Art and Artists of Twentieth-Century China Michael Sullivan, 2023-12-22 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture Michael Sullivan recognized throughout the world as a leading scholar of Chinese art vividly documents the conflicting pulls of traditional and Western values on Chinese art and provides 364 illustrations in color and black and white to show the great range of artistic expression and the historical processes that occurred within various movements A substantial biographical index of twentieth century Chinese artists is a valuable addition to the text Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China's background of oppression and relaxation despair and hope He expertly conveys the diverse and at times bizarre intertwining of Chinese cultural history and art during this century Included are the intense debates between traditionalists and reformers the creation of the first art schools and the birth of the idea shocking in ethnocentric China that art is a world language that obliterates all frontiers The scholarly traditions of classical Chinese painting the belated discovery of Western modernism the artistic upheaval under Communism and China's rethinking of the very nature of art all have a place in Sullivan's fascinating history Michael Sullivan has known many of the major figures in China's modern art movement of the 1930s and 1940s and has also gained the confidence of younger artists who rose to prominence following the 1979 Peking Spring This long awaited book richly documented and abundantly illustrated is a capstone to Sullivan's work and will be enthusiastically welcomed by art lovers everywhere

Inside/out Asia Society. Galleries, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 1998-01-01 The late twentieth century has been marked by momentous political economic and social change throughout the Chinese world Deeply rooted cultural assumptions and ancient visual traditions have been challenged by rapid modernization and conflicting global ethnic and local identities Inside Out New Chinese Art was the first major international exhibition to explore the impact of these challenges on artists in the People's Republic of China Hong Kong Taiwan and those of the 1980s Diaspora The multifaceted exhibition and accompanying catalog encompass an extensive range of artistic forms including installation video and performance art as well as more traditional media such as oils and ink The art is grouped according to themes some specific to regions and others that reflect widespread and overlapping trends With the inclusion of ambiguous territories like Hong Kong and Taiwan the exhibition opens up a perspective of modern Chinese art from the outside as well as a looking out from the inside The catalog features essays by eminent Chinese art scholars and curators along with leading curators and historians of Western art Together they promote Chinese art's rightful place in the contemporary global cultural arena and at the same time acknowledge the influence of its rich heritage The diversity and freshness of the exhibition reflects the explosion of creativity among Chinese artists during the past decade The ironic social commentary of Li Shan's The Rouge Series no 24 the apartment art of artists reacting against the traditional patronage of large museums and corporations and Wang Jin's sly humor in portraying consumer fetishes in today's China are a few examples of the spirited

Chinese Art and Its Encounter with the World David

Clarke, 2011-08-01 Chinese Art and Its Encounter with the World examines Chinese art from the mid eighteenth century to the present beginning with discussion of a Chinese portrait modeler from Canton who traveled to London in 1769 and ending with an analysis of art and visual culture in post colonial Hong Kong By means of a series of six closely focused case studies often deliberately introducing non canonical or previously marginalized aspects of Chinese visual culture it analyzes Chinese art's encounter with the broader world and in particular with the West Offering more than a simple charting of influences it uncovers a pattern of richly mutual interchange between Chinese art and its others Arguing that we cannot fully understand modern Chinese art without taking this expanded global context into account it attempts to break down barriers between areas of art history which have hitherto largely been treated within separate and often nationally conceived frames Aware that issues of cultural difference need to be addressed by art historians as much as by artists it represents a pioneering attempt to produce art historical writing which is truly global in approach David Clarke is Professor in the Department of Fine Arts University of Hong Kong
