Women, Religion, and the Gift Morny Joy, 2016-10-19 This book introduces the special dynamics of women and their close relationships with the gift in both past and contemporary religious settings Written from a cross cultural perspective it challenges depictions of women s roles in religion where they have been relegated to compliance with specifically designated gendered attributes The different chapters contest the resultant stereotypes that deny women agency Each chapter describes women as engaged in an aspect of religion from that of ritual specialists to benefactors and patrons or even innovators The volume examines topics such as sainthood and sacrifice so as to refine these ideas in constructive ways that do not devalue women It also examines the meaning of the term gift today embracing the term in both figurative and literal ways Such a collection of diverse women s writings and activities provides a significant contribution to their quest for recognition and also suggests ways this can be understood and realized today
