Of Nadath:

The Book of Nadath Robin Hyde, 1999 The publication of this poem with the assistance of Michele Leggott's introduction and textual notes will significantly shift our assessment of Hyde's achievement BOOK JACKET Young Knowledge: the Poems of Robin Hyde Michele Leggott, 2013-10-01 Young Knowledge presents for the first time a full chronological record of the poems of Robin Hyde a New Zealand writer active in the 1930s whose full achievement is only now being recognised Drawing on the 500 poems extant Michele Leggott has chosen 300 divided into five sections Her aim is to arrive at a better understanding of the 15 years of massive production which shaped the poet and which may be her major literary work Young Knowledge shows Robin Hyde's growth as a poet her response to the painful events of her life and to the political and social world around her The poems are remarkable both for their acute observation of the physical and emotional world and for their powerful prophetic and visionary elements The introduction and notes to Young Knowledge available here www.nzepc.auckland.ac.nz/authors/hyde make this an authoritative and comprehensive text and a brilliant presentation of a great poet An extra pleasure is the inclusion of five stunning photographs of Robin Hyde used on the cover and to head each section which have not previously been known

Better Britons Nadine Attewell, 2014-02-05 In 1932 Aldous Huxley published Brave New World his famous novel about a future in which humans are produced to spec in laboratories Around the same time Australian legislators announced an ambitious experiment to breed the colour out of Australia by procuring white husbands for women of white and indigenous descent In this study Nadine Attewell reflects on an assumption central to these and other policy initiatives and cultural texts from twentieth century Britain Australia and New Zealand that the fortunes of the nation depend on controlling the reproductive choices of citizen subjects Better Britons charts an innovative approach to the politics of reproduction by reading an array of works and discourses from canonical modernist novels and speculative fictions to government memoranda and public debates that reflect on the significance of reproductive behaviours for civic national and racial identities Bringing insights from feminist and queer theory into dialogue with work in indigenous studies Attewell sheds new light on changing conceptions of British and settler identity during the era of decolonization who deliberately and decisively changed the course of literature is told in this book shedding important new light on the key participants including Allen Curnow Denis Glover and Robin Hyde The movement is traced through small circulation magazines and small press publications from 1932 to 1941 The repudiations and loyalties by which the movement defined itself are explored including its opposition to the literary establishment and to late Georgian verse its naming of its precursors and allies from the 1920s and its choice of overseas models such as the British Moderns and the new American short story writers for the creation of a new literature oppose the cultural myths supported by the literary establishment and the writers responses to the world wide social upheavals of the period the Depression the international crises of 1935 to 1939 and World War II
