Reference Services in the Humanities Judy Reynolds, 1994-11-11 This helpful book provides practical insight into the work and environment of reference services in the humanities Librarian s mental maps of humanities reference materials must include an awareness of the metaphoric not too precise nature of many patrons queries Reference Services in the Humanities discusses the structure of literature in the humanities and how it matches or challenges mental images of the field Chapters are infused with the issues of language names and meaning within a metaphoric genre The book serves as a guide to humanist s use of metaphoric language and also as a bibliography of sources Reference Services in the Humanities contains specific references for finding materials in areas that are not traditional mainstream arts This sample of disciplines provides case studies depicting each field s particular idiosyncrasies Chapters examine the challenge of referral reference and common problems encountered in searching for answers to patrons questions The book contains a theoretical framework for interacting with patrons and addresses options for humanities reference in an electronic age This book brings together librarians and researchers who provide and manage reference services to a wide array of disciplines within the humanities Authors come from all types of libraries and represent a broad spectrum of patrons from the young student curious about the movies to practicing musicians and craftspeople This diversity provides an informative grounding for practitioners and library school students and faculty who wish to become effective reference librarians in the future Reference Services in the Humanities is divided into four sections which address research questions and challenges in selected disciplines descriptions from the field political issues in the humanities and theories and ideas for the future Specific topics explored include access to special collections censorship library resources for theater artists history research vocabulary control labeling of minorities craft information sources and much more The Crafts Business Answer Book & Resource Guide Barbara Brabec,1997-12-22 Topics include startup managing and marketing of a homebased crafts business Handbook of Reference Sources and Services for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries Margaret I.

Nicholas,1996-07 Lists over 750 sources focusing on the reference needs of adults The primary objective was to select quality reference tools which cover many different topics Topics include general works biography philosophy religion language literature visual arts applied sciences sports and recreation home life social customs and education Turn Your Talents Into Profits Darcie Sanders,Martha M. Bullen,1998 There seems to be no dearth of suggestions for making money at home as the growing number of books devoted to the topic proves But how many of these ideas are practical and creative at the same time The experienced team of Sanders and Bullen not only describes more than 100 of the more unusual business vocations but also interviews quite a few practitioners and lists specific resources to consult Each entry includes a lengthy explanation of the job and its duties and responsibilities along with a top tip e g for aspiring dog or cat breeders it is suggested as an adjunct to other pet related businesses not as a solo venture getting started and the going rate Sure to provoke chuckles are some of the recommendations albeit all bona fide such as a garden goosewear designer yes for concrete birds and a beekeeper no stings in this thought Good information well presented Handmade for Profit! ,

Reading Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif Simpson,2015-11-16 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs
