Wilcox, 2019-01-16 Mother Teresa said to have courage for whatever comes in life everything lies in that When people think about courage they often think about those who put their lives on the line for us every day like first responders firefighters or police officers But there are so many others who quietly endure with steadfast courage whatever comes their way in life These people are like the anawhim in the Old Testament the good kind people whom very few know about but who trust in the Lord He is their strength It is because of their faith in him that they live their lives with courage to face whatever comes their way In over thirty years as a psychotherapist and spiritual director Wilcox has often been amazed at the strength and courage of so many of his clients Some have faced physical disabilities others struggle with mental emotional or psychological problems still others with personal family or career issues These people are what he calls the hidden faces of courage Often they are not well known They certainly receive no notoriety or press Yet they are always there doing the best they can each day This book is an invitation to understand and appreciate the unnoticed courage and strength of ordinary people If we can walk in their shoes it will help us to be courageous for whatever comes to us in life The Virtue of Courage Parth Sawhney,2024-04-26

The Economy of Courage AA Momodu ,2022-07-28 One of the greatest decision you will ever make with your life easy decision to be courageous regardless of what your face You must understand that there is nothing and I mean absolutely nothing created that is worthy of your fear because fear is worship The only one we should worship is God so therefore the only one that is worthy of your fear and my fear is God Anything else outside God must be faced with all boldness and without fear to conquer because man was created to conquer and to dominate Fear is worship Whatever you are scared of you are inadvertently worshipping Genesis 1 26 27 makes it explicitly clear that you re here for domination So God created man in his own image in the image of God created he him male and female created he them And God blessed them and God said unto them Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the fowl of the air and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth Genesis 1 27 Creation as we know it began with courage because God in the beginning was faced with darkness not any kind of darkness but deep darkness Amidst all that God saw He was courageous enough to say what He wanted to see And as soon as He said it He saw Life will always answer to the courageous live does not answer to excuses life only respond to commands

Foucault's Askesis Edward F. McGushin, 2007-04-03 In his renowned courses at the Collège de France from 1982 to 1984 Michel Foucault devoted his lectures to meticulous readings and interpretations of the works of Plato Epictetus Seneca and Marcus Aurelius among others In this his aim was not Edward F McGushin contends to develop a new knowledge of the history of philosophy rather it was to let himself be transformed by the very activity of thinking Thus this work shows us Foucault in the last phase of his life in the act of becoming a philosopher Here we see how his encounter with ancient philosophy allowed him to experience the practice of philosophy as to paraphrase Nietzsche a way of becoming who one is the work of self formation that the Greeks called askesis Through a detailed study of Foucault's last courses McGushin demonstrates that this new way of practicing philosophical askesis evokes Foucault's ethical resistance to modern relations of power and knowledge In order to understand Foucault's later project then it is necessary to see it within the context of his earlier work If his earlier projects represented an attempt to bring to light the relations of power and knowledge that narrowed and limited freedom then this last project represents his effort to take back that freedom by redefining it in terms of care of the self Foucault always stressed that modern power functions by producing individual subjects This book shows how his excavation of ancient philosophical practices gave him the tools to counter this function with a practice of self formation an askesis
