The Limits of Eroticism in Post-Petrarchan Narrative Dorothy Stephens, 1998-11-26 Although theories of exploitation and subversion have radically changed our understanding of gender in Renaissance literature to favour only those theories is to risk ignoring productive exchanges between masculine and feminine in Renaissance culture Appropriation is too simple a term to describe these exchanges as when Petrarchan lovers flirt dangerously with potentially destructive femininity Spenser revises this Petrarchan phenomenon constructing flirtations whose participants are figures of speech readers or narrative voices His plots allow such exchanges to occur only through conditional speech but this very conditionality powerfully shapes his work Seventeenth century works including a comedy by Jane Cavendish and Elizabeth Brackley and Upon Appleton House by Andrew Marvell suggest that the civil war and the upsurge of female writers necessitated a reformulation of conditional erotics

Theologies of Failure Robert Sirvent, Duncan B. Reyburn, 2020-01-01 What does failure mean for theology In the Bible we find some unsettling answers to this question We find lastness usurping firstness and foolishness undoing wisdom We discover too a weakness more potent than strength and a loss of life that is essential to finding life Jesus himself offers an array of paradoxes and puzzles through his life and teachings He even submits himself to humiliation and death to show the cosmos the true meaning of victory As David Bentley Hart observes most of us would find Christians truly cast in the New Testament mold fairly obnoxious civically reprobate ideologically unsound economically destructive politically irresponsible socially discreditable and really just a bit indecent By incorporating the work of scholars working with a range of frameworks within the Christian tradition Theologies of Failure aims to offer a unique and important contribution on understanding and embracing failure as a pivotal theological category As the various contributors highlight it is a category with a powerful capacity for illuminating our theological concerns and perspectives It is a category that frees us to see old ideas in a brand new light and helps to foster an awareness of ideas that certain modes of analysis may have obscured from our vision In short this book invites readers to consider how both theology and failure can help us ask new questions discover new possibilities and refuse the ways of the world Nietzsche on Morality and the Affirmation of Life Daniel Came,2022 This volume brings together a number of new essays by leading Nietzsche scholars to examine the philosopher s famous critique of morality and his emphasis on life affirming values Plato's Politics of Passion Alan Pichanick,2025-10-01 An original reading of three Platonic dialogues concerned with the soul tyranny self knowledge and the beautiful Guided by the question What is Socratic self knowledge this study begins with Plato s Charmides because it is within this work more than any other that the utility of self knowledge becomes the predominant theme In this dialogue Socrates explores the possibility of the very culmination of his philosophical investigations knowledge of ignorance This happens through an investigation of the perplexing concept s phrosun Alan Pichanick s approach offers a new perspective upon the perplexing exploration of s phrosun in the Charmides by placing much greater emphasis on the neglected erotic setting in the dramatic introduction and argues that our reading of the rest of the dialogue should be done in light of this dramatic setting The erotic setting of the Charmides combined with the discussion of philosophical wonder in the Symposium and tyrannical er s in the Republic gives guidance about how to think about the potential connection between Socratic self knowledge and knowledge of the good and also shows why the characters of Charmides and Critias fail to come to such knowledge Here we have the Platonic diagnosis of the tyrant whose soul never wonders at anything beyond itself Unmarked Peggy Phelan,2003-09-02 Unmarked is a controversial analysis of the fraught relation between political and representational visibility in contemporary culture Written from and for the Left Unmarked rethinks the claims of visibility politics through a feminist psychoanalytic examination of specific performance texts including photography painting film theatre and anti abortion demonstrations The Book of Erotic Failures Peter Kinnell,1984-01 Virtual Intimacies Shaka McGlotten,2013-11-12 Virtual Intimacies tells the stories of gay men including the author who navigate social worlds in which the boundaries between real and virtual have been thoroughly confounded Shaka McGlotten analyzes intimate connection and disconnection across an array of media sites including mass mediated public sex scandals online spaces Do It Yourself porn and smartphone apps in order to show the ordinary ways people challenge and rework sexuality and technology The book frames virtual intimacy in terms of the mocking disapproval that looks at using technology to connect as something shameful or as a means of last resort However where many see a dead end Virtual Intimacies argues on behalf of more extensive understandings of intimacy thereby contributing to many feminist and queer approaches that seek to expand the scope of what counts as connection belonging or love The author also highlights the creative and resilient ways that queer people build social worlds using spaces and technologies in ways they were not intended Seducing Augustine Virginia Burrus,Mark D. Jordan,Karmen MacKendrick,2010 Augustine s Confessions is a text that seduces But how often do its readers respond in kind Here three scholars who share a longstanding fascination with sexuality and Christian discourse attempt to do just that Where prior interpreters have been inclined either to defend or to criticize Augustine s views Virginia Burrus Mark Jordan and Karmen MacKendrick set out both to seduce and to be seduced by his text Often ambivalent but always passionately engaged their readings of the Confessions center on four sets of intertwined themes secrecy and confession asceticism and eroticism constraint and freedom and time and eternity Rather than expose Augustine s sexual history they explore how the Confessions conjoins the erotic with the hidden the imaginary and the fictional Rather than bemoan the repressiveness of his text they uncover the complex relationship between seductive flesh and persuasive words that pervades all of its books Rather than struggle to escape the control of the author they embrace the painful pleasure of willed submission that lies at the erotic heart not only of the Confessions but also of Augustine s broader understanding of sin and salvation Rather than mourn the fateful otherworldliness of his theological vision they plumb the bottomless depths of beauty that Augustine discovers within creation thereby extending desire precisely by refusing satisfaction In unfolding their readings the authors draw upon other works in Augustine s corpus while building on prior Augustinian scholarship in their own overlapping fields of history theology and philosophy They also press well beyond the conventional boundaries of scholarly disciplines conversing with such wide ranging theorists of eroticism as Barthes Baudrillard Klossowski Foucault and Harpham In the end they offer not only a fresh interpretation of Augustine s famous work but also a multivocal literary philosophical meditation on the seductive elusiveness of desire bodies language and God

Failing Desire Karmen MacKendrick,2017-12-04 Luckily for human diversity we are perfectly capable of desiring impossible things Failing Desire explores a particular set of these impossibilities those connected to humiliation These include the failure of autonomy in submission of inward privacy in confession of visual modesty in exhibition and of dignity in playing various roles Historically those who find pleasure in these failures range from ancient Cynics through early Christian monks to those now drawn by queer or perverse eroticism As Judith Halberstam pointed out in The Queer Art of Failure failure can actually be a mode of resistance to demands for what a culture defines as success Karmen MacKendrick draws on this interest in queer refusals To value desire or seek humiliation undercuts any striving for success but it draws our attention particularly to the failures of knowledge as a form of power whether that knowledge is of one body or of a population How can we understand will that seeks not to govern itself psychology that constructs inwardness by telling all blushing shame that delights in exposure or dignity that refuses its lofty position Failing Desire suggests that the power of these desires and pleasures comes out of the very realization that this question can never quite be answered Euripides: Ion Euripides, 2019-10-17 Ion is one of Euripides most appealing and inventive plays With its story of an anonymous temple slave discovered to be the son of Apollo and Creusa an Athenian princess it is a rare example of Athenian myth dramatized for the Athenian stage It explores the Delphic Oracle and Greek piety the Athenian ideology of autochthony and empire and the tragic suffering and longing of the mythical foundling and his mother whose experiences are represented uniquely in surviving Greek literature The plot anticipates later Greek comedy while the recognition scene builds on a tradition founded by Homer's Odyssey and Aeschylus Oresteia The introduction sets out the main issues in interpretation and discusses the play's contexts in myth religion law politics and society By attending to language style meter and dramatic technique this edition with its detailed commentary makes Ion accessible to students scholars and readers of Greek at all levels Euripides: Ion , Vengeance of the Victim Marilyn Schneider, 1986 Vengeance of the Victim was first published in 1986 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions More profoundly than any documentary record the collected fiction of Giorgio Bassani Il Romanzo di Ferrara captures a very particular and powerful historical reality Italian Jewish life under Fascism especially between the passage of the so called racial laws in 1938 and the end of World War II Set primarily in the provincial city of Ferrara Bassani's narratives interweave themes of death victimization betrayal survival and artistic production His best known novel The Garden of the Finzi Continis and other works that concentrate on the crucial years of 1938-1945 stand at the center of the Romanzo They are preceded by texts that look back on Jewish life in the liberal era of the Risorgimento and followed by texts set in the liberated democratic society of the postwar years These framing narratives provide a space for remembrance and reflection Marilyn Schneider's aim in Vengeance of the Victim is to uncover the symbolic layers historical spatial topographical mythopoeic allegorical and sexual that five Bassani's texts their richness and ambiguity and in so doing to achieve a full understanding of his work and its representation of the Italian Jewish experience Death and victimization which pervade these texts set in motion a process of artistic renewal that is most fully embodied in the vibrant young Micol Finzi Contini Bassani's textual icon and a victim of the Holocaust Schneider also finds that the narratives especially the late ones pay self-reflexive attention to the creation of the text constructing an authorial persona engaged in an existential moral and artistic journey from symbolic death to rebirth It is the writing subject's successful completion of the journey that constitutes the vengeance of the victim The Philosophy of (erotic) Love Robert C. Solomon, Kathleen Marie Higgins, 1991 Solomon and Higgins have chosen excerpts from the great philosophical texts and combined them with the most exciting new work of philosophers writing today It examines the mysteries of erotic love from a variety of philosophical perspectives and provides an impressive display of wisdom that the world's best thinkers have brought and continue to bring to the study of love

Flaubert and Kafka Charles Bernheimer, 1982-01-01 Although their styles appear remarkably different Flaubert and Kafka share a common identification with the writing process itself I am a human pen wrote Flaubert I am nothing but literature declared Kafka This stimulating book is the first to explore the link between these writers Introducing his conception of psychopoetics Charles Bernheimer brings new clarity to many controversial issues in psychoanalysis rhetoric and critical theory In chapters on Flaubert and Kafka he probes the desires and fears motivating each writer's search for a fully satisfying literary style His interpretation of the strategies the authors adopt to harness the negativity of writing reveals the creative function of such psychological phenomena as narcissism fetishism and sadomasochism The major works Bernheimer argues dramatize the conflict between the structures of Eros and Thanatos metonymy and metaphor through which they are constituted From this illuminating perspective he traces the genesis of each writer's mature style analyzes two early works La Tentation de saint Antoine and The Judgment and examines two late masterpieces Bouvard et Pécuchet and The Castle applying to the latter Walter Benjamin's description of the allegorical mode This highly original work of theoretical criticism will interest not only readers of Flaubert and Kafka but all students of literary theory and the creative process

Mourning Modernity Seth Moglen, 2007 In Mourning Modernity Seth Moglen offers a bold new map of American literary modernism as a psychologically and politically divided response to the injuries inflicted by modern capitalism

Essays on Propertian and Ovidian Elegy T. E. Franklinos, Jennifer Ingleheart, 2024-01-17 This volume brings together eleven chapters on the genre of Latin elegy by leading scholars in the field Latin elegy is typically thought to have flourished for a brief period at Rome between c 40 BC and the early decades of the first century AD it was the pre eminent vehicle for writing about amatory matters in this period and among its principal exponents were Propertius and Ovid whose works constitute the focus of this volume Their poems and poetic collections were however by no means restricted to the themes of love even if amatory concerns often surface at unexpected moments in texts that are not ostensibly concerned with love Both poets were alive to their precursors writings in elegiacs and so aetiological themes and reflection on contemporary political circumstances form an integral part of their poetry Such concerns are explored in some of the chapters on Propertius on Ovid s Fasti and exile poetry and also in a Renaissance elegy that looks closely to its literary heritage as it comments on the concerns of its day Some contributions to this volume also shed new light on the typically elegiac conceit of separation notably in amatory and exilic texts while others look to conceptions of Roman identity and the relationship between the natural world and the cultural political and literary spheres All of the chapters share an interest in the close reading of texts as the basis for drawing broader conclusions about these fascinating authors their poetry and their worlds
