Europe's most populated and industrialised regions such as the towns of Nancy Reims Arras and Lens This is the story of how war shaped the civilian identities of people who suffered intense artillery bombardment military occupation and forced displacement Migration, Settlement and Belonging in Europe, 1500-1930s Steven King, Anne Winter, 2013-11-01 The issues around settlement belonging and poor relief have for too long been understood largely from the perspective of England and Wales This volume offers a pan European survey that encompasses Switzerland Prussia Belgium the Netherlands and Britain It explores how the conception of belonging changed over time and space from the 1500s onwards how communities dealt with the welfare expectations of an increasingly mobile population that migrated both within and between states the welfare rights that were attached to those who belonged and how ordinary people secured access to welfare resources What emerged was a sophisticated European settlement system which on the one hand structured itself to limit the claims of the poor and yet on the other was peculiarly sensitive to their demands and negotiations The Return of Alsace to France, 1918-1939 Alison Carrol, 2018 In 1918 the end of the First World War triggered the return of Alsace and Lorraine to France after almost fifty years of annexation into the German Empire Enthusiastic crowds in Paris and Alsace celebrated the return of the lost provinces but return proved far more difficult than expected Over the following two decades politicians administrators industrialists cultural elites and others grappled with the question of how to make the region French again Differences of opinion emerged and reintegration rapidly descended into a multi faceted struggle as voices at the Parisian centre the Alsatian periphery and outside France's borders offered their views on how to introduce French institutions and systems into its lost borderland Throughout these discussions the border itself shaped the process of reintegration by generating contact and tensions between populations on the two sides of the boundary line and by shaping expectations of what it meant to be French and Alsatian Borderland is the first comprehensive account of the return of Alsace to France which treats the border as a driver of change It draws upon national regional and local archives to follow the difficult process of Alsace's reintegration into French society culture political and economic systems and legislative and administrative institutions It connects the microhistory of the region with the macro levels of national policy international relations and transnational networks and with the cross border flows of ideas goods people and cultural products that shaped daily life in Alsace as its population grappled with the meaning of return to France In revealing the multiple voices who contributed to the region s reintegration it underlines the ways in which regional populations and cross border interactions have forged modern nations

Creating the Welfare State in France, 1880-1940 Timothy B. Smith,2003-02-04 Smith shows that France s most important social legislation to date providing medical insurance maternity benefits modest pensions and disability benefits to millions of people was passed in 1928 and amended and put into practice in 1930 This law misrepresented in textbooks as being an utter failure covered over 50 percent of the population by 1940 Few other nations could have claimed this sort of social insurance success As well by 1937 the centuries old public assistance residency requirements had been transferred from the local to the departmental regional level France s success in introducing important social reforms may require us to rethink or at least modify the common view of interwar France as a time of utter political economic and social failure

Warfare and Welfare Herbert Obinger,Klaus Petersen,Peter Starke,2018-06-21 While the first half of the 20th century was characterized by total war the second half witnessed at least in the Western world a massive expansion of the modern welfare state A growing share of the population was covered by ever more generous systems of social protection that dramatically reduced poverty and economic inequality in the post war decades With it also came a growth in social spending taxation and regulation that changed the nature of the modern state and the functioning of market economies Whether and in which ways warfare and the rise of the welfare state are related is subject of this volume Distinguishing between three different phases war preparation wartime mobilization and the post war period the volume provides the first systematic comparative analysis of the impact of war on welfare state development in the western world The chapters written by leading scholars in this field examine both short term responses to and long term effects of war in fourteen belligerent occupied and neutral countries in the age of mass warfare stretching over the period from ca 1860 to 1960 The volume shows that both world wars are essential for understanding several aspects of welfare state development in the western world Europe's

Welfare Traditions Since 1500, Volume 2 Thomas McStay Adams,2023-03-23 Tracing the interwoven traditions of modern welfare states in Europe over five centuries Thomas McStay Adams explores social welfare from Portugal France and Italy to Britain Belgium and Germany He shows that the provision of assistance to those in need has faced recognizably similar challenges from the 16th century through to the present how to allocate aid equitably and with dignity how to give support without undermining autonomy and motivation and how to balance private and public spheres of action and responsibility Across two authoritative volumes Adams reveals how social welfare administrators critics and improvers have engaged in a constant exchange of models and experience locally and across Europe The narrative begins with the founding of the Casa da Misericórdia of Lisbon in 1498 a model replicated throughout Portugal and its empire and ends with the relaunch of a social agenda for the European Union at the meeting of the Council of Europe in Lisbon in 2000 Volume 1 which focuses on the period from 1500 to 1700 discusses the concepts of welfare and tradition It looks at how 16th century humanists joined with merchants and lawyers to renew traditional charity in distinctly modern forms and how the discipline of religious reform affected the exercise of political authority and the promotion of economic productivity Volume 2 examines 18th century bienfaisance which secularized a Christian humanist notion of beneficence producing new and sharply contested assertions of social citizenship It goes on to consider how national struggles to establish comprehensive welfare states since the second half of the 19th century built on the power of the vote as politicians pushed by activists and advised by experts appealed to a growing class of industrial workers Lastly it looks at how 20th century welfare states addressed aspirations for social citizenship while the institutional framework for European economic cooperation came to fruition

How to be Childless Rachel Chrastil, 2020 In How to Be Childless A History and Philosophy of Life Without Children Rachel Chrastil explores the long and fascinating history of childlessness putting this often overlooked legacy in conversation with the issues that childless women and men face in the twenty first century Eschewing two dominant narratives that the childless are either barren and alone or that they are carefree and selfish How to Be Childless instead argues that the lives of childless individuals from the past can help all of us expand our range of possibilities for the good life In uncovering the voices and experiences of childless women from the past five hundred years Chrastil demonstrates that the pathways to childlessness so often simplified as choice and circumstance are far more complex and interweaving Balanced deeply researched and richly realized How to be Childless will empower readers parents and childless alike to navigate their lives with purpose Poverty and Sickness in Modern Europe Andreas Gestrich, Elizabeth Hurren, Steven King, 2012-06-28

Explores the experiences of the sick poor in modern Europe via an analysis of pauper narratives Fashion, Work, and Politics in Modern France S.
