ARTHUR UPFIELD. Arthur W. Upfield, 1961      Bony and the White Savage, Etc Arthur William UPFIELD, 1964      Bony and the White Savage Arthur William Upfield, 2014-07-14 Good looking Marvin Rhudder came home from college on a long summer vacation The day it ended he raped Rose Jukes Thirteen years later after a long series of sex crimes he returns to Timbertown wanted for murder Some remembered him with hatred some with love but no one ever forgot Marvin Hidden in the cliff caves of the dangerous southern coast it would take an army to prise Marvin out or maybe just Inspector Bonaparte      Investigating Arthur Upfield Carol Hetherington, Kees de Hoog, 2011-10-18 Arthur Upfield created Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte Bony who features in twenty nine novels written from the 1920s to the the 1960s mostly set in the Australian Outback He was the first Australian professional writer of crime detection novels Upfield arrived in Australia from England on 4 November 1911 and this collection of twenty two critical essays by academics and scholars has been published to celebrate the centenary of his arrival The essays were all written after Upfield s death in 1964 and provide a wide range of responses to his fiction The contributors from Australia Europe and the United States include journalist Pamela Ruskin who was Upfield s agent for fifteen years anthropologists literary scholars pioneers in the academic study of popular culture such as John G Cawelti and Ray B Browne and novelists Tony Hillerman and Mudrooroo whose own works have been inspired by Upfield s The collection sheds light on the extent and nature of critical responses to Upfield over time demonstrates the type of recognition he has received and highlights the way in which different preoccupations and critical trends have dealt with his work The essays provide the basis for an assessment of Upfield s place not only in the international annals of crime fiction but also in the literary and cultural history of Australia      The White Savage. Winds of Evil , 1961 Arthur Upfield s scrapbook of press cuttings etc for the novels Bony and the White Savage published in the U S as The white savage and Winds of evil      Bony and the Black Virgin Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 When Inspector Bonaparte is called to the drought stricken outback sheep station he finds that two men have been savagely beaten to death Clues are scarce in this sun baked sand blown country but Bony s understanding of the bush and the people who live there both black and white leads him inexorably towards the killer When Upfield gets down to the point of interracial sexual relations he in effect is writing on one of the topics closest to his heart Here his picture is unusually poignant Caught in the iron grip of separation from his kind of loneliness of sexual attraction Eric Downer is a victim of life from The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne The Spirit of Australia Ray Broadus Browne, 1988 In the world of crime fiction Arthur W Upfield stands among the giants His detective inspector Napoleon Bonaparte is one of the most memorable of all crime fighters Upfield was an independent fiercely self assertive ex Britisher who loved Australia especially the Outback In many ways Upfield became Outback Australia the Spirit of Australia

Bony and the Mouse Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 Three times a killer has struck in Daybreak a one pub town in Western Australia Why should so many people suspect the strange bad boy Tony Carr Why were the local Aboriginal tribe far away from town at the time of the murders Inspector Bonaparte finds this small community very tight till the arrival of a job seeking bloke by the name of Nat Bonnar Though lacking in some of the tightness that characterises Upfield s strongest books this thriller is nevertheless a powerful success The geography and geology are stark and proper setting the people are alive and flexing with pain and apprehension And here as he so often does he creates a major heroic character in Melody Sam who is unparalleled and unchallenged from The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne Bony a unique figure among top flight detectives BBC Mr Jelly's Business Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 Murder down under The car lies wrecked and abandoned near the world s longest fence the rabbit proof fence in the wheat belt of Western Australia There is no sign of its owner Has George Loftus simply decamped for reasons of his own Or was it murder Bonaparte suspects the worst and is determined to find the body and the murderer This novel is filled with Upfield s own philosophy about what creates murderers We also find out a lot about Aboriginal tracking methods as well as more information about Bony s family background Mysteries in Paradise Bony Buys a Woman Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 Deep in Australia s outback a woman has been murdered her daughter vanished Ole Fren Yorky a crazy wanderer is known to have been in the area and his footprints have been identified near the body When he too disappears even the Aboriginal trackers are baffled Bony s approach changes everything It becomes one of Bony s great adventures He pictures the merits of Aboriginal society And he uses weather in this case the threatening rising of the lake to picture man s heroic stature The setting the events the pace of telling the story the style of telling it all combine to make this a tight effective crime novel From The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne Death of a Lake Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 Eight hundred kilometres from the sea Lake Otway is dying Heat drought and thirst crazed animals take their toll When Ray Gillen lucky lottery winner went for a swim one night and never came back some thought it was an accident or was it murder As the water level drops five men and two women wait beside the shrinking lake for the body the money or neither And watching it all Bony Death of a Lake is as intense and unrelenting story as Upfield ever wrote It should be for it is very close to Upfield s personality being the real Albermarle Station where Upfield was first hired as a cook in the 1920s and where he began his writing career In a hut at Wheeler s Well Upfield was inspired to write his Bony after a visit by Upfield s friend tracker Leon Wood from The Spirit of Australia by Ray

Browne Bony a unique figure among top flight detectives BBC      Venom House Arthur W. Upfield,2020-06-01 The Answerth family s mansion seems to deserve its nickname of Venom House perhaps because of its forbidding setting an island in the centre of a man made lake its treacherous waters studded by the skeletons of long dead trees Perhaps it s because of the unquiet ghosts of the Aborigines slaughtered by the Answerth ancestors Whatever the reason most people are content to give Venom House and its occupants a wide berth until a couple of corpses turn up in the lake The strength of Upfield s accomplishment in this book is so overwhelming it makes the reader cower The characters are well developed the conversation vernacular for the Australian outback and the development compelling The story is the nearest Upfield comes to a story that would have made Edgar Allen Poe envious Upfield maintains a kind of corpse like humour which is very amusing The whole book is first class Upfield and first class crime fiction from The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne      The Devil's Steps Arthur W. Upfield,2020-06-01 On special assignment with Military Intelligence Detective Inspector Bonaparte leaves his familiar Australian outback environment for Melbourne and a nearby mountain resort Although out of his element with city people Bony displays his characteristic skills to interpret some puzzling clues in the search for a wily killer The complex half caste Bony is I think my favourite fictional detective of the past twenty years Anthony Boucher The New York Times
