Building a Healthy Multi-Ethnic Church Mark DeYmaz,2020-10-06 Through personal stories proven experience and a thorough analysis of the biblical text Building a Healthy Multi Ethnic Church illustrates both the biblical mandate for the multi ethnic church and the seven core commitments required to bring it about Mark DeYmaz pastor of one of the most proven multi ethnic churches in the country writes from both his experience and his extensive study of how to plant grow and encourage more ethnically diverse churches He argues that the homogenous unit principle will soon become irrelevant and that the most effective way to spread the gospel in an increasingly diverse world is through strong and vital multi ethnic churches Apart from ethnically and economically diverse relationships we cannot understand others different from ourselves develop trust for others who are different than us and or love others different than ourselves Apart from understanding trust and love we are less likely to get involved in the plight of others different than ourselves Without involvement nothing changes and the disparaging consequences of systemic racism remain entrenched in our culture Surely it breaks the heart of God to see so many churches segregated ethnically or economically from one another and that little has changed in the many years since it was first observed that eleven o'clock on Sunday morning is the most segregated hour in the land Strength for the Journey Diana Butler Bass, 2017 Updated version of spiritual autobiography from an important voice in the church Insights on how parishes have confronted issues of change As a standard in the field of spiritual autobiography Diana Butler Bass Strength for the Journey has been a guide for thousands of Christians who have also found themselves journeying along a path toward a faith different from that discovered in childhood This new edition will retain all that drew readers to its pages alongside the voice of those next generation Christians now walking that path for themselves In Strength for the Journey Diana Butler Bass illustrates the dynamic strength and persistence of mainline Protestantism While many baby boomers left the church only to come back later in life Bass was a stayer who witnessed the struggles and changes and found much there that was meaningful Offering thought provoking portraits of eight parishes she attended over two decades she explores the major issues that have confronted mainline denominations congregations and parishioners during those years from debates over women clergy to conflicts about diversity and community to scrimmages between tradition and innovation

Designing Inclusive Futures P. Langdon, P. John Clarkson, P. Robinson, 2008-03-07 Designing Inclusive Futures reflects the need to explore in a coherent way the issues and practicalities that lie behind design that is intended to extend our active future lives This encompasses design for inclusion in daily life at home but also extends to the workplace and for products within these contexts For example given trends in employment sector growth skills requirements labour supply and demographic change there is a need to predict the critical areas where individual capabilities are mismatched with the physical social and organisational demands of work This mismatch which can be addressed within the domain of inclusive design is pervasively linked to real artefacts in workspaces and their intersection with the health factors that relate to ageing This book is the result of the fourth CWUAAT workshop held in Cambridge England in April 2008

Coming Home Graham Tomlin, Malcolm Brown, 2020-10-22 Everyone has an interest in housing because we all live in some kind of home While there has been plenty of theological reflection on the natural environment there has been little on the built environment or on a theology of housing Addressing the urgent problems of housing inequality and affordability Coming Home proposes a practical and biblical theology of housing provision as an essential part of community building It explores the purpose of home and housing today housing and human flourishing shared living and neighbourliness It asks how and why the church should contribute to local and national housing policy and thus to building community life and offers case studies in community action Contributors include Samuel Wells Timothy Gorringer Niamh Colbrook Selina Stone Angus Ritchie and Shermana Fletcher of the Centre for Theology and Community Collectively they bring theology and practice together

Engaging the Doctrine of Jesus (and Mary) Matthew Levering,2025-03-10 The six chapters of this book focus upon Jesus conception and birth from a virgin his authoritative teaching his miracles his cross his resurrection and his ascension The purpose of the book is to articulate and defend the truth of these salvific mysteries as presented to us in Scripture In addition to conversing extensively with historical critical biblical scholarship the chapters make recourse to the theological tradition from the church fathers onward with Thomas Aquinas as a touchstone Levering seeks to make a case for believing in Jesus At the same time he shows how each of these mysteries is intimately linked with a truth about Mary the Mother of Jesus thus arguing for the integral relationship of Christology and Mariology Mary enacts the reception of the Lord by God s faithful people the New Adam never chooses to be without the New Eve in God s new covenant family The Christology offered in this book is therefore both attuned to historical studies of Jesus and Second Temple Judaism and at the same time deeply traditional in a contemporary Catholic and ecumenical way
