Of Marlow:

The Ghost of Marlow House Bobbi Holmes, Anna J. McIntyre, 2018-01-19 Conrad's Marlow Paul Wake, 2007-10
Reading Conrad's fiction alongside the work of Benjamin Blanchot, Derrida and Heidegger and offering an investigation into the connection between narrative and death, this book argues that Marlow's essence is located in his liminality and that the meaning in his stories is at all points bound up with the process of his storytelling Conrad's Charlie Marlow B. Paris, 2015-12-11 This study argues that Conrad portrays Marlow and his relationships with a psychological depth that is unsurpassed in literature. In Youth, Heart of Darkness and Lord Jim, he is a continuously evolving character whose thoughts, feelings and behaviours are expressions of his personality and experience The Hermit of Marlow Harry Buxton Forman, 1887 An Aesthetics of Morality John Krapp, 2002 Focusing on instances of moral pedagogy in novels by Thomas Mann, Albert Camus, Joseph Conrad and Fyodor Dostoevsky, he suggests that literature uses an aesthetic portrayal of personal relations to introduce scenes of moral tension that illustrate the way ethical claims are made and validated. BOOK JACKET
Soil survey of Wise County, Virginia, 1954 Soil Survey, 1946 Soil Survey Charles Shaffer Simmons, 1953
Thresholds of Western Culture John Burt Foster, Jr., Wayne Froman, 2003-01-01 Thresholds of Western Culture explores identity, postcoloniality and transnationalism, three closely related issues which redefine contemporary cultural identity. The book opens with an analysis of subjectivity and the cultural meltdown that accompanied fascism in the West. The situation in Africa is then explored, which, while recalling modernity's dark side, highlights the intricacy of postcolonial identity. Post-Soviet Eastern Europe presents a separate case of neglected postcoloniality which emphasizes how ethnocentrism and cultural tensions have exposed the fragility of transnationalism. The book concludes with an examination of East Asia, a region which offers transnational options potentially much more fruitful than Balkanization Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness Mohit Kumar Ray, 2006 Hastily written in pencil and serialized in Blackwood's Magazine in 1899 as The Heart of Darkness and later published in book form in 1902 as Heart of Darkness, the sibylline charm of the novel has established it as one of the most important canonical texts of British literature. Critics have seen the book as an angry document on absurd and brutal exploitation, Guérard probably the greatest short novel in English, Karl Annunciation of the Savage God, Cox an adventure story, an early instance of modern fiction, an existential novel and an early specimen of new historicism. The novel turns on a double paradox: Hillis Miller addresses itself simultaneously to Europe's exploitation of Africa, the primeval human situation, an archaic aspect of the mind's structure and a condition of moral baseness. Parry, but at the same time, the novel has elicited an angry reaction from Chinua Achebe, who calls Conrad a bloody racist. The present study, one in the series of Atlantic Critical Studies, attempts to make a close reading of the novel and examines its various aspects with lucidity and profundity, never losing, however, the touch with the reality of the academic needs of the students of English literature An Introduction to Fairbairn's

Psychology of Dynamic Structure Graham S Clarke, 2025-09-11 An Introduction to Fairbairn's Psychology of Dynamic Structure The Analysis of Cultural Objects describes W R D Fairbairn's model of endopsychic structure and includes his thoughts on the social and the aesthetic It offers a modified version of Fairbairn's model based upon his thinking about the moral defence psychic growth and mature dependence The model is brought to life by its application to the analysis of a number of cultural objects Bronzino's An Allegory of Venus and Cupid Dennis Potter's trailblazing miniseries The Singing Detective the enchanting anime Spirited Away directed by Hayao Miyazaki and the mind bending cinematic experience that is Everything Everywhere All at Once Author Graham S Clarke also considers the current conditions affecting psychoanalysis and psychoanalytic theories a society with increasing opposition to depth thinking of any sort and the rise of populism and the neoliberal notion of the self as entrepreneur He offers suggestions as to how these trends might be understood and challenged In particular he describes how Fairbairn's theory might be considered as and provide a basis for a critical realist personal relations approach to psychoanalysis This book is ideal reading for all psychoanalysts and those interested in the cultural impact of the arts

Conrad, Language, and Narrative Michael Greaney,2001-11-15 In this re evaluation of the writings of Joseph Conrad Michael Greaney places language and narrative at the heart of his literary achievement A trilingual Polish expatriate Conrad brought a formidable linguistic self consciousness to the English novel tensions between speech and writing are the defining obsessions of his career He sought very early on to develop a writing of the voice based on oral or communal modes of storytelling Greaney argues that the yarns of his nautical raconteur Marlow are the most challenging expression of this voice centred aesthetic But Conrad s suspicion that words are fundamentally untrustworthy is present in everything he wrote The political novels of his middle period represent a breakthrough from traditional storytelling into the writerly aesthetic of high modernism Greaney offers an examination of a wide range of Conrad s work which combines recent critical approaches to language in post structuralism with an impressive command of linguistic theory

Vietnam and Beyond Stefania Ciocia,2012-01-01 Vietnam and Beyond is a comprehensive in depth study of one of the most thought provoking writers of the Vietnam War generation Tim O Brien Through its thematic rather than chronological approach this volume sets itself apart from previous readings of O Brien s development as a trauma artist and an outspoken chronicler of American involvement in Vietnam Stefania Ciocia highlights O Brien s compelling preoccupation with the role and the ethical responsibility of the storyteller with his clear privileging of story truth over happening truth in order to make a bold statement about the power of fiction and narrative

Conrad in the Nineteenth Century Ian Watt,1979 Nothing short of a masterpiece One of the great critical works produced since the 1950s New York Times

Conrad and Impressionism John G. Peters,2001-03-15 John Peters investigates the impact of Impressionism on Conrad and links this to his literary techniques as well as his philosophical and political views He investigates the sources and implications of Conrad s impressionism in order to argue for a consistent link between his literary technique philosophical presuppositions and socio political views

The Passage of Literature Christopher GoGwilt,2011-01-27 Through a set of comparative studies of the fiction of Joseph Conrad Jean Rhys and Pramodya Ananta Toer The Passage of Literature explains the interrelation between English Creole and Indonesian formations of literary modernism arguing that each passage of literature is the site of contest between competing genealogies of culture

All the Difference in the World Natalie Melas,2007 This book is about culture and comparison Starting with the history of the discipline of comparative literature and its forgotten relation to the positivist comparative method it inquires into the idea of comparison in a postcolonial world Comparison was Eurocentric by exclusion when it applied only to European literature and Eurocentric by discrimination when it adapted evolutionary models to place European literature at the forefront of human development This book argues that inclusiveness is not a sufficient response to postcolonial and multiculturalist challenges because it leaves the basis of equivalence unquestioned The point is not simply to bring more objects under comparison but rather to examine the process of comparison The book offers a new approach to the either/or of relativism and universalism in which comparison is either impossible or assimilatory by focusing instead on various forms of incommensurability comparisons in which there is a ground for comparison but no basis for equivalence Each chapter develops a particular form of such cultural comparison from readings of important novelists Joseph Conrad Simone Schwartz Bart poets Aim C saire Derek Walcott and theorists Edouard Glissant Jean Luc Nancy Town Papers. Documents Relating to Towns in New Hampshire ,1884
