In this work Anderson Blanton illuminates how prayer, faith, and healing are intertwined with technologies of sound reproduction and material culture in the charismatic Christian worship of southern Appalachia. From the radios used to broadcast prayer to the curative faith cloths circulated through the postal system, material objects known as spirit matter have become essential since the 1940s. Blanton argues to the Pentecostal community's understanding and performances of faith. Hittin' the Prayer Bones draws on Blanton's extensive site visits with church congregations, radio preachers, and their listeners inside and outside the broadcasting studios and more than thirty years of recorded charismatic worship made available to him by a small Christian radio station. In documenting the transformation and consecration of everyday objects through performances of communal worship, healing, prayer, and chanted preaching, Blanton frames his ethnographic research in the historiography of faith, healing, and prayer, as well as theoretical models of materiality and transcendence. At the same time, his work affectingly conveys the feelings of horror, healing, and humor that are unleashed in practitioners as they experience in their own words the sacred healing presence of the Holy Ghost. Turn Around and See the Lord Joy Vassal, 2009-03. The book Turn Around and See the Lord takes inspiration from the experience that Mary Magdalene had with Christ Jesus and His angels at the Lord's sepulchre. The author relates Mary's human frailties to the emotional discomfort, stress, poverty, famine, social mishaps, and political servitude that may come upon us. These hardships, she believes, are inflicted upon some believers because of their wickedness, stubbornness, unbelief, and lack of simple trust in Jehovah God. She recommends that there is a need for a change or repentance. The author has put together more than twenty renowned biblical characters and her personal life testimony to address some of the challenges our generation is facing with idol worship and adulterous and obnoxious practices. Rev. Joy Vassal was born in Allison, Manchester, Jamaica, West Indies. While she was living in Jamaica, she studied at Beaumont College and graduated from Caledonia Educational College, Jamaica. When she came to Toronto, Canada, she continued her education where she matriculated in the Ministerial Affirmation and the Ministerial Internship Programs offered by the Church of God and Lee College, now Lee University, in Cleveland, Tennessee. She obtained an Addiction Social Worker's Diploma at Everest College, formerly CDI College. She is currently attending Tyndale University and Seminary. Joy is a devoted member of the West Toronto New Testament Church of God, where she serves as Missions Representative. Joy is a prolific playwright. Her playwriting skills were exemplified in The Old Man and the New Man, a drama production that she wrote and produced. It was an educative and insightful episode which was developed for television in 1999. She also produced two other plays, Gloria Suffering and The King Is Coming. Adding to her writing schedule, she writes for Miles magazine.

The Bone Richard Thomas Hundley, Tara Raczenski, 2023-03-16 About the Book The time is 715 BC. A shiftless Moabite raider, a beautiful Judean prostitute estranged from her home and her faith, and a fearless Assyrian warrior obsessed with death: all three are connected and transformed by the resurrecting power of an ancient artifact with a power that transcends understanding. Fast forward to 2025: a despondent father estranged from his life, a wayward mother longing for home, their precocious son, and the supernatural discovery he makes in his attic which may have the power to heal them all. Out of a single line of Old Testament scripture comes an epic story of human conflict, angelic intervention, and a golden thread of hope and healing for the world.

About the Author Tara Raczenski is a life-long theater enthusiast. Besides enjoying a variety of on and off stage roles, she has written several plays produced regionally, including Sleepy Hollow and Treasure Island, for which she won the Forsyth County New Play Initiative award. Writing original fiction was a novel step, but one Raczenski has thoroughly enjoyed. The drama and passion of the Bible stories really came alive for her as a child, with the help of her parents, Richard and Sharon, and the illustrations of the Picture Bible. Those images are with her to this day. She resides in North Carolina with her husband, three children, and three cats.

Bone of My Bone Grant Romoser-Claunich, 2025-08-07 Written by the father of an infant son who was diagnosed with leukemia when he was only months old, this book calls to question and reckons with faith, life, and an exploration of where God is in childhood cancer. If God exists at all, God must be found on a pediatric oncology floor. Guided throughout by the question "Where is God in this?" each chapter focuses on locating the divine by weaving together personal experience with theological reflections on Christian doctrines. This book is not an answer to the question of why suffering happens. It is a wrestling with God's presence that is at once personal, pastoral, and theological, and may just be a companion to finding God in the midst of your own hurt.

Sacred Bones, Magic Bones Ness Bosch, 2024-05-31 Bones have many stories to tell, so many that it would be impossible to tell them all. The Path of the Bones belongs to no one and everyone. The Path of the Bones only understands bones. Beneath the skin, beyond physical, linguistic, or cultural barriers, you and I are made of the same essence and held by the same skeleton. In a world full of barriers in which we have to jump to relate to one another, bones speak a universal language that connects us. Bones, together with the elements of nature, are the basis of the spirituality of humanity. The cult of bones and the cult of the ancestors are very old, dating back to prehistoric times. The first rituals were born near the dead. Bones are not something out of the ordinary yet there are still people who fear them Bones are magical Bones leave a trail that we can follow it is up to us to follow that path of bones to the entrails of our own history
