Karavis, Matthews, 2005-05-09 Bombs Away! Martin W. Bowman, 2010-06-15 This is a unique selection of wide ranging experiences of British and Commonwealth Bomber Command aircrew during World War II Their endearing bravery and fortitude and sometimes their despondency and cynicism shows through in these stirring daring often irreverent humorous and sometimes sardonic but memorable stories All reflect the ethos camaraderie fear and bravery of the largely ordinary men most of whom were plucked from civvy street and thrust into a frightening bitter conflict which was made even more dangerous by the lethal advance of technology Death would normally come from an anonymous assassin either in the black of night or from behind a cloud or out of the sun or simply from the Flak gunner on the ground And if all this was not enough the often unmerciful weather was no respecter of mortality There was no escaping the all embracing shock wave that rippled through the bomber squadrons after a heavy mauling over enemy territory Nothing could be more poignant than the vacuous places at tables in the depleted mess halls the empty locker of the departed or the dog pining by the barracks for its missing master Each man had to deal with tragedy in his own inimitable way Some hid their feelings better than others did only for the pain to resurface months or even years later Some who had survived the physical pressures and who completed their tours then succumbed to the mental torture that had eaten away at their psyche during the incessant and interminable onslaught day after day night after night There was little respite The valorous men of Bomber Command were in turn the Light Brigade the stop gap the riposte the avengers the undefeated Always they were expendable

Linebacker II James R. McCarthy,George B. Allison,2018 Linebacker II A View from the Rock was the Air Force s first published official history of the 11 day bombing campaign that capped off the Vietnam War Page v Air War Vietnam Martin W Bowman,2023-09-30 Showcasing specific aircraft and highlighting significant missions illuminates the skills and emotions of the men who flew the machines Bowman does an excellent job recounting stories about battles in the air and decision making on the ground The VVA Veteran Martin Bowman s revealing narrative of the aerial conflict in South East Asia 1965 1972 which had its beginnings in 1 November 1955 engulfed Vi tnam Laos and Cambodia and only ended with the fall of S i g n on 30 April 1975 has resulted from decades of painstaking fact finding as well as detailed correspondence with surviving aircrew incorporating a wealth of first hand accounts some never told before supported by dozens of rare and unusual photographs Together they describe in adrenalin pumping accuracy the furious aerial battles of a long suffering and bitter war in South East Asia and in particular the frontline action in the skies over Vietnam that will keep readers on the edge of their seats They too will find a new and useful perspective on a conflict that cost the Americans 58 022 dead and brought the USA worldwide condemnation for its role in Southeast Asia Nearly 2 500 Americans remained missing This work serves as a tribute to the courageous pilots who flew the F 104 Starfighter in the Widowmakers war and B 52 bomber crews on Arc Light Linebacker II strikes and the eleven days of Christmas which ultimately ended the aerial campaign against North Vi tnam And as well strike aircraft such as the USAF F

4 Phantom and the F 105 Thud and the US Navy carrier borne jet and propeller driven strike aircraft and the Americans sworn enemy the North Vietnamese MiG fighters feature large from Rolling Thunder onwards Equally the Hueys and Chinooks and other notable work horses that participated on combat assaults or Ash Trash missions and transports like the C 130 Herky Bird C 123 Provider Caribou and Vietnamese C 47 the Haulers On Call that performed sterling service during the gruelling air campaign are not forgotten either Here at first hand are their stories which also include some of the less publicised American forces like the pilots and crewmen who flew the Bird Dogs and all manner of helicopters as well as the largely forgotten Australian and New Zealand Air Force units and the Anzac Battalions whose valuable contributions are too often overlooked So too is the cost in human misery death and destruction WLA ,2002 When the Lamps Go Out

Megan Spurgin,2012-09-25 Nazi Germany 1938 Hilda van Ostrand knows that war is imminent and though she is loyal to the Fatherland her worries for the future cannot be denied especially when it comes to her budding romance with Jesse Riker a dashing American pilot Caught between opposing brothers and delicate friendships she hopes only to survive But nothing prepares her for the arrival of a stranger with a secret that questions the only life she has ever known Fleeing to London Hilda soon becomes an important asset in British Intelligence but her past comes back to haunt her with Jesses sudden arrival as a volunteer in the Royal Air Force Their future together grows distant as Hildas lies threaten to destroy the last semblance of identity she clings to Her determination to protect Jesse from the truth does not stop the bombs that rain down on London and when the tide of war pulls them apart again it may be for the last time A tale of betrayal love forgiveness and Gods enduring faithfulness When the Lamps Go Out illustrates the trials and triumphs of the human spirit and the harsh understanding and beauty of life in World War II Europe Naval Firepower ,1943 Shot at and Missed Jack R. Myers,2014-10-30 In this riveting narrative Jack R Myers recounts his experiences as a B 17 bombardier during World War II Commissioned a second lieutenant in 1944 at age twenty Myers began flying missions with the 2nd Bomb Group U S Fifteenth Air Force He learned firsthand the exhilaration and terror of being shot at and missed Based in Italy the Fifteenth Air Force flew strategic bombing raids over southern Germany Austria Hungary Rumania and Czechoslovakia Less celebrated than the Eighth Air Force which flew out of England the Fifteenth nevertheless was pivotal in dismantling the German industrial complex Myers offers an insider s view of these missions over southern and central Europe The reader goes with him into the highly exposed Plexiglas nose of the Flying Fortress flying with him through the flak filled skies of Europe and peering with him through his Norden bombsight at Axis targets On average a heavy bomber crewman survived only sixteen bombing missions Myers survived his allotted thirty five missions before being honorably discharged in 1945

The King Arthur Myth in Modern American Literature Andrew E. Mathis,2001-11-30 In American fiction two forms of the Arthurian myth are commonly found the use of the myth for political reasons and the use of the myth for the continuation of an aesthetic tradition that can be traced back to the earliest use of the Arthurian cycle by writers in the

British Isles This work traces the use of the legend from Mark Twain's A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court to Donald Barthelme's novel The King It discusses how Twain used the myth to take a stand against England how it served cultural and aesthetic purposes in John Steinbeck's writing how Raymond Chandler used it in complex texts with less obvious Arthurian allusions that carried strong cultural and even political associations how John Gardner used aspects of the myth to embellish already existing narrative structures and to underscore philosophic debates and how Donald Barthelme suggests the continuing interest of American writers in the Arthurian legend today in his novels Also discussed is the effect of World War II on American literature and the Arthurian myth and the Camelot image surrounding the Kennedys

Steel Fortress
Michael Sargent Martin, 2014-02-04 Steel Fortress is a story of survival about a flyboy aboard a B 17 bomber who is catapulted into the extraordinary experience of flying the heavies in the never to be replicated arena of World War II air combat He flies the gauntlet of Germany's defensive network in 1944 battling the demons of war in the European Theater and also in his mind It is a commentary on the totality of the human experience of war from the brutal realities of combat to the internal battle that goes on within each individual survivor On a cold February morning in 1944 Harold leaves his new bride at an Iowa train platform and embarks on a stark and riveting journey where camaraderie is the key to survival and loss is the lesson learned Heroism combined with humanism drives this compelling saga of the human spirit at its most triumphant and most vulnerable Steel Fortress joins ranks with the most poignant of commentaries on war it is a story for the ages and evidence of the universal spirit of man
