ghost stories mysteries and much much more The Adventuress: A Craig Kennedy Detective Story Arthur Benjamin Reeve, A revolver shot followed by the crash of glass sounded in our hall At the same instant the laboratory door burst open and an elderly distinguished looking man stumbled in on us his hat now off his coat and collar awry his hair rumpled and his face wearing a dazed uncertain expression as though he did not yet comprehend what had so suddenly taken place My God he exclaimed gazing about in a vain effort to restore his dignity and equilibrium What was that I hardly had my hand on the knob when it happened A glance was enough to assure Kennedy that the man was unhurt except for the shock and in a moment he dashed out into the hall The front door of the Chemistry Building had been shattered by a revolver shot But not even the trace of a skulking figure could be seen on the campus Pursuit was useless There was apparently no one to pursue Pale and agitated still the man sank limply into a chair as I forced a stimulant into his trembling lips Kennedy closed the door and stood there a moment a look of inquiry on his face but without a word Some one must have shadowed me all the way gasped the man as he gulped hard must have seen me come in tried to shoot me before I had a chance to tell you my story It was some minutes before our strange visitor regained his poise and Craig refrained from questioning him though I was consumed with curiosity to know the reason of his sudden entrance When at last he did speak his first words were so different from anything I had expected that I could hardly believe him to be the same person In spite of his nervousness his tone was that of a hard practical man of business I suppose you know something of Maddox Munitions Incorporated he inquired somewhat brusquely I did not quite understand a man who could be himself so soon after an episode such as he had been through nor do I think Kennedy did either I have no interest in war brides returned Craig coldly Nor have I as such the man agreed apparently rather pleased than otherwise at the stand off attitude Kennedy had assumed But I happen to be Maxwell Hastings attorney for Marshall Maddox who was Kennedy wheeled about suddenly interrupting Whose body was found floating in Westport Bay this morning Yes Mr Jameson and I have read the little five line despatch in the papers this morning I thought there was something back of it As for me I was even more excited now than Kennedy and I could see a smile of satisfaction flit over the face of Hastings In a few sentences the clever lawyer had extracted from us what others took all manner of time and art to discover He knew that we were interested that he could depend on Kennedy s taking the case Kennedy and I exchanged a significant glance We had discussed the thing cursorily at the breakfast table as we did any odd bit of news that interested us Already I knew or fancied I knew something of the affair For it was at the time when explosions in munitions plants had furnished many thrilling chapters of news All the explosions had not been confined to the plants however There had been and still were going on explosions less sanguinary but quite as interesting in the Maddox family itself There was a hundred million dollars as the apple of discord and a most deadly feud had divided the heirs Together they had made money so fast that one might think they would not feel even annoyance over a stray million here and there But as so often happens jealousy had crept in Sudden wealth seemed to have turned the heads of the whole family

Marshall Maddox was reported to have been making efforts to oust the others and make himself master of the big concern
