Cradle Mission:

The Pacific Garden Mission Carl F.H. Henry, 2017-02-02 No one who is even slightly familiar with the work and testimony of the Pacific Garden Mission will question the accuracy of the story here set forth Rather he will exclaim with Sheba's queen The half hath not been told It would not be possible to inscribe in a book the greatest triumphs of this work for they are of so sacred a character that human language could not portray or express them aright They are among those spiritual things which are spiritually discerned If all the details of those sixty five years were to be put down on paper so far as it is possible to describe them it would take more than the Library of Congress to house the books that would have to be written Only eternity will reveal all that the work of Col and Mrs Clarke and their successors has meant to poor sin laden humanity for whom Christ died Nor were these poor derelicts the only ones benefited by contact with this great work Some of the ablest preachers and teachers of the Word were trained to a large extent in the Pacific Garden Mission Perhaps there is no greater expounder of Scripture in America than Dr William Evans who is internationally known and whose messages have been blessed to thousands in this and many other lands As a student of the Moody Bible Institute young Evans led the singing and played a cornet at the Mission and later served for two years as an assistant to Harry Monroe He counts the time spent in that work as part of the schooling that fitted him for his later worldwide ministry It has been my privilege to know many of those mentioned in this volume I have seen the grace of God leading them on in Christ's triumph I have recognized their lowly self sacrificing interest in others who are still where they once were I have noted their dependence on God and have been moved by their simplicity as they went to Him in prayer believing He meant what He said when He bade them be not anxious about anything but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving make known their requests And I know they were upheld by the Hand of Omnipotence which they grasped in faith as they knelt at the cross Theirs has been a real salvation from real sin and wickedness But I must not attempt to hold anyone longer at the door Open and enter in and see for yourself this great galaxy of those who have surrendered to the cross of Christ And as you move on through these stirring chapters you will find yourself exclaiming with awe and reverence What hath God wrought H A IRONSIDE LITT D

Printers' Ink ,1899 The Mission Field ,1918 Space Transportation System ,1977 Christian Missions and Humanitarianism in The Middle East, 1850-1950 ,2020-09-07 From the early phases of modern missions Christian missionaries supported many humanitarian activities mostly framed as subservient to the preaching of Christianity This anthology contributes to a historically grounded understanding of the complex relationship between Christian missions and the roots of humanitarianism and its contemporary uses in a Middle Eastern context Contributions focus on ideologies rhetoric and practices of missionaries and their apostolates towards humanitarianism from the mid 19th century Middle East crises examining different missionaries their society's worldview and their networks in various areas of the Middle East In the early 20th century Christian missions increasingly paid more attention to organisation and bureaucratisation rationalisation and media became more important to their work The volume analyses how non missionaries took over to a certain extent the aims and organisations of the missionaries as to humanitarianism It seeks to discover and retrace such entangled histories for the first time in an integral perspective Contributors include Beth Baron Philippe Bourmaud Seija Jalagin Nazan Maksudyan Michael Marten Heleen L Murre van den Berg Inger Marie Okkenhaug Idir Ouahes Maria Chiara Rioli Kar ne Sanchez Summerer Bertrand Taithe and Chantal Verdeil Civilizing Missions in Colonial and Postcolonial South Asia Carey A.
