Bay Area Cocktails: A History of Culture, Community and Craft Shanna Farrell,2017 An American invention the cocktail fluctuated in popularity following Prohibition and had firmly taken root in the culinary landscape by the 1990s The Bay Area played a significant role in reviving it as much as New York and London From the distillers who pioneered craft spirits and Alice Waters revolutionary take on simple fresh food at Chez Panisse to the bartenders who cared enough to grow a dedicated cocktail community this is the story of how the Bay Area shaped the art of elevated drinking in America Through oral history interviews and recipes author Shanna Farrell chronicles the narrative history of the modern cocktail renaissance Critical Craft Clare M. Wilkinson-Weber, Alicia Ory DeNicola, 2020-05-26 From Oaxacan wood carvings to dessert kitchens in provincial France Critical Craft presents thirteen ethnographies which examine what defines and makes craft in a wide variety of practices from around the world Challenging the conventional understanding of craft as a survival a revival or something that resists capitalism the book turns instead to the designers DIY enthusiasts traditional artisans and technical programmers who consider their labor to be craft in order to comprehend how they make sense of it The authors ethnographic studies focus on the individuals and communities who claim a practice as their own bypassing the question of craft survival to ask how and why activities termed craft are mobilized and reproduced Moving beyond regional studies of heritage artisanship the authors suggest that ideas of craft are by definition part of a larger cosmopolitan dialogue of power and identity By paying careful attention to these sometimes conflicting voices this collection shows that there is great flexibility in terms of which activities are labelled craft In fact there are many related ideas of craft and these shape distinct engagements with materials people and the economy Case studies from countries including Mexico Nigeria India Taiwan the Philippines and France draw together evidence based on linguistics microsociology and participant observation to explore the shifting terrain on which those engaged in craft are operating What emerges is a fascinating picture which shows how claims about craft are an integral part of contemporary global change Profiles from the Kitchen Charles A. Baker-Clark, 2006-07-01 A well researched collection of portraits of famous figures from the culinary world s past and present Library Journal Despite their diverse personalities backgrounds and interests the subjects of this book are a testament to the fact that both cooking and eating are endeavors well worth learning and sustaining Profiles from the Kitchen includes well known food writers such as M F K Fisher Eugene Walter Elizabeth David and John T Edge famous cooks such as Julia Child and James Beard and contemporary chefs such as Rick Bayless and Susan Spicer Each individual has offered different views of food and cooking and has encouraged us to appreciate good cooking while considering other facets of our food including how food relates to issues of social justice spirituality and sustainability Masters of Craft Richard E. Ocejo, 2017-04-24 How educated and culturally savvy young people are transforming traditionally low status manual labor jobs into elite taste making occupations In today s new economy in which good jobs are typically knowledge or technology based many well educated and culturally savvy young men are instead choosing to pursue traditionally low status manual labor occupations as careers Masters of Craft looks at the renaissance of four such trades bartending distilling barbering and butchering In this in depth and engaging book Richard Ocejo takes you into the lives and workplaces of these people to examine how they are transforming these once undesirable jobs into cool and highly specialized upscale occupational niches and in the process complicating our notions about upward and downward mobility through work He shows how they find meaning in these jobs by enacting a set of cultural repertoires which include technical skills based on a renewed sense of craft and craftsmanship and an ability to understand and communicate that knowledge to others resulting in a new form of elite taste making Oejo describes the paths people take to these jobs how they learn their chosen trades how they imbue their work practices with craftsmanship and how they teach a sense of taste to their consumers Focusing on cocktail bartenders craft distillers upscale men's barbers and whole animal butcher shop workers in Manhattan Brooklyn and upstate New York Masters of Craft provides new insights into the stratification of taste gentrification and the evolving labor market in today's postindustrial city Craft We Chose Richard L. Holm, 2011-08-01
