Launius,Dwayne A. Day,1996 Coming after the successful first volume the second volume covers the important topics of NASA relations with the military foreign space agencies and NASA industry university relations Organized in a similar format as volume I this book should be very useful to students of space exploration The Unknown Socrates ,2002 Socrates 469 399 BC is one of history s most enigmatic figures Our knowledge of him comes to us second hand primarily from the philosopher Plato who was Socrates most gifted student and from the historian and sometime philosopher Xenophon who counted himself as a member of Socrates inner circle of friends We also hear of Socrates in one comic play produced during his lifetime Aristophanes Clouds and in passing from the philosopher Aristotle a student of Plato Socrates is a figure of enduring interest He is often considered the father of Western Philosophy yet the four most famous accounts we have of him present a contradictory confusing picture Just who was Socrates A brilliant philosopher at times confounding and infuriating morally serious and yet ironic the ever worldly man sometime mystic and uncommon martyr depicted by Plato Or did Plato conflate Socrates views with his own startling genius as Aristotle suggests Was So rates

instead the less impressive more mundane man whose commonsense impressed the laconic Xenophon Or was Socrates the charlatan the long winded phony of Aristophanes play The Socratic works of Diogenes Laertius 3rd century AD Libanius AD 314 c 393 Maximus of Tyre 2nd century AD and Apuleius born c AD 125 add important dimensions to the portrait of Socrates Diogenes Laertius Life of Socrates emphasizes Socrates deep ethical nature and his extraordinary personality Libanius Apology of Socrates is based on sources now lost to us Maximus of Tyre s Whether Socrates Did the Right Thing When He Did Not Defend Himself makes the star ling claim against testimony of Plato and Xenophon that Socrates never spoke at his own trial from Apuleius On the God of Socrates we hear at length of Socrates infamous daimonion the divine sign only mentioned elsewhere the sign that warned Socrates against certain courses of action In short from these four texts we are reintroduced to Socrates and new wrinkles are added to an already intriguing historical figure

In Search of the Unknown Robert William Chambers, 2020-09-28 Because it all seems so improbable so horribly impossible to me now sitting here safe and sane in my own library I hesitate to record an episode which already appears to me less horrible than grotesque Yet unless this story is written now I know I shall never have the courage to tell the truth about the matter not from fear of ridicule but because I myself shall soon cease to credit what I now know to be true Yet scarcely a month has elapsed since I heard the stealthy purring of what I believed to be the shoaling undertow scarcely a month ago with my own eyes I saw that which even now I am beginning to believe never existed As for the harbor master and the blow I am now striking at the old order of things But of that I shall not speak now or later I shall try to tell the story simply and truthfully and let my friends testify as to my probity and the publishers of this book corroborate them On the 29th of February I resigned my position under the government and left Washington to accept an offer from Professor Farrago whose name he kindly permits me to use and on the first day of April I entered upon my new and congenial duties as general superintendent of the water fowl department connected with the Zoological Gardens then in course of erection at Bronx Park New York For a week I followed the routine examining the new foundations studying the architect's plans following the surveyors through the Bronx thickets suggesting arrangements for water courses and pools destined to be included in the enclosures for swans geese pelicans herons and such of the waders and swimmers as we might expect to acclimate in Bronx Park It was at that time the policy of the trustees and officers of the Zoological Gardens neither to employ collectors nor to send out expeditions in search of specimens The society decided to depend upon voluntary contributions and I was always busy part of the day in dictating answers to correspondents who wrote offering their services as hunters of big game collectors of all sorts of fauna trappers snarers and also to those who offered specimens for sale usually at exorbitant rates To the proprietors of five legged kittens mangy lynxes moth eaten coyotes and dancing bears I returned courteous but uncompromising refusals of course first submitting all such letters together with my replies to Professor Farrago One day towards the end of May however just as I was leaving Bronx Park to return to town Professor Lesard of the reptilian department called out to me that Professor Farrago wanted to see me a moment so I put my pipe into my pocket again and retraced my steps to the temporary wooden building occupied by Professor Farrago general superintendent of the Zoological Gardens The professor who was sitting at his desk before a pile of letters and replies submitted for approval by me pushed his glasses down and looked over them at me with a whimsical smile that suggested amusement impatience annoyance and perhaps a faint trace of apology
